THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLV.—NO. 22.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1889.

WHOLE NO. 7194

A female doctor states that it is injurious to the spines of young children to spank them. Parents who find it necessary to discipline in this way should wait until the children grow up and the spinal column becomes strong enough to stand operations of this kind without danger.

Bishop Foss, of Pittsburg, advises his young ministers not to read the newspapers. Bishop Foss is evidently a fossil. Young ministers should not only read the newspapers but subscribe for them and pay in advance, thus setting a good example to their congregations.

The Philadelphia Ledger consoles the city of Philadelphia in her declining commerce by the announcement that she exported about 14,000,000 gallons more of oil this year than last year. This is pouring oil upon the troubled waters.

John Ripper, mate of a vessel, is up in New York for assaulting a sailor. A gentleman with a name somewhat resembling that has been doing some assaulting business in London, and it is about time he was up, too.

It is reported that the Mormons are abandoning polygamy, but the probabilities are that it is polygamy that is abandoning the Mormons.

Mr. Edison says the electric wires when under ground will not be safe either. They seem to be loaded wherever you put 'em.

Mail of Years and Centinials. Fayetteville Observer.

The Wilmington Star has entered upon its forty-fifth volume. Mr. Bernard is one of the best newspaper men in the South, and has always had with him the best of coadjutors. A prominent characteristic of the paper has ever been its level-headedness—it never "flies of the handle" and in all the great issues before the country, some of them to a certain extent dividing the Democratic party, the Star, to the best of our recollection, has been invariably right.

THE CITY

STAR OFFICE—Wrapping paper. SCHLOSS & CO.—Remember the place. HALL & PEARSALL—Rust proof oats. MUNSON & CO.—Light weight overcoat.

A splendid attraction. Our Theatre goes will have an opportunity Monday night to see an excellent stock company produce one of the best of the comedy successes of Augustin Daly's Theatre.

Ex Queen Natalie is beginning to raise a racket over in Serbia. When a woman makes up her mind to raise a racket the racket generally comes right along.

The Car has presented Bismarck some valuable snuff boxes as mementoes of his visit. These are some of the royal favors that perhaps it might do to sneeze at.

The Raleigh Call, of Tuesday, put on a Fair costume of red, white and blue, a fair simile edition of the American flag. But the push and the dash of the Call never flag.

New York has gotten tired of baring citizens whose careers were brought to a sudden termination by the over head electric wires, and is now going to try baring the wires.

The New York Commercial Advertiser wants some elixir injected into the World's Fair Finance Committee. What has this committee done that it should be thus exterminated?

President Harrison is now turning his attention to cleaning out the rats that infest the White House. This is costing him ten dollars a day. He is getting it in good shape for his Democratic successor.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company is making efforts to induce mechanics in the New England towns to settle in the growing towns of Northern Alabama, and is meeting with some success.

The Milwaukee Sentinel thinks the word "panta" should be abolished, and the New York Sun thinks that while the American "gent" exists there is no good reason why he should be deprived of "panta."

Several of the city churches have changed their hours for evening services from 8 to 7 o'clock.

The walls of the government building are up and the workmen are placing the coping in position.

St. John's Lodge No. 1 of Masons will hold a Lodge of Instruction upon the Third Degree at St. John's Hall this Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Dr. W. P. Mallett, a prominent citizen and accomplished physician of Chapel Hill, died in that place last Wednesday morning of heart disease.

Work at the cotton seed oil mills has not yet commenced. Cotton seed in considerable quantity has been received but the presses have not yet arrived.

The annual meeting of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, for election of officers, will be held Thursday, October 24th, at noon, at the Produce Exchange.

The funeral of the late Carl M. Brown took place yesterday forenoon from St. James' Church. The pall bearers were Messrs. R. D. Cronly, E. H. Freeman, Geo. S. LeGrand, N. H. Quince, Richard Mellinny and O. P. Cazaux.

Dr. I. N. Carr, formerly of this city, delivered an address before the Thompson Orphanage Guild at Tarboro last week. The Southern says his address was replete with interest and won many plaudits from an appreciative audience.

There were many inquiries yesterday at the office of the Clyde Steamship Company in this city, for information concerning the steamer Pioneer, ashore off Ocracoke Inlet; but the agent of the company was without intelligence. All that is known is that the steamer went ashore Monday night and that the passengers and crew were saved.

The Norfolk papers report that on Tuesday wrecking tugs went to the assistance of the stranded vessel, but on that day there was a terrific blow along the coast and the government telegraph lines to Hatteras were blown down. A telegram from Beaufort, N. C., on Wednesday reported a gale from the northwest, and that pilots were unable to go out owing to a heavy ground swell.

A dispatch from Norfolk dated the 16th says: A howling northwest gale swept over this section last night, and to-day the government telegraph line has blown down between Cape Henry and Hatteras, which accounts for no information being received to-day from the steamer Pioneer, of the Clyde line, ashore at Ocracoke Inlet, twenty miles below Cape Henry. The powerful tug C. W. Morse and a wrecking tug of the Merritt company have gone to her assistance.

The editor of the High Point Enterprise was in Charlotte last week, and had a talk with Mr. Davis of the Racket store. He says: In conversation with Mr. Davis, the well known racket store man, who has made nearly $100,000 in that city within four years in the racket business, he said he owed his success to newspaper advertising. He said: "You had as well try to fly a kite without a breeze as to try to run a successful business without advertising." There are some people, however, who will not see this, and when their trade begins to fall off they complain of dull times and they are mad with themselves and everybody else.—Charlotte News.

A "Farmer," writing the STAR from Mount Olive, Wayne county, N. C., says: "I have noticed the article in the STAR on the short rice crop south of us, and it leads me to say that I have just concluded the job of finishing mine, and I find the measure two-thirds of what I had estimated when cutting it. And I learn from others, all around the country, that the rice, as the cotton crop, is full one third short of the calculation one month ago. The grain is hard, dry and excellent, as far as it goes, and will be held for one dollar this season."

In this Court yesterday W. J. Brown was fined five dollars for disorderly conduct. George McKoy, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Case continued. Wm. Register and Wm. Penny, disorderly. Register was fined the costs in the case; judgment was suspended as to Penny.

The following are the forecasts for to-day: For Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina, fair till Saturday night, slightly warmer and westerly winds. For Georgia and Florida, fair, slightly warmer and northerly winds.
