Local News.
A Brooklyn woman, whose husband left her twenty years ago, saw a notice of his death in a Chicago paper and concluded she would go out there and see if he left anything else. She went, but instead of finding him a placid corpse she found him a very much surprised and disgusted man. And she was as much surprised as he was when he informed that he had gotten a divorce from her twenty years ago. At last accounts she held the fort, and vowed that she would hold it until he acknowledged her as his wife and the divorce fraudulent.

The Farmers' Exchange, published at Fayetteville, and the Scottish Chief, published at Red Springs, have been consolidated, and their place taken by the Farmer and Scottish Chief, which made its first appearance from the office in Fayetteville, where it will be published, this week. It is published by a company, but is under the management of R. T. Covington. It is a rating good paper, and has the STAR's best wishes.

The Charleston News and Courier will, on February 22d, distribute to the lucky drawers among its subscribers one hundred valuable presents, consisting of watches, pianos, organs, sewing machines, etc. All subscribers to the Sunday News, the Weekly News and Courier, and the daily News and Courier will have an equal chance to draw some of these prizes. But a paper as good as the News and Courier is prize enough.

Gen. Butterworth says that the results of his study of those old manuscripts he dug up in Paris, convince him that America was discovered by Irishmen about A. D. 500. But a good many of 'em got lost in the woods over here. Perhaps this was the way that the "wild Irishmen" we sometimes hear about originated.

Dr. Cuyler's church in New York last Sunday was crowded to hear an Earl preach. The pious souls rushed in early but were disappointed when the Earl didn't preach but only said something about philanthropic work in the British empire. How foreign titles draw, even in the pulpit, in this great democratic Republic.

Mrs. Emma Beckwith, of Brooklyn, announces herself a candidate for Mayor of that town, and the bad boys go in front of her house and holler "Woe! Emma!" Emma will sail out on them unawares if they don't keep a sharp look out, snatch 'em across her knee, and then it will be woe to some boy.

A law suit that began in Poland in 1490 about a forty acre tract of land, has just been closed by dividing the tract into two parts, giving each claimant half. It was Poland too. The original claimants who instituted the suit, have been dead some time.

On the 30th of September there were 521 vessels under construction in the yards of England, 121 more than at the same period last year. We used to build some ships in this country before the high tariff knocked the bottom out of our ships and the ship-building business.

The STAR in receipt of a very useful and valuable postal directory, published by the New York Evening Post, 208 Broadway. Price fifteen cents.

Fanny Green, colored, keeping an unlicensed dog, five dollars and costs.

Church Announcements.
At St. Andrew's Church to-morrow the morning discourse will be on "The Purport of the Transfiguration." At night, "When Not to Pray."
Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D.D., will preach both morning and evening at the First Baptist Church to-morrow. After the morning service the Lord's Supper will be administered.
The Executive Committee of the Evangelical Alliance will meet Monday at 10 a. m., in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. Pastors of the Alliance are requested to make announcement of the meeting Sunday.

On account of the sickness of Rev. Mr. Peschau, there will be no services to-morrow in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church.
Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Time of evening service has been changed, as will be observed Sunday being the anniversary of the present rectorship, the morning sermon will be appropriate to the occasion.
We have been requested to state that the pastor, Rev. W. S. Creasy, will conduct the usual Sabbath services at Grace Methodist Church to-morrow at 11:00 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m., whether the bells are rung or not, and at the close of the morning service the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered, for the last time the present Ecclesiastical year.

The Business and Working Men's Prayer and Experience meeting will be held at the Seaman's Bethel, on the south side of Dock between Front and South Water streets, to-night at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited. These meetings are pleasant and profitable.

Insults Aligned.
John Holt, colored, was arrested and locked up late Thursday night on the charge of having made away with the infant child of his wife, Phillis Holt. The couple live in a house with a number of other coloring persons, on an alley between Castle and Queen and Third and Fourth streets. The police found the woman too sick to be removed and a guard was placed over her. Yesterday, after diligent search, the officers found the body of the infant—a male child—wrapped in a piece of cloth and buried in a corner of the lot. There were no marks upon the body that would indicate foul play, but a post mortem examination, made by Dr. Potter, Superintendent of Health, showed that the child was born alive. Coroner Jacobs was notified of the finding of the body and will hold an inquest upon the remains this morning.

Holt has recently returned to Wilmington from the State penitentiary, where he served a term of three or four years imprisonment, having been convicted and sentenced for perjury in the Criminal Court of this county. He denies any knowledge of the affair or that his wife had given birth to a child. The woman said yesterday, after the body was found, that she had concealed the birth of the child from her husband, and that she had herself buried the body, thinking the child was dead.

The following are the forecasts for to-day:
For Virginia, rain, cooler, easterly winds.
For North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, rain, slightly cooler, southerly winds.
For Florida, fair weather, except rain in northern portions, stationary temperature, southerly winds.

Police Record.
The police made 121 arrests during the month of October; of which 85 were of colored persons, and 36 white. Twenty of the colored were females and two of the whites females.
Police court fines collected during the month, $348.50. Pound fees $19.75. Six alarms of fire were reported and eight places of business were found open at night by the police.
