OUTLINES.

Only Executive business was transacted in the Senate vesterday; Mr. Blair stated that his Education bill would come up as unfinished business to-morrow, when he would address the Senate; the Samoan treaty was ratified with only twelve dissenting votes; in the House the Democrats continued their efforts to impede business until a code of rules is reported, but the Speaker interposed his usual rulings, and the business of the session was of a character with that for the last four or five days; one vote was taken, which was not strictly a party one, nine Republicans voting with the Democrats-the question being on reference of a Senate bill; it is expected that a code of rules will be reported to-day. --- The physicians report that Secretary Tracy continues to improve slowly, and he has been taken to the Where House; his daughter, Mrs. Wilderming is better, but suffers a great deal from her bruises; Miss Wilderming is decidedly better; the son of the Secretary arrived in Washington early yesterday morning on a special train, and his presence was a source of great comfort to the afflicted Secretary.-The remains of Mrs. Alice Coppenger, eldest daughter of Secretary Blaine, were laid to rest yesterday in consecrated ground in Oak Hill Cemetery, beside those of her brother Walker; the last rites were performed by Rev. Father Sherman, son of Gen. Sherman, and Cardinal Gibbons. - The celebration of the Centennial of the Federal Judiciary was inaugurated in New York yesterday. at the Metropolitan Opera House, which was elaborately decorated; ex-President Clevelan-I delivered the introductory address, and was cheered to the echo; a number on other addresses were deharred by distinguished gentlemen, who Is ended the literary exercises. --A colored convention is in session in Washington, the proceedings of which have been of a stormy character; Bishop Wayman was at first declared elected President, but later this was challenged a mex-Senator Pinchback was declared the choice. - The Sixth National Bank and the Equitable Bank of New York have resumed business, the former under the direction of its late and now again President Leland, and a new board of directors; broker Pell, the bank wreeker, has succeeded in obtaining bonds in $25,000, and has been rescused: Claassen, his associate, has not succeeded in finding bondsmen. - Fatal railroad accidents are reported from Oregon and Illinois; in the loamer ten men were killed versal sympathy. The Pittsburg plate glass company cleared nearly a million of dollars last year, declaring a dividend of thirty-five per cent. It would seem that a business which pays a dividend of thirty-five per cent., ought to be pretty well able to take care of itself without sucking the government bottle. In the meantime the farmers in the good protection State of Kansas are burning corn because they can't afford to buy coal from the pro-

A writer in the Baltimore Sun. writing from Rio de Janeiro, says: "Many of the new electors have as much idea of the right and duties of their new position as your correspondent has of the Hebrew language." When Ingalls gets the race problem fixed up in this country he can migrate to Brazil and pursue the path of glory there.

The hand of affliction seems to be resting very heavily upon Secretary Blaine. The recent death of his son Walker, to whom he was devotedly attached, followed so soon by the death of his daughter, is a double bereavement in which he will have the sympathy of every one.

The spiteful Washington Critic says Chicago is built on a bog. This is not true. Chicago is not built on a bog. Chicago is built on something which has more bottom to it than a bog. It is built mainly on mortgages held in Boston, which have a solid grip in them.

Henderson Gold Leaf. The Wilmington STAR comes to us in an entire new dress of type, from the title head to the last line in the advertising columns, and looks as bright and bewitching as a seventeen-year-old girl in a new muslin dress. The STAR has always been a prime favorite with us, and while it loses much of its individuality, as far as appearances are concerned, it has been greatly improved by the change. We are pleased to note this indication of prosperity. Mr. Bernard, the publisher, is to be congratulated upon his success in making one of the best newspapers in North Carolina.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

- The street cars were well patronized yesterday.

- "Keep to the right," is the rule on the road, the sidewalk, and strict gard for Wilmington and hoped to return here at no distant day and make his home permanently among our people.

- A ride to the Sound over the turnpike is delightful these beautiful moonlight nights. Try it, and see.

- Col. K. M. Murchison and family are in the city. They will spend several weeks here and at Orton Plantation. - Capt. E. W. Manning made a shipment of asparagus to the Northern markets yesterday-probably the first of the season. - With $500 appropriated for the improvement of sidewalks the residents of the eastern part of the city may hope to be remembered. - Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., at the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance last night, stated that he had received information that his father was critically

- The steamer Delta which was damaged about her bow on her last trip from Point Casswell, has been repaired and will leave for Black River to-day at 1 p. m. - Some of the engineers of the baby carriage brigade are indignant because they will be no longer permitted to monopolize the sidewalks as hereto-

- There were a good many strangers in the city yesterday, and this was one cause why our streets presented such a busy appearance through the greater part of the day.

- Rev. F. W. E. Peschau preached three sermons last Sunday in three different languages. He preached in English in the morning, in Danish in the afternoon and in German at night.

- Prof. Raff, who was here a few months since as organist of St. Thomas' Catholic church, is now in Newburgh N. Y. In writing to a friend in this city few days since he expressed much re-

- It would be a good idea to have grand railroad picnic at an early date somewhere about halfway between this city and Fayetteville, in honor of the close connection by rail of that city with Wilmington.

- There were fifteen flats at Prin cess street dock vesterday morning, all of which were more or less loaded with wood. Some had just arrived with full loads and some that had been here longer were nearly empty.

- St. Valentine's Day is approaching and the bookstores have secured a fine stock of valentines to supply the demand for that occasion, and some of the new designs we saw on the bookstore counters are very pretty.

- Mr. J. W. King, formerly a salesman at Messrs. W. E. Springer & Co.'s hardware store in this city, but now engaged in mercantile pursuits at Savage, Florence county, S. C., was here yesterday on a brief business trip.

- Advance sheets of the Pilot Chart for February, published by the Hydrographic office, have been received through the courtesy of Lieut. Francis H. Sherman, U. S. Navy, in charge of the branch office at Savannah, Ga.

- Mr. P. Linehan, of Raleigh, well-known by reason of his large interests in the granite and sand-stone quarries of this State, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Linehan has been a subscriber to the DAILY STAR nearly twenty years.

- Hardware dealers are shipping large invoices of farming implements into the country, which makes us believe that our rural friends have not yet become completely discouraged by the crop failures of the last two or three

- The Bennett family whose arrival in Wilmington several days since, on the way to Arkansas was mentioned in the STAR at the time, is from "Ram's Head Swamp," Brunswick county; not Town Creek. The family is still in Wilmington. - Quite an improvement has been made in the sidewalk at St. Andrew's Church, on Fourth street. It has been graded so that there is now no danger of falling when rising from the sidewalk south of the church to the level in front of the building.

- The members of Brooklyn Baptist church will make an earnest effort to raise the necessary funds to pay off its present debt and also to build a new and commodious house of worship in the near future that shall be large enough to supply the demands of that growing congregation.

- The physicians of the city have been kept more than busy for the last two or three weeks attending on the many cases of "la grippe" which has prevailed here. As the disease is now subsiding, they have some relief from | would be some time ago.

hard work although they yet have a good deal to do.

- We want to see a building erected before another year has passed for the Young Men's Christian Association, which shall be an honor to the organization and a pride to our city. We also want to see a suitable armory for the Wilmington Light Infantry erected within the same period of time. Both buildings are necessary.

- Perry Davis' Pain Killer, though good for many purposes, is not the best material for flavoring cake, but it is what a good housewife of this city used for that purpose not long siace. Of course, it was accidental, but the cake was ruined. When laughed at by her husband for the mistake, she got even with him by retorting that rich cake always made him sick and she thought it was well to administer the antidote with the food.

- We don't pretend to say what has caused the change, but it is a fact that there is much less noise and rowdyism on our suburban streets at night than formerly. It may be that the younger element who have heretofore made most of the noise have become better, and it may be that the thought of $20 or thirty days has had a good effect; but in either case we are glad of the reformation, and hope it may be perma-

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

Devotional Meeting in St. Andrew' Church.

The Evangelical Alliance, at their last business meeting about the first of January, decided to hold a devotional meeting the first Tuesday in each month,

The first meeting of this kind was held last night in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Owing to the fact that by some mistake on the part of the one entrusted with the duty of giving the announcement to the papers this meeting was not generally known, and there was not so large an audience as there would doubtless have been had it been publicly announced through the press.

Rev. Mr. Primrose opened the meeting and after the singing of a hymn by the choir, announced that Rev. Dr. Pritchard would lead the meeting. The doctor in his usual forcible, clever, and feeling style made a short talk upon "The Work of the Holy Spirit." The meeting was then opened with the request that the laymen present would take an active part in the meeting by talking or asking any questions pertinent to the subject.

Revs. Dr. Hoge, Messrs. Primrose and Peele, and Presiding Elder Swindell, made short talks that were very much felt and appreciated by the audience. Messrs. B. F. Hall, O'Rourke, G. M.

Busey and others made short talks. The subject for the next meeting of the Alliance will be, "How to Study the Scriptures,"

FEBRUARY WEATHER.

Forecasts as Published by the U.S. Hydrographic Bureau.

"Stormy weather will prevail off the Atlantic coast of North America and Europe, especially off the American coast along the course of the Gulf Stream, and over the Atlantic to the northward of about 35° North latitude. Along the transatlantic routes fresh to strong gales, principally from the westward, will be encountered about once a week. Northers will occur less frequently in the Gulf of Mexico, but will be of greater violence than earlier in the season. The NE. Trades will begin to extend further north. Icebergs and field ice will be encountered off Newfoundland and over the Grand Banks. possibly as far south as the 42d parallel, between longitudes 42° and 52° W. Little fog will be met with on the Grand Banks."

An Onslow County Sailor Lost.

The Newbern Fournal publishes a letter received by Judge A. S. Seymour, (through the Collector of Customs at New York,) from Port of Spain, Trinidad, as follows:

"The German bark, 'Peulan" arrived here from Wilmington, N, C., and her captain reports to the Consulate that on the evening of the 24th of November last, while in latitude 27.40, longitude 69.40, the articled seaman, George Morton, of Onslow county N. C. was found missing on board.

The said seaman had been behaving in a strange manner for some days previous, making it appear as if he was not quite sound in his mind, and it is presumed that he must have fallen or jumped overboard without anybody no-

The examination was conducted by Mr. W. S. Washburn, special agent of the Civil Service Commission. It began at nine o'clock in the morning and was concluded about 4 p. m. There were only seven applicants-all males and a majority colored. It is presumed that there would have been more applicants for positions, but no public announcement had been made that such an examination would be held. The papers of the persons examined yesterday willbe forwarded to the Central Board of Examiners at Washington, D. C., who will in due time inform the applicants of their standing.
