OUTLINES.

In the Senate yesterday a large number of bills were reported for the erection of public buildings, and several bills of local interest were disposed of. Mr. Blair made another two hours' speech on his Educational bill, and said that he would require to speak two or three days more; almost the entire session of the House was occupied in a discussion of the new code of rules. The labor troubles in Nashua, N. H., are growing in proportions, and the indications are that a protracted strike is now certain. A wealthy farmer of Russell county, Ga., committed suicide yesterday by jumping into a river, while crossing a bridge in a carriage in company with his wife; his mind was affected on religious subjects. The cotton returns of the Department of Agriculture show that 90.4 per cent. of the crop has left plantations, leaving 9.6 per cent. still to go forward; returns of quality are very high, except in Virginia and North Carolina, and in Tennessee and Arkansas. Charles Emory Smith, of Philadelphia, has been appointed Minister to Russia, and J. Turner Lee, of Maryland, to be Secretary of Legation at Rio de Janeiro. Spreading rails caused a serious accident Saturday night on the Norfolk and Western Railroad in Virginia; one man was killed and six persons were seriously injured, including a lady and a little child. The Methodist Church has determined to found a National University, near Washington city; a site has been selected, and an option of $1,000 paid on the property, which is to be sold for $100,000. The Republicans of the Montana Legislature have succeeded in arresting a fugitive Democrat, and have in this way secured a quorum, by counting him as voting when he does not; a large number of appropriation bills have been passed in this way. Four children were skating on a pond, near Kingston, N. Y., Sunday afternoon, when the ice gave way and they were all drowned; the father and mother of two of the children attempted to rescue them, when they were also drowned. Hon. Samuel J. Randall is again confined to his bed, from attacks of chills; it is difficult for him to rally from these attacks, but his buoyancy and determination are of great aid to him. New York markets: Money easy at 2 3/4 per cent; closing offered at 1 1/2 per cent; cotton steady, with sales of 146 bales; middling uplands 11 1/2 cents; middling Orleans 11 cents; southern flour dull and heavy; wheat weaker and quiet; No. 2 red 84 1/2 cents; corn easier and fairly active; No. 2, 35 3/4 cents at elevator; rosin higher; strained common to good $1 17 1/2 @ 20; spirits turpentine firmer. In consequence of the antics of the Reed gang in the House, general business is somewhat behind but the private pension bills have been coming to the front with amazing alacrity and multiplicity. A late feature of some of the English weeklies is printing epitaphs on dead persons in Greek. They have doubtless come to the conclusion that for eulogizing dead people a dead language is just the thing. Congressman Bynum, of Indiana, expresses the opinion that the new rules which the Republicans have drafted will cost the country $500,000,000. They throw down the bars and make easy the way to all sorts of extravagant legislation and corruption. Brother Waaamaker has a hard time in getting his postal clerks to learn their business and has been driven to the desperate expedient of offering twelve gold medals as premiums to those who apply themselves and show the requisite degree of proficiency at the end of the present year. Representative Culbertson, of Texas, has introduced a bill in Congress to establish a court of Patent Appeals, which has been reported upon favorably by the Judiciary Committee. This is to expedite the settlement of disputed patent cases, which on account of the over crowded calendars of the Supreme Court some times remain untouched for years. Senator Plumb, of Kansas, has come to the astute conclusion that the embarrassed condition of the Kansas farmers is due to a lack of currency. If the able Senator will now set himself to reforming the tariff system, which is so largely instrumental in causing this lack of currency among the Kansas farmers, he may prove of some real use to his constituents.

The friends of Hon. Samuel J. Randall, in Washington, believing that he will never recover from the sickness by which he has been prostrated, have in a quiet way been raising a fund to ensure ample provision for his wife after his death. This has been done without his knowledge. The sum already secured is reported to amount to $50,000. Although in Congress over quarter of a century and through the period too when corruption ran riot, and some Congressmen made fortunes by the support of jobs and sale of votes, Samuel J. Randall maintained his unimpeachable integrity, and remained a poor man.

The esteemed Chicago Inter-Ocean remarks that President Harrison made the Democrats mad when he recognized the Brazilian Republic and appointed a colored man as Recorder of Deeds at Washington. As the Inter-Ocean is not ignorant of the fact that a Democratic Senator introduced a bill in the Senate shortly after Congress met, recognizing the Republic of Brazil, which the Republican Senators voted down, and that Bruce, who was appointed Register of Deeds, simply succeeded Trotter, a negro, who was appointed by Cleveland, this paragraph is a fair average specimen of Republican veracity and fairness.

Texas never gets left on meteors or anything of that sort. The latest is a big one, weighing several tons, which sailed in and landed near Granbury, much to the consternation of the denizens thereabouts, who didn't want to be hit with a chunk like that. It was not the size of this meteor which was so remarkable as that it was stuffed with nuggets of something which was thought to be gold. This is the first intimation we have had of the whereabouts of Col. Mulhatton, the champion meteoric liar, for some time.

Editor Halstead said in his testimony before the ballot-box investigating committee in Washington, that the reason why he published the Wood forgery was that a public man like Mr. Campbell ought to be exposed for going into a thing of that kind, but he took right good care to suppress the names of the two distinguished Republicans, Butterworth and Sherman, which were also on the forged paper with the name of Campbell. His virtuous indignation seemed to be confined strictly within party lines.

When the colored people give less attention to the holding of political conventions and more to efforts to promote their material prosperity, and as a means thereto good feeling between them and the white people amongst whom they live, they will have started out in the right path. What they want is a declaration of independence from the politicians who have been leading them by the nose.

Fire-escapes are receiving a good deal of attention in Washington now. If Tom Reed and his gang don't reform they had better provide themselves with fire-escapes before they venture into the next world.

A Kansas judge has decided that corn is fuel. This Kansas judge is a back number. The Kansas farmers have been demonstrating this all winter.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

Nearly all the pear trees in and around town are in full bloom.

The young men's meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms this evening at 8 o'clock.

Judge Meares is holding the Criminal Court for Mecklenburg county, in Charlotte, this week.

Mr. Richard J. Jones, chairman of the Board of Audit and Finance, is laid up with the "grippe."

The rainfall yesterday did not exceed half an inch, but it kept the streets in a wet and muddy condition.

An admirable article on the important subject of Funeral Reforms, prepared specially for the STAR by Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D., will appear tomorrow.

Mr. Geo. F. Tilley, residing on Princess street, between Seventh and Eighth, reported yesterday that an attempt to set his house on fire was made yesterday morning about 5 o'clock, but the incendiaries, three in number, were discovered and driven off.

The Committee on Fire Department of the Board of Aldermen, under the recommendation of Chief Newman, have directed that much-needed repairs to the Cape Fear engine house be at once made. The flooring of the house is in a very dilapidated condition.

The two stern-wheel steamers which put in at Moore's Inlet, Wrightsville, last Wednesday, as reported in the STAR, are the St. Augustine and Sebastian, bound to St. Augustine, Florida. They were still there at last accounts, waiting for favorable weather.

The southbound train on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta railroad, which left here Saturday evening last, ran into a box-car on a siding at Chadbourn, causing some damage to the engine and delaying the train several hours. Two or three of the train men were slightly bruised, from all accounts, but no one else was hurt.

FOUND IN THE RIVER.

A Drowned Seaman from the British Barque Kamehameha.

The dead body of a white man was found floating in the river about a mile below the city yesterday morning by some fishermen, who notified Coroner Jacobs of the ghastly discovery. By the Coroner's order the body was brought up to the dock at the foot of Wooster street. It was that of a young man, with red hair, dressed in coarse clothing; it proved to be the body of George Donaldson a sailor belonging to the crew of the British barque Kamehameha IV, who fell from a staging alongside the vessel, and was drowned a week or ten days ago, while the barque was lying in the stream opposite Northrop's mill.

By direction of Mr. Jas. Sprunt, British consul, the remains of the unfortunate seaman were prepared for burial, and yesterday afternoon were interred in Bellevue Cemetery.

To Connect With the Carolina Central.

The Asheville Citizen, in noting the fact that the preliminary work on the French Broad Valley railroad will soon commence at that place, says: "According to the present information the branch of the road extending via Hendersonville and Reedy Patch Gap to Rutherfordton, there to connect with the Carolina Central, will be first undertaken. That will form a much desired connection between the terminus of that road and the points along it with our Western North Carolina towns, and when extended north, with Bristol and the valley of the Ohio, the great importance of the line is thus seen at a glance."

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the forecasts for today:

For Virginia, warmer, fair weather, variable winds, generally easterly.

For North Carolina, warmer, fair weather, variable winds, generally northeasterly.

For South Carolina, fair weather, except in the southern portion, local showers, warmer, variable winds, generally northeasterly on the coast.

City Court.

Louisa Robinson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $20 and costs. In another case against the same defendant for resisting an officer, judgment was suspended for the present.

Rudolph Shanrock, disorderly, five dollars and costs. John McKinney, disorderly, fined five dollars and costs.

New Turpentine.

A correspondent of the STAR, writing from New Supply, Brunswick county, says: On the 5th instant Mr. R. W. McKeithan bought of Charles Price, a young colored man, two barrels of new virgin turpentine. A sale of virgin turpentine this early is remarkable and, small as it is, seems worthy of record.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

The Wilmington Light Infantry Will Celebrate With the Fayetteville Company, on Saturday the Day.

At the meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry held last night in the Company's armory, it was stated that the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, of Fayetteville, contemplated a visit to Wilmington on the 22d inst.—Washington's birthday.

On motion, a Committee, consisting of Capt. W. R. Kenan, Adjutant, W. N. Harriss and private W. P. Toomer, was appointed to make all necessary arrangements in joining the Fayetteville company in their celebration of the holiday, and to arrange for procuring prizes for the first and second best shots of that Company.

The following is a copy of the letter sent to the Fayetteville Company by the Wilmington Light Infantry, in relation to this matter, viz:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 10, 1890.

Maj. John McLaughlin, Fayetteville, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—At a meeting of our company held last night, it was stated that your command contemplated a visit to our city on the 22d inst., for the purpose of having a target shooting match and otherwise enjoying the day. A committee, consisting of Capt. W. R. Kenan, Sergeant W. N. Harriss, and Private W. P. Toomer, was appointed to make all necessary arrangements in joining your company in the celebration of the holiday, and were also instructed to purchase two prizes to be presented to your first and second best shots.

(Signed) W. N. HARRISS, for the Company.

MERCHANTS' EXCURSION.

Arrangements for Celebrating the Completion of the C. P. & Y. V. R. R.

The committee of twenty-five, appointed at the meeting of business men last Saturday, met yesterday at the Produce Exchange. The meeting was called to order by the Chairman, Mr. J. H. Currie, and Mr. George R. French was selected as permanent secretary.

There was a free exchange of opinion in regard to the matter of celebrating the completion of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, and on motion of Mr. J. C. Stevenson, it was decided that merchants along the line of the road be invited to visit Wilmington, on the earliest date practicable.

On motion of Col. F. W. Kerchner, it was decided that arrangements be made later for a gala week, sometime in May or June next.

The following sub-committees were named:

Entertainment—C. H. Robinson, A. D. Brown, Geo. R. French, Jos. H. Waters, J. A. Bonitz.

Invitations—F. W. Kerchner, H. C. McQueen, D. G. Worth, J. C. Stevenson, F. H. Stedman.

Finance—D. G. Worth, Roger Moore, E. S. Latimer, W. P. Oldham, J. W. Murchison, W. H. Sprunt, W. E. Springer, F. Rhenstein, E. J. Pennypacker, T. D. Love, H. G. Smallbones.

TRY A PICKLING FACTORY.

An Enterprise that Might Prove Profitable in Wilmington.

Mr. J. R. Calhoun, of Baltimore, writes to the Savannah News, recommending as one of the small industries a pickling factory, which he says would be a paying enterprise. Mr. Calhoun does not know of a pickling factory south of Richmond, and he says that if he is written to he will be glad to give the farmers any information he may have about the matter, the putting up of cucumbers, cabbage, cauliflowers, beans, pepper, and other pickles, and also directions for preparing their own vinegar. Mr. Calhoun says that a factory can be started on very little capital—much less than any one would suppose. A canning factory, he says, would unquestionably pay, but it would require more capital to start it. Mr. Calhoun says that farmers can make money by pickling their own crops, and at the same time they could buy up the surplus crops of their neighbors. One hundred and fifty dollars, he says, will start a pickling factory on a small scale.

A CAROLINIAN ABROAD.

Well-Merited Compliment to Capt. E. J. Hale, Late U. S. Consul at Manchester.

A London correspondent of a New York journal gives some interesting information concerning Capt. E. J. Hale, of Fayetteville, N. C., who was Consul at Manchester, Eng., during President Cleveland's administration, and has since resided in England.

The correspondent writes: "Major E. J. Hale, ex-Consul in Manchester, has gone to India to represent a powerful syndicate of North of England capitalists. The exact nature of his errand Major Hale declined to state for fear a rival concern should get wind of it and spoil his plans by cable. Major Hale will return to England in May. It is a good deal of a compliment to him as an American, and also to the record he made as Consul, that he was selected for this journey when a hundred or two Englishmen were eager for the job. Next Summer Major Hale will return to America as the resident agent there for the Manchester Ship Canal."

DIED.

WESSEL, EMANUEL AUGUST, infant son of Albert C. and Lena Wessel, fell asleep in Jesus, February 10th, a. m.

The funeral will take place from their residence on Chestnut, between Sixth and Seventh streets, at 8 o'clock this afternoon, thence to Oakdale Cemetery. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.
