OUTLINES.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Chandler presented several petitions from Mississippi, reciting that efforts were being made in that State to suppress the Republican vote; a number of bills were passed, after which Mr. Blair made a three hours' speech on his Educational bill; in the House Mr. Carlisle explained the position of the Democrats relative to the question of approving the Journal, and said that it would go to some other forum; there was another long contest in the House on the question of counting a quorum by the Speaker, the right to do which that official maintained. One wing of the Lunatic Asylum, near Little Rock, Ark., was destroyed by fire Saturday morning, causing a loss of $35,000; there were five hundred patients in the Asylum, all of whom were removed in safety, amid the most exciting scenes. The negligence of a flagman in Tennessee caused a collision of freight trains, which resulted in an engineer and brakeman being killed. The Supreme Court has decided that Cross and White, the Raleigh bank forgers, will have to serve out their respective terms on the county roads. A double tragedy occurred in Charleston, yesterday; a man shot his wife, from whom he was separated, and then shot his wife's uncle, with whom she was living; both of the victims are thought to be fatally wounded; all of the parties are well known, and prominent in business and social circles. Four hundred thousand miners in Great Britain have decided to adhere to their demand for an increase of ten per cent. in their wages, and it is probable that they will strike. Plainfield, N. J., which has indulged in total abstinence for a year has again issued liquor licenses, the largest number the city has ever had. The Lincoln National Bank at Lancaster, Pa., which was plundered by its cashier, has closed its doors. White Caps, in Maryland, shot a white woman who was living with a negro man; she was probably fatally wounded. Seventeen prominent citizens of the town of Sharon, Ga., have been arrested by United States marshals for intimidating Postmaster Duckworth the arrests are regarded as great outrages. New York markets Money easy at 3/64 per cent; cotton steady with sales of 310 bales; middling uplands 11-16 cents; middling Orleans 11-9-16 cents; southern flour quiet and weak; common to fair extra $2.25@2.65; wheat, dull; No. 2 red $1.84@1.84 1/2 cents at elevator; corn weaker and fairly active. Free selling; No. 2, 34 1/2 @ 35 cents at elevator; rosin firm; strained, common to good $1.25@1.27 1/2 cents; spirits turpentine higher at 44@44 1/2 cents.

A German sugar maker has discovered a process of extracting sugar from cotton seed meal. It is more costly than other sugar, but is said to be fifteen times sweeter than cane sugar and twenty times sweeter than sugar made from beets.

A company has been organized with $2,500,000 capital to harness Niagara and make it furnish motive power for machinery many miles distant, so that henceforth the crank with his barrel will no longer monopolize it.

People who have had any doubts when eating beans whether they were eating a fruit or a vegetable may now rest easy for the Supreme Court of the United States has settled that matter by deciding that beans are a vegetable.

Some of the esteemed Republican journals have discovered that trusts are antagonistic to the interests of the people and un-American. Possibly they may discover after awhile the relationship which exists between trusts and the high protective tariff.

An exchange innocently ask how speaker Reed proposes to determine when a motion is dilatory and when it is not. The easiest thing in the world. When it is made by a Democrat it will be dilatory, and when it is made by a Republican it will not be. No trouble about deciding a little thing like that.

W. A. Pledger is the colored gentleman of Georgia who from time to time rises to remark that the colored people are not getting a fair show in this country, and that it is time for them to begin to raise Cain. His son W. A. Jr., who is said to be a chip off the old block, who was a postal clerk between Athens and Lula, as just got into jail for robbing the mails.

Women have the right of suffrage in Wyoming Territory, and they don't propose to allow any foolishness there. A bill has been introduced in the Legislature to compel every fellow who persists in leading the life of a bachelor to pay $2 50 a year for the privilege of going it alone. In Massachusetts where there is a surplus of 66,000 unmarried women, a proposition of this kind would not be surprising, but in Wyoming where the men outnumber the women three to one, and where the matrimonial market ought to be lively, it indicates that the women are not altogether fascinatingly lovely, when they have to persuade the lords of creation to seek connubial bliss under a penalty of $2 50 a year for preferring to be miserable.

Voting by tin plate is the latest kink in the ballot business. In the late municipal election in Nashville, Tenn., the Australian ballot was the form of voting prescribed. This rather perplexed the able Republicans who couldn't read until an inventive white Republican came to the rescue with a perforated tin plate exactly the same size of the official ballot the perforations covering the names of the Democratic candidates so that all the sable voter had to do was to run his tin plate on the ballot and lay his pencil through the slots which scratched a Democratic name and the work was done. It worked charmingly but the invention came in a little too late to scoop the Democrats.

The Elizabeth City Carolinian remarks that the distinction between the Republican party and the Democratic party is that the Republican party is a party of deeds; the Democratic party a party of words. The Republican party is indeed a party of deeds, and that's what hurts. If it did fewer deeds the country could stand it better and suffer less.

Maj. Burke, the fugitive ex-treasurer of Louisiana, who is now sojourning in Honduras, where he is operating some mining properties, says he expects some of these days to be worth $150,000,000 and then he is going back to New Orleans and tell those people who have been saying mean things about him what he thinks of them.

Mr. Ingalls should turn some of his august attention to Kansas. At an election racket in the town of Harper, one man was killed, two or three fatally wounded, and a dozen or so severely hurt, all about a vote on some railroad bonds. If Mr. Ingalls don't see about this Kansas will be in danger of going to the deminution bow wows.

One of the Old-Timers. Charlotte Chronicle. The Wilmington STAR has appeared in a handsome new dress. The STAR says its new clothes are "an evidence, not only of the good will, but of the substantial support it has received from the many patrons who have steadfastly stood by it in the past, through sunshine and storm, and, we are happy to say, stand by it still." The STAR is one of the "old-timers," and its success will give pleasure to many old friends.

Church Dedication at Goldsboro. A large number of visitors went from this city to Goldsboro Sunday to attend the dedication of St. Mary's Catholic Church. The Young Catholic Friends Society, under whose auspices the excursion was given, acted as a guard of honor. Large delegations from New-Bern, Raleigh and other points were also present. Bishop Haid conducted the services, assisted by Rev. F. J. Price, the pastor of the new Church. The services were very impressive and the music very fine.

Weather Forecasts. The following are the forecasts for today: For Virginia, light rain, warmer southerly winds. For North Carolina, fair weather, except in the extreme northwest portion, local rains, warmer, southerly winds. For South Carolina, fair, slightly warmer, southerly winds.

Monroe Turner, colored, was fined $30 and costs in the Mayor's Court yesterday for disorderly conduct, and Frank Thompson, also disorderly, was fined $10 and costs.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

The children will be glad to know that there will be a Magic Lantern exhibition at St. James' Hall to-night.

The German barque Obermeister von Winter, from Liverpool December 7th, arrived at Southport yesterday.

Mr. J. H. Baker, an old and steadfast friend of the STAR, is here spending a few days with his friend and comrade, Maj. T. D. Love.

Dr. W. G. Thomas continues seriously sick. His condition was not considered so favorable last night as it was in the earlier part of the day.

The British schooner Victory, from Nassau, N. P., with a cargo of West India fruit, arrived yesterday, consigned to Messrs. Cronly & Morris.

Major James R. Williams, Treasurer of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway Company, has been here several days on official business. He leaves for Fayetteville to-day.

With the near approach of Lent, the price of eggs has advanced to 15 cents per dozen at retail, and dealers expect that these figures will be maintained for some time to come.

It is true that an earlier departure of the west-bound train on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway would suit the newspapers of Wilmington; but, as a matter of fact, would it not suit other interests as well?

A violin concert by young ladies will be given next Friday night, the 21st inst., in Luther Memorial Hall, under the auspices of the Young People's Association. There will also be other fine music, vocal and instrumental.

Mr. Hardin, assistant Signal Service observer at the Wilmington station, has been relieved at his own request, and transferred to duty at Point Jupiter, Florida. Mr. Geo. W. Eddy, from Point Jupiter, takes Mr. Hardin's place here.

The little daughter of Mr. Dan. Quintivan was seriously injured last Friday afternoon, by a high board fence falling upon her at the northwest corner of Second and Dock streets. Her right leg was fractured near the hip and the knee crushed.

Yesterday was the 41st birthday of Rev. and Mrs. F. W. E. Peschau. They were the recipients of many congratulations and presents, and last night the Children's Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church and the Germania Band gave them a serenade.

Mr. Warren G. Elliott, President of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, arrived here yesterday, and made many acquaintances among railroad officials and citizens generally. He will make Wilmington his permanent residence some time next month.

Board of Audit and Finance. The Board of Audit and Finance met yesterday afternoon in semi-monthly session. Present, Mr. R. J. Jones, chairman, and Messrs. Wm. Calder and W. R. Kennan.

The Board disapproved the recommendation of the Board of Aldermen for the appointment of a clerk for the Fifth street market house, at a salary of $5.00 per month.

The action of the Board of Aldermen making an appropriation for repairs to the floor of Cape Fear Engine house was approved, and the contract was awarded to Mr. J. F. Post, at $75.

In the matter of paving the east side of Third Street, from Market to Red Cross, for which the Board of Aldermen made an appropriation of $500, this Board recommended that the work be deferred until the next fiscal year.

Also, the appropriation of $250, voted by the Board of Aldermen for paving the east side of Fourth Street, from Market to Mulberry, was non-concurred in, with the recommendation that the matter be deferred until the next fiscal year.

The Board concurred in the action of the Board of Aldermen in ordering that matured city bonds in the hands of the Commissioner of the Sinking Fund, amounting to $4500, be burned under the supervision of the Board of Audit and Finance.

Bills were audited and approved as follows: Current expenses, $292.85; loans, $5,000; interest on same, $90.42; coupons, $11,541; refunded tax, $5.00. Seven hundred and three coupons which had been redeemed and cancelled, were burned in the presence of the Board.

A Lunatic. Milly Jenkins, a colored woman who was released from jail last Friday and arrested Saturday for disorderly conduct, was adjudged to be a lunatic yesterday, after an examination as to her mental condition before a commission consisting of Justices Jno. J. Fowler and John Cowan, and Dr. F. W. Potter. She will be sent to the State insane asylum at Goldsboro.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Reduced Rates to Delegates Attending the Meeting in Wilmington next Week.

Delegates to the State Sunday School Convention will take notice that reduced fares on the Atlantic Coast Line, Piedmont Air Line, Seaboard Air Line, Atlantic & N. C., and C. F. & Y. V. railroads, have been granted to persons attending the Convention at Wilmington.

It is known as Special Excursion Tariff No. 4, and is based upon the distance travelled. The longer the distance the less rate per mile.

Ten miles and under, 55 cents; 20 miles, $1.10; 25 miles, $1.35; 30 miles and over 25, $1.65; 50 miles and over 45, $2.75; 100 miles and over 95, $5.00; 150 miles and over 145, $6.75; 200 miles and over, 4 cents per mile for the round trip.

Every railroad agent on the roads named can tell you the rate from your depot.

Tickets will be placed on sale February 23d to 26th inclusive, good for return passage on or before March 31, 1890.

A DISGRACEFUL ROW.

Sunday Night Services Interrupted by Fighting.

Last Sunday night while services were being held at the Front Street Mission of the First Presbyterian Church, corner Front and Queen street, a fight took place in the street immediately in front of the Mission, between a number of colored boys and white youths, which assumed almost the proportions of a riot, and caused so much excitement in the church that the services were closed and the congregation was dismissed. Yesterday, warrants were issued for the arrest of a number of persons engaged in the affray and police officers were busily engaged in hunting them up. It is probable that an investigation of the case will be had this morning before Mayor Fowler.

Judge Farrar's Lecture Friday Night.

Dr. Thos. Hume, of the State University, has this to say of Judge F. R. Farrar, who lectures here on the 21st inst.: "Judge Farrar has several lectures on humorous aspects of social life in the South that are racy of the soil and full of the delicious allusions to the 'good old times' that have the blended charm of pathos and wit. If he is like his former self, he will be attractive, popular, inspiring. The phases of the negro character and dialect, and the Southern plantation life are touched with an affectionate hand that does not hesitate to turn a sly satire when needed." From other sources, too, there are high recommendations, and altogether, an unusually enjoyable evening is promised.

Extenuating Circumstances.

Charles Hill, colored, was tried at the Mayor's Court yesterday, for the larceny of a vest Saturday night, from Shrier's clothing store, corner of Princess and Front street. The prisoner was pursued and captured a few minutes after the theft, and the vest was found concealed under his coat. When arraigned before the Court yesterday morning, Hill acknowledged his guilt, but pleaded "extenuating circumstances," and being asked what the extenuating circumstances were, said that he needed the vest and intended to return and pay for it. He was required to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the Criminal Court, and failing to do this was sent to jail.

At the Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

The Women's Auxiliary and Y. M. C. A. will meet in the Association rooms this evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting gives promise of being a very pleasant one. There will probably be new plans presented for consideration, as well as some interesting reports upon the work of the Association. A paper upon a very interesting topic will be presented by Col. A. M. Waddell.

All members are requested to attend, and all friends of the Association, whether members or not, will be welcome.

Naval Stores.

Stocks of naval stores on the 15th instant, at the ports were as follows: Wilmington—Spirits turpentine, 3,778 casks; rosin, 38,450 barrels; tar, 1,739 barrels. Savannah—Spirits turpentine, 7,864 casks; rosin, 73,558 barrels. New York—Spirits turpentine, 3,040 casks; rosin, 21,762 barrels; tar, 1,006 barrels. Charleston—Spirits turpentine, 1,373 casks; rosin, 23,706 barrels. Total—Spirits turpentine, 15,555 casks; rosin, 152,476 barrels; tar, 3,845 barrels.

New York Prices for Vegetables, etc.

Mr. S. G. Palmer, Commission Merchant in fruits and produce, 166 Read street, New York, in a special to the STAR quotes prices as follows: "The New York market shows a decided improvement on fresh goods. Receipts are moderate and as the Lenten season commences on the 19th, a further advance is anticipated, selling to-day at 14 to 16 cents. Some few shipments have arrived of early asparagus from North Carolina selling at a range of 50 to 90 cents a bunch. The market shows no improvement on dried fruits, owing to the continued open winter, but an advance is expected soon."

CAPE FEAR & YADKIN VALLEY.

The First Through Train from Wilmington to the West Greeted by Enthusiastic Crowds All Along the Line.

The first through passenger and express train on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad left here yesterday morning at 9:40 in charge of Conductor Jno. M. Walker and Engineer Pat Monaghan. It consisted of one first and one second class passenger coach, a baggage car and an express and mail car. There were some ten or fifteen passengers for points along the line. The train reached Fayetteville on schedule time and was greeted all along the line by crowds of people at the different stations who welcomed it with enthusiastic cheers.

The train from Mount Airy arrived at the depot here at 6:45 last night, in charge of Capt. Dodson, conductor, with a dozen or more passengers, who spoke in terms of praise of the road and the excellent service. They also reported that their train was greeted by enthusiastic crowds of citizens at stations all along the line of the road.

The train from the east and the train from the west passed each other at Fayetteville, which is the meeting point on the road at present. The Southern Express Company had a car and messenger on the train that went out yesterday; but the mail car was empty—no arrangements for mail service by the postoffice department, having yet been made. It is understood, however, that the mail service will be commenced on the first of March.

The people in the western part of the State—on the upper end of the line of the road—are looking forward with pleasurable anticipations to the proposed excursion to this city. The Mount Airy News says, "it promises to be a pleasant affair, and we guarantee a big crowd from Mount Airy. Many of our citizens have never been to Wilmington, and they will take advantage of the opportunity and go down."

The same paper, referring to the completion of the road, says: "The C. F. & Y. N. railway is now completed from Mount Airy to Wilmington—from the mountains to the sea. This is by odds the longest railroad in the State, and is becoming one of the best paying roads in the South. In a few years the connection with Cincinnati will be made and long trains will go thundering through Mount Airy to all important points. The business men of Wilmington are making arrangements to entertain the merchants' excursion from Mount Airy to this city."
