From Virginia Medical Monthly, (September number, 1889), Landon B. Edwards, M. D., editor and proprietor, Richmond.

THE NOLANDINE Co. of Richmond, Va., begin an advertisement in this issue of preparations which have received the highest kind of professional endorsement for the cure of chills and fever, functional fevers, cholera, etc.

I have used your vegetable preparation, "NOLANDINE," and find it a valuable agent in the treatment of functional diseases of the liver.

I had several opportunities of testing the merits of your NOLANDINE for chills and fever in cases which had resisted the usual treatment.

PERSONAL.

The Prince of Naples, heir to the throne of Italy, is not quite 21, but his royal father lately appointed him to be a senator of the kingdom.

It is told of Mr. Gladstone that he has again refused an offer made by a firm of American publishers of $6,000 yearly for everything he writes for the public.

Maj. Serpa Pinto, Portugal's representative in Africa, is 44 years of age and has been in the army twenty-five years.

Prince George of Wales has been appointed to the Excellent for a short course of gunnery. He has completed the necessary qualifying service of four years as lieutenant, and probably will be promoted commander very soon.

Spurgeon has had printed 2,100 of his sermons since their appearance began in 1855. His thirty-fifth volume of them has just been issued.

Elizabeth City Carolinian: Mrs. Julia Ann, the wife of Mr. Thomas Munden, of Parksville, Perquimans county, died on the 5th inst.

Clinton Scollard, the poet, is professor of English literature at Hamilton College. He has a very pleasant position. His lectures are so arranged this year that he can spend the next few weeks in Florida.

The Democratic majority in Iowa upon the legislative ticket was about 29,000. This is a quietus upon Mr. Allison's Presidential aspirations, and would have ended his career as a Senator, but for the infamous gerrymander of the State.

The Republican members of the House are denying that the proposed new rules will let the army of money grabbers into the Treasury arm.

The public has mighty little opinion of Mr. Reed, but it didn't suppose that he was mean enough and detestable enough to furnish Mr. Carlisle with an incomplete and unreliable copy of the House rules adopted by the Republican caucus.
