OUTLINES.

The Senate yesterday was principally occupied in a discussion of the Blair Educational bill, Mr. Barbour making a speech in favor of it, and Mr. Plumb in opposition to it; the House further considered the contested election case from Arkansas, and after several speeches had been made a vote was taken, resulting in the seating of Mr. Featherstone, the contestant, by a vote of 147 to 138.

Assistant Secretary Bussey has decided two pension cases lately, which throw some light on what the duties of a soldier really are. The first was one in which a soldier went out gunning for a hog when rations were scarce. His pistol was accidentally discharged and he died from the effects of his wound.

It seems that there is a prohibition crusade in progress in some of the Missouri towns, and not satisfied with prohibiting the sale of the ardent advocates have organized themselves into squads to hunt around the towns and find out who keeps liquor in their houses.

A harrowing piece of information comes from London. Freddy Gebhard is said to be jealous of the Prince of Wales who has been paying Mrs. Langtry too much attention, is going to quit playing poodle and is coming back to this country. That the Prince should have stepped in and taken the curl out of the poodle's tail is too sad.

We regret to see the announcement of the death, February 24d, of Mr. Robert Ward, editor of the Southern Voice, published at Bethel, Pitt county, of pneumonia following an attack of influenza.

There is a bill before Congress entitled a bill for the "propagation of the buffalo." Judging from the antics performed by the majority in Congress these days there is no occasion for a bill for the propagation of asses.

Electricity is recognized as a tip top purifying agent. It is said that a current passed through water will destroy all the impurities in it. A current about as big as the Mississippi river should at once be run through the Republican party.

The Raleigh News & Observer appears in a new dress, and is generally attractive in the make up. It has entered upon its twentieth year and deserves well of the people of North Carolina for the ability and zeal with which it has championed the cause of Democracy and good government.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says that Senator Blair is a man who means well, but the trouble with him is that he winds his mouth up, sets it in motion, and then goes off and leaves it running.

The Democratic Governor of Iowa says in his inaugural address that the people of Iowa demand "cheap clothing, cheap food, cheap implements of labor, in brief cheap necessities of life."

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—Extensive forest fires are reported in the woods in Brunswick. —A great many rafts of timber are arriving daily; brought down by the feshet in the Cape Fear river.

—The Atlantic Coast Line Athletic Club have added a new feature—a reading room—to the other attractions at their club house.

—The steamer Benefactor, Capt. Ingram, arrived yesterday evening from New York, with passengers and freight, to H. G. Smallbones.

—"Crazy Jess," a colored boy, against whom frequent complaints have been made, was arrested by the police yesterday afternoon.

—The usual Thursday night services in the First Baptist Church will be omitted in consequence of the building being in the hands of the workmen who are putting up the new organ.

—Another cold wave started out from the Northwest last Monday, but the Signal Service Bureau men were of the opinion that it would not extend south.

THE TRUCKERS.

Farmers in South Carolina and Georgia Great Sufferers. Truck farmers in the Charleston and Savannah sections were badly hit by the cold snap last Sunday and Monday.

Entertainment at the Opera House. The lecture given last Tuesday night—"Round the World in Eighty Minutes"—illustrated with views of many places and cities in Europe, Asia and America, will be repeated next Saturday afternoon, at the Opera House, for the benefit of the Wilmington Library Association.

MERCHANTS' EXCURSION.

March 26th and 27th Appointed for the Entertainment of the Visitors. The Committee of Arrangements for the Merchants' Excursion to this city, from points on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, met yesterday at the Produce Exchange and appointed Wednesday and Thursday, March 26th and 27th, as the time.

Death of Capt. George Lord. The flags of nearly all the steam vessels in the harbor were displayed at half-mast yesterday, in token of respect to Capt. George Lord, who died at his residence in this city yesterday morning about 1 o'clock, from an attack of jaundice, with which he had been sick for some time.

Weather Forecasts. The following are the forecasts for today: For Virginia, snow, northeasterly winds, colder.

Mass Meeting To-Night. A mass meeting of citizens of Wilmington will be held to-night at 7:30 o'clock in the City Hall, when Mr. Arthur Arrington, Secretary of the Southern Inter-State Immigration Bureau, will explain the workings of said Bureau and its purpose, to invite new manufacturing enterprises and settlers to come among us from the North.

Naval Stores for England. Messrs. Williams & Murchison cleared the Norwegian bark Braekka yesterday for London, Eng., with cargo of 843 casks spirits turpentine and 1,904 barrels rosin, valued at $19,054.42.

Mayor's Court. Laura Black, colored, disorderly, was fined $10 and costs in the Mayor's Court yesterday.

British Steamship Tronto. The British steamship Tronto, Capt. Sullivan, arrived here yesterday from Liverpool, in ballast. She steamed up the river to the wharves of the Champion Press, where she will load with cotton for an European port.

Mass Meeting To-Night. A mass meeting of citizens of Wilmington will be held to-night at 7:30 o'clock in the City Hall, when Mr. Arthur Arrington, Secretary of the Southern Inter-State Immigration Bureau, will explain the workings of said Bureau and its purpose, to invite new manufacturing enterprises and settlers to come among us from the North.

INDUSTRIAL MANUFACTURING CO.

Fires Lighted Yesterday—Work to Begin in a Few Days.

Fires were lighted for the first time in the furnaces at the works of the Industrial Manufacturing Company early yesterday morning and in a short time thereafter steam was up and the engine was running. The test of engine and boiler was understood to be satisfactory.

All the machinery is in place, and is soon as the belts and shafting are in position will be ready for work. It is expected that everything will be in running order by the middle of next week, and the busy hum of industry will again be heard within the walls of a building which has been silent as the grave for many years.

Contracts for supplies of sweet-gum, sycamore and other woods that will be used in the manufacture of veneers have been made, and the labor—at least the greater part of it—has been engaged.

The first floor of the building is pretty well covered with a number of machines for cutting out veneers, and forming grocer's plates and dishes and baskets and packing boxes for fruits, vegetables, etc., while the upper floors will be used for storage purposes.

Entertainment at the Opera House.

The lecture given last Tuesday night—"Round the World in Eighty Minutes"—illustrated with views of many places and cities in Europe, Asia and America, will be repeated next Saturday afternoon, at the Opera House, for the benefit of the Wilmington Library Association.

We Have Often Heard

IT SAID THAT SOUTHERN PEOPLE ARE too slow to catch on to a good thing. Wilmingtonians are certainly an exception.

Both observation and experience have taught us that they are quick to avail themselves of an advantage offered, which fact is proven by the heavy response given to the Advertisements of

Brown & Roddick

Each week we tell the people what we have in the way of Bargains. They always grasp the opportunity and have become so accustomed to it that now they are always ready, waiting and expecting our announcements in prices, consequently all we have to do in this case is simply to suggest to them the fact that

Domestics, Sheetings, Bleachings, &c.,

Can now be had of us at alarmingly low prices, and we will be sure to have a rush.

A few of the well known brands we carry in stock are the Forest Mills, Sunflower, Bound to Win, Fearless of Competition, Androscooggin, Hill, Masonville, Fruit of the Loom, Wamasutta, Lonsdale, Pride of the West, New York Mills.

Our entire WHITE GOODS department is now complete with the very best grades and is worthy of your special attention. Come and see us.
