OUTLINES.

The calendar was considered in the Senate yesterday and about fifty bills passed, mostly private pensions; a bill was passed appropriating $300,000 for a public building at San Diego, California, which excited considerable discussion, many Senators thinking the appropriation excessive; Mr. Blair introduced his Educational Aid bill, with some amendments, which was referred; in the House the bill repealing the timber culture law was passed, and eulogistic addresses delivered upon the late Representative Gray of Louisiana. — It is reported in Berlin that Prince Bismarck has declined the Dukedom of Lauenburg and all of the appointments conferred upon him by the Emperor; the report causes great sensation; Bismarck's organ says the result of the recent elections for members of the Reichstag and the loss of his old influence were the reasons for his resignation. — Foreign dispatches report the loss of twenty steamers and the drowning of twenty-two men. — Jake Kilrain has surrendered himself to the authorities of Mississippi to serve out his sentence of two months' imprisonment in jail. — A New York dispatch says that the strife among the National League Baseball managers has ended, and that a team has now been organized which can cope successfully with the best in the country. — Another great flood is reported in the Ohio river; at Cincinnati it is already forty-eight feet six inches, and is rising at the rate of two inches an hour; it is expected to reach a greater height than at the last flood. — The students of the University and Academy of Agriculture, in St. Petersburg, engaged in a serious riot on Friday; they demand a restoration of the liberal regulations of 1863; five hundred of them were arrested and imprisoned. — Henry S. Ives, who has been confined in Ludlow street jail, New York city, since January, 1889, testifies that he has paid deputies, while in jail, a total of $14,000. — A cyclone passed over the village of Edgemore, S. C., yesterday, which destroyed four hundred houses, killed one man and seriously injured many others. — New York markets: Money easy, closing offered at 3 per cent; cotton quiet, sales 41 bales; middling uplands 11 1/2 cents; middling Orleans 11 1/2 cents; wheat, No. 2 red 89 1/2 @ 89 3/4 cents; elevator, corn firm and quiet; No. 2, 37 cents at elevator; rosin firm and open, spirits turpentine easy.

TWENTY-TWO AND A HALF YEARS OLD.

The Star is twenty-two and a half years old to-day and it announces this fact with pride and pleasure. It will battle for the Democracy in the future as it has in the past, and will always strive by its earnestness and faithfulness for the cause of right, to merit the respect of its readers of the entire North, South, East and West. The Star will continue to work not only for the advancement of Wilmington, but also for the entire State. It is the oldest daily in the State, and it will still vigorously advocate what it considers best for the people and will ever be their friend and champion.

A Boston poet says, "nothing is so utterly deplorable as a fact. It destroys tradition and strangles imagination." Senator Hoar and some of the other Republican statesmen will undertake to dress up the South in a doublet and breeches, as the Boston poet says. A little fact of the other day destroyed a lot of Hoar's imagination about the laws of Louisiana and other Southern States which he had made the theme of a hair-lifting speech.

It seems that some of the English syndicates which have been operating in this country buying up breweries and other properties have been gullible of the credulous Britishers with the hope that they have, and floating about the thousands of dollars upon the other side of the country. Investigations are being made and some interesting developments are looked for.

Brother Turner, colored, of Georgia, has written a letter to Fred Douglass, in which he says that he has discovered that a "white man is a white man and a black man a black man, whether a Northerner or a Southerner." Bishop has simply discovered that other people had discovered long ago, and the sooner it is generally recognized by the colored man the better it will be for him.

Brother Wanamaker should make haste to establish a Sunday school among his postal clerks in the South. Nine of them have been caught robbing the mails. With a good Sunday school under Brother Wanamaker's protecting care, perhaps this tendency to letter-busting might be checked.

From July 1, 1861 to July 1, 1890 this country has paid $1,165,326,017 in pensions, while the expenditures from March 4 1789 to June 30, 1861 the expenditures amounted to 80,130,327. Just 8,393,641 less than the present expenditures for the last five years alone.

The City of Mexico is going to be one of the grandest hotels on the continent. It will cost $2,000,000, of which the Government will furnish $1,400,000, Mexican capitalists the remainder. It will be five stories high, built of stone, with four hundred rooms.

Bismarck sowed his wild oats when he was a young man, but quit it when he got older. Western farmers who have been sowing oats are going to quit it, too.

A Missing Man. J. L. Pickett, a night watchman at the street corner of the Atlantic Coast line, has disappeared and his family and friends are greatly concerned about it. Yesterday it was reported that he was drowned and that his body had been found in the river near the railroad wharves, but the report, it was ascertained, was unfounded. Pickett has been missing since last Wednesday night it is thought by some persons that he has been drowned for the reason that a warrant had been asked for on the Mayor for his arrest on the charge of assaulting a married woman.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—Two interments the past week in the city cemeteries—one in Oakdale and one in Pine Forest.

—The Criminal Court adjourned for the term yesterday afternoon after settling a few cost cases.

—Gilbert Telfair, colored, was sent to the lock-up yesterday from the City Court for being found drunk and down.

—The Register of Deeds issued three marriage licenses the past week—one for white and two for colored couples.

—Strawberries from Mr. J. H. Westbrook's farm at Rocky Point were on sale yesterday at Mr. W. H. Yopp's, at 35 cents a quart.

—Norwegian barque Adiator, Nielsen, hence for Libau, passed Isle of Wight, March 20th. Also, German barque Antares, for Hull.

—The Christian Association of St. Paul's E. Lutheran Church will hold its quarterly meeting at 4:30 p. m. today, in Luther Memorial building.

—The schooner Edwin Janet arrived here yesterday from the Bahama Islands, with a cargo of oranges, bananas, pineapples and other fruit, consigned to Messrs. Cronly & Morris.

—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Guilford Battle Ground Association, held recently at their lodge, Lieut. Gov. Charles M. Stedman, of our city, was elected one of the directors.

—The Fire Department was out last night about 9 o'clock on an alarm caused by the testing of the wires, which were broken during the gale yesterday. Three taps were sounded which showed up 21 at the engine house.

—The jury in the case of Walter Yates, tried for murder, stood ten for acquittal and two for conviction on the first ballot. Two more ballots were had without change and on the fourth ballot the vote for acquittal was unanimous.

—Robt. Morrissey, colored, charged with permitting a horse to run at large in the streets, was before the Mayor yesterday. Judgment was suspended in the case, but defendant and all other persons present were notified that the ordinance violated by Morrissey would be strictly enforced.

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the forecasts for to-day: For Virginia, rain this morning, followed by clearing weather, fair weather to-morrow, northwesterly winds, colder.

For North Carolina and South Carolina, rain, followed by clearing weather and colder, northwesterly winds, fair to-morrow.

For Eastern Florida and Western Florida, fair weather in southern portion, light rains in northern portion, winds shifting to northerly, lower temperature, fair weather to-morrow.

Katie Putnam.

Miss Katie Putnam will play a one night engagement at the Opera House in this city on Wednesday, March 20th, in "Erma the Elf." The Boston Times speaking of Miss Putnam's acting says it is something rare and grand in many of its features. It is earnest, enthusiastic, genius-like and carries with it a power to control an audience. It is unnecessary to judge her by others. She is true to her own genius and powers, and her impersonations not only bear the stamp of lofty superiority, but they have successfully met the polished criticism of the ablest pens.

WIND AND RAIN.

A Southwest Storm that was Probably More Severe at Other Places than Wilmington.

The cautionary Southwest signals were hoisted over the Signal Office at 11:30 a. m. yesterday in compliance with an order from headquarters, which stated that the storm was then central in Tennessee.

The wind blew a stiff gale all day and reached a maximum velocity of thirty-five miles per hour from the Southwest. The river was on a rampage and the tide rose very high. There was no rain until evening, when a heavy cloud swept over the city, and with the rain that followed continued until late in the night the wind subsided.

Heavy rains attended the storm centre, Nashville and Memphis reporting over two inches of rainfall. Wilmington was probably on the edge of the storm and the blow most likely was more severe at other places. Telegraph wires in all directions were down last night and little could be learned of the extent or severity of the gale. Wadesboro and Hamlet reported a terrible hail storm just before telegraphic communication was interrupted. The storm passed Wilmington late in the afternoon, going northeast, and there were reports of it in the neighborhood of Goldsboro, but the wires of Wilmington, there was no communication as far as Florence, and the storm in all probability was severe in that section. At the Signal office yesterday afternoon it was thought that the disturbance would move northeastward and to-day be central off the Middle Atlantic coast, and that a moderately high pressure that is pressing in from the westward will follow in the wake of the storm centre, bringing westerly winds and fair and cooler weather to-day.

A GOOD SHIP AND A GOOD CARGO.

The British Steamship Tronto, Capt Sullivan, Ready to Sail for Liverpool.

The British steamship Tronto, Capt Sullivan, has completed loading cotton at the Champion Press, and will sail for Liverpool to-morrow, with the largest cargo she has ever carried—from this or any other port. The Tronto's registered tonnage is 1,883 net, and her cargo consists of 7,335 bales of cotton, weighing 3,590,825 pounds, which gives 2,552 pounds per registered ton. Her draft is 15.3 feet aft and 15.4 forward. She has also on board sufficient coal—about 300 tons—to take her to her destination, and all her cargo is under decks.

It is interesting as well as instructive to compare the above with the last voyage of the Tronto from an American port—from Galveston, Texas, when she carried 5,972 bales of cotton, weighing 3,124,988 pounds, and 1,361 sacks of oil cake. She carried this excellent cargo, as it was then considered, on a draft of 15.3 feet aft and 13.0 forward, and she carried all this over the Galveston bar with the exception of 100 bales and some water ballast on a draft of 13.10 aft and 13.7 forward.

The largest cargoes shipped from Wilmington this season, previous to this on the Tronto were, by the Lochmore—2,473 pounds to the registered ton; by the Bentala, 2,466 pounds, but with 149 bales on deck, and by the Guy Colin, 2,532 pounds to the ton and 188 bales on deck.

The Tronto is comparatively a new ship, this being her third voyage. Her first was from Liverpool to Cete, France, with a full cargo of pitch; 1,860 tons on a mean draft of 19.8. She has a large ballast tank which is fitted for cargo. Her commander, Capt. Thomas Sullivan, has been four years in the company's service, and has been master of the Tronto from her launching. He is a genial, whole-souled gentleman whom his many friends here will be glad to meet again.

Stereopticon Lecture.

The Stereopticon lecture by Capt. W. H. Bixby, on "Up the Rhine," will be given to-morrow night at the Opera House. There are sixty photographic views—each picture eighteen feet square. Photographs, lecture and oxy-hydrogen lime light have been brought from New York City especially for this occasion. The Stereopticon, made by Queen, of Philadelphia, is one of the best made in the United States. The Lecture, written by Ellis Reynolds, has been prepared for special use with these photographs.

Taking Care of the Trees.

Instructions have been issued to the Superintendent of Streets and the police officers not to allow shade trees on the streets to be trimmed by anybody unless the person or persons have a permit from the city authorities. It is alleged that many fine trees around town have been ruined by ruthless and indiscriminate "trimming." All trees on the streets are claimed to be the property of the city, and the authorities propose to take care of them. Men will be sent out this week to remove the mistletoe growing on many of the oak trees.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Two Fishermen Saved from Drowning in the River.

Two colored fishermen—William Dry and Joe Farrow—had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday afternoon. They were in a boat with sail up, trying to make the wharf at the old fish market. The river was very rough and the wind blowing a gale, which upset the boat in mid-stream about opposite Nun street dock. Both of the fishermen clung to the overturned boat, and persons on the wharves and sailors from vessels near by put out in boats to rescue the men—in all, eight or ten boats went out; but a boat manned by colored men from the wharf near the Market was the first to reach the imperilled men and brought them safely to land. The overturned boat was secured also, but the fish it contained—some twenty pairs of shad—were lost.

Arrested and Released.

A young man named Charles E. Springle was arrested here Friday night by the Sheriff's officers on an order from Solicitor O. H. Allen, from Carteret Superior Court, who stated that an indictment had been found against Springle for seduction, and that a bond of $500 was required. Yesterday, Springle was released on a telegram from Sheriff Hall, of Carteret, to Sheriff Manning, stating that Springle's father had deposited $500 as security for the appearance of his son at the next term of Court to answer the charge.

Mission Services.

Rev. Mr. Arnold announced at the services on Friday that a "mission will be held in St. Paul's Church from April 20th to May 7th, conducted by Rev. Gustav Arnold Carstensen, the General Missioner of the "Parochial Missions Society." Mr. Carstensen is an eloquent preacher, and has had several years of experience as an evangelist. He has conducted missions in New York and many of the large cities of the North with great success. Mr. Arnold asked the co-operation of all Church people in this special effort.

The Sacred Concert.

The sacred concert which has been in preparation for some time past will take place at the First Baptist Church on next Tuesday evening. It promises to be one of the most noted musical events on record here. It is to inaugurate, as it were, the new organ. Some of the very best amateur talent of the city, both vocal and instrumental, will take part in the concert, and four of the best organists in the city will play on the new organ. Tickets are now on sale at the book store.

DIED.

MINTZ—In this city, at 12:05 P. M., Saturday, March 22nd, Mrs. ISABELLA C. MINTZ, wife of H. J. Mintz, aged 44 years 7 months and 8 days. Funeral will take place this (Sunday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from St. James' Church, thence to Bellevue Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.
