

BRONCHITIS

is an inflammation of the bronchial tubes—the air-passages leading into the lungs. Few other complaints are so prevalent, or call for more prompt and energetic action. As neglect or delay may result seriously, effective remedies should always be at hand. Apply at once a mustard poultice to the upper part of the chest, and for internal treatment, take frequent doses of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

C. O. Lippert, Druggist, Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "My little sister, four years of age, was so ill from bronchitis that we had almost given up hope of her recovery. Our family physician, a skilled man and of large experience, pronounced it useless to give her any more medicine, saying he had done all that was possible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with most happy results. After taking a few doses she seemed to breathe easier, and, within a week, was out of danger. We continued giving the Pectoral until satisfied she was entirely well. This indisputable evidence of the great merit of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has given me a boundless confidence in the preparation, and I recommend it to my customers, knowing it cannot disappoint them."

Young Children,

so that the medicine is known among them as the "cure for the afflicted."—James Rufus Vidal, San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 1887.
"A short time ago, I was taken with a severe attack of bronchitis. The remedies ordinarily used in such cases failed to give me relief. Almost in despair of ever finding anything to cure me, I bought a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was helped from the first dose. I had not taken a bottle before the disease left me, and my throat and lungs were as sound as ever."—Geo. B. Henter, Altoona, Pa.

OTTERBURN LITHIA AND MAGNESIA WATER!

NOT ONLY CURES "BRIGHT'S DISEASE" BUT ALL GRAVES.

My dear Sir, I have been suffering with a form of Kidney Disease for several years. I had consulted several physicians, and had taken many different medicines, but without any benefit. I had read of Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water, and I bought a bottle of it. I had not taken a bottle before the disease left me, and my kidneys were as sound as ever. I can truly say, with most happy results, that this water is a most valuable remedy for all cases of Bright's Disease, and for all other ailments of the kidneys. I can truly say, with most happy results, that this water is a most valuable remedy for all cases of Bright's Disease, and for all other ailments of the kidneys.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Washington Gazette: A horse belonging to Mr. Jesse Griffin committed suicide by jumping into the river at the market one day last week.

—Asheville Journal: Mrs. J. R. Patterson, wife of Clerk Patterson, of the Criminal Court, died at Philadelphia yesterday morning.

—Goldboro Argus: The news reaches us that Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, aged about 60 years, died on the farm of W. B. Fort, Esq., near Pikeville, this county, yesterday.

—Dallas Eagle: The King's Mountain Mill is about ready to start the looms, purchased not long since. To the Stakes are increased in the 8th year of his age.

—Concord Times: R. A. Barringer, a white man about 20 years of age, who has been working at the Allison mine, was arrested Monday evening for stealing a gold watch belonging to W. C. Walls, working at Forest Hill.

—High Point Enterprise: The Modern Barn Company have put in a new saw in the basket factory, thereby doubling the capacity. The company's shipment to the States are increased to 2,500 sticks went to South Carolina Tuesday.

—Newton Enterprise: Farmers from the eastern part of the county are getting their fertilizer for the cotton crop. From the rapidity with which they are hauling it away it looks as if they are setting their stakes for a big crop this year.

—Stanly Observer: The railroad surveying corps completed the route from Gold Hill via Millgrove via Blaineville to Albemarle, on Friday last week. — Superintendent Hardesty is driving ahead at the Hearne & Hatched mine, fixing up his ten-stamp mill and other machinery.

—Greensboro Workman: It is only a few years ago that a house and lot here now held at $5,000, could have been bought for $1,000 and other real estate lots now held at $4,000 and $6,000 could not have been sold at this price. These are some of the marks of a boom about which there can be no mistake.

—Franklin Times: The negroes are still leaving this county. We learn that nearly all who were on the plantations of Messrs. A. W. Wilson, L. B. Allen and several from H. D. Egerton's left this week. They left in the night without giving notice to their landlords or anybody else. — Mrs. Owen Davis, an aged and highly esteemed lady of this county, died one night last week. She was about 70 years of age.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Two carloads of negro emigrants from Franklin county, passed through Charlotte yesterday, on their way to Louisiana. Frank Williams was in the city yesterday exhibiting some fine specimens of gold ore which were taken from a recently discovered mine in Mecklenburg county. Mr. Williams says that there is every appearance that the mine is a rich one, extensive veins having already been discovered.

—Oxford Ledger: It is proposed to build a railroad from some point down Haw River, via Mebane and Caswell counties to Danville, Va., and the following townships have just voted on a subscription: Thompson Township, Aiamance county, $15,000; Yanceyville Village, $10,000; Yanceyville Township, $15,000; Mebane township, $5,000; McClinton township, $15,000, thus making a total of $90,000. There is great hope that the road will be built.

—Concord Times: There are fourteen prisoners now in the county jail. Two are serving out their sentences, the others will be tried at the next term of court. The mine on Mr. W. Allison's place is still holding up as heretofore. After working the ore over at the Reed mill a test has been made and experts say that the dirt already worked is still worth $21 per ton. A mill house and fixtures for grinding the ore and washing it is now being put up on the Allison grounds.

—Asheville Citizen: Marion Dodson, a young man living on Poplar Street, was shot with a Flobert rifle directly behind the left ear this morning. The wound is not serious. Dodson was going from his home across a knoll directly south of his home when he was struck with the ball and knocked down. He heard no report of a gun. The wounded man walked back to his house and will be able to be about in a day or two. It is thought the ball is imbedded in the flesh.

—Raleigh Chronicle: The U. S. Circuit Court has issued an injunction against the Commissioner and Board of Agriculture, restraining them, their agents and attorneys, from seizing the guano of the American Fertilizer Co., whether day or break, and shipping it to this State for sale, or from taking any steps to enforce the said license tax law against them. The company applied to the Court for this injunction on the ground that the tax law violates the inter-State commerce clause of the U. S. Constitution.

—Mount Airy News: While it was raining at this place a heavy snow was falling on the Blue Ridge in sight of Mt. Airy last Friday night. — A colored convict attempted to escape from the guard at this place Wednesday morning and was shot down. The wounds are very serious and may prove fatal. — Rev. S. F. Conrad of Winston, expects to run an excursion from Mt. Airy and Winston to Wilmington and out to the Seacoast about the last of April. The excursion will be run in the interest of the new Baptist Church that Mr. Conrad is expected to build at Walnut Cove this spring.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

If Congressmen Ewart has voted against a single measure for spoliation or illegal power, introduced by his party friends in Congress, we have yet to hear of it. —Asheville Democrat.

It is not to be believed that Quays and Wanamakers can gather money enough in 1892 to buy the Presidency. A revolution in popular opinion is violently progressive, which Sherman and Chandler have thus far found it impossible to arrest with more violent twirlings of the bloody shirt. —Goldshoro Argus.

The outlook of the South is colored by influences that are independent of Congress. The brightness of its future — or present, either, for that matter — cannot be dimmed by the action of the majority in Congress. The South is all # right, no matter which party is on top.

Furthermore, no section can be in entire gloom when Senator Vance lives in it. —Charlotte Chronicle.

The tobacco growers will doubtless be thankful for any alleviation of the restrictions imposed upon their liberty to sell their tobacco, such as are proposed in the McKinley bill, but they ought to remember that the Mills bill, as it passed the Democratic House, not only removed all such restrictions, but took the tax off all tobacco except the tax on cigars and cigarettes. —Raleigh News & Observer.

PERSONAL.

Doctor McElynn expects soon to go to England and Ireland in order to lecture about his anti-poverty theories. — There is in Ohio an editor in active service who is 95 years of age and morally, physically and intellectually sound. — It is rumored that Miss Minnie Wanamaker is soon to be married to Dr. Ruth, who revels in the distinction of being the handsomest man in the navy. — William Hunt, who designed and executed the Vanderbilt monument, is suffering from what is supposed to be a hopeless case of softening of the brain. — To an interviewer who visited him recently Mr. Gladstone made the astonishing statement that if the first line of any page in Homer was given to him as a cue he could repeat the entire page word for word in the original Greek. — Mwanga, king of Uganda, who has accepted christianity, is the man who used to have a few wives slaughtered before breakfast now and then. He has also killed a number of missionaries. His reformation gives civilization a great boost in Africa.

— In a letter to the "Charleston chamber of commerce William E. Curtis advises the people not to provide too much entertainment for the Pan-American delegates who are to go on a tour through the South early next month, as "the delegates have been fetted so much that they have lost their appetites."

What Men Like in Women.

There is a certain something, which, for want of a better name, is called, manliness, and it is this which makes women attractive to men. A great many virtues go to make up this one great possession and they are what men like in women.

Men like, in the first place, amiability in a woman.

They like a pleasant appearance.

They like the doing of little things that are pleasant to them.

They like the courtesy of the freeseid.

They like women whose lives and faces are always full of the sunshine of a contented mind and a cheerful disposition.

They like an ability to talk well and a knowledge of the virtue of silence.

They like a motherliness big enough to understand the wants of the older, as well as the younger boys.

They like a disposition to speak good, rather than evil of every human being.

They like sympathy—which means a willing ear for the tale of sorrow and gladness.

They like knowledge of how to dress well, which, by-the-by, doesn't mean conspicuously. Men are most attracted by good material, plain fabrics and quiet colors, not by showy colors or designs.

They like intelligence, but they prefer that the heart should be stronger than the brain.

They like a companion—a woman who has sufficient knowledge of the world and its ways to talk well with them, who is interested in their lives and their plans and in their hopes, who knows how to give a cheering word, or to listen quietly and by a tender look express the grief which the heart is feeling.

They may sometimes say that children are a bore and a nuisance, but a man shrinks from a woman who openly declares her dislike of them. A man expects the maternal instinct in a woman and is disappointed if he does not find it.

They like women to be affectionate, though stern, no matter how cold, no matter how repressive as far as his own feelings were concerned, who did not like a loving squeeze of the hand, or a tender kiss from the woman nearest to him.

These are some of the things that men like in women.—Ladies Home Journal.

A Black Friday—that day when a person is first seriously attacked with rheumatism, may well be termed a black one; but if he uses Salvation Oil in time he will soon be able to speak of a "Good Friday." It is the greatest cure on earth for pain.

The butcher does have some funny expressions. He told his assistant whether day or break, and shipping it to this State for sale, or from taking any steps to enforce the said license tax law against them. The company applied to the Court for this injunction on the ground that the tax law violates the inter-State commerce clause of the U. S. Constitution.
