At the meeting of the Athenæum Monday night, an interesting debate was had on the resolution that "Anticipation yields greater pleasure than Possession." The debate was participated in by most of the members present, and the decision of the question was in favor of the negative. The next meeting of the Athenæum will be on Monday, the 31st inst., when the question for debate will be "Should the woman propose?" Officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows: President-W. W. Roberts. Vice President-W. F. Penny. Treasurer-Louis Hanby. Secretary-E. D. Sloan. Literary Critic-W. L. Sharp.

Very Near a Fire. There came near being a fire at the Marlboro House, opposite Front street market yesterday evening, a few minutes before seven o'clock. A kerosene oil lamp on a table in one of the front rooms, either exploded or was broken in some way so that the oil ran out, ignited, and spread over the table and floor, creating a big blaze and smoke. A gentleman seated in an adjoining room rushed in and smothered the flames with a rug or piece of carpet, and the damage was confined to the furniture in the room. No alarm was given.
