OUTLINES.

To the Senate yesterday Mr. Blair read a memorial from Zion Church, in Washington City, asking for a reopening of the case of the Educational bill, and styling its rejection as "a great public calamity; the Montana contested election case was debated, as was also the bill providing for the enumeration of the Chinese in the next census, both of which went over until Monday; there will be no session of the Senate to-day; a petition was presented in the House from the New England Shoe and Leather Association against the imposition of a duty on hides and skins, which was received with applause by the Democrats; the Idaho admission bill was passed by a vote of 120 to 1, the Democrats refusing to vote, but the Speaker counting them as present; the Democrats will make this a test case, and have the courts pass upon the constitutionality of the rule allowing the Speaker to count a quorum. — A movement has been made in the Ontario Legislature to bring about closer trade relations between Canada and the United States, which is similar to that which has been made in other parts of the Dominion; a member, in bringing the matter before the House, said if the farmers failed to get unrestricted intercourse with the United States he believed annexation to be her inevitable destiny. — The cigar manufacturers who are opposed to the proposed tobacco schedule of the tariff, have filed a substitute with the Ways and Means Committee which will be acceptable to them. — A sub-committee has been appointed by the House Judiciary Committee to visit Alabama and neighboring Southern States to investigate the alleged imprisonment of court officials in instituting prosecutions for the purpose of collecting fees. — The trouble among the students of the Russian Universities is in consequence of the arbitrary spirit of the new statutes which have taken the place of the liberal relations which were in force during the reign of the late Emperor Alexander; the Universities are surrounded by police and troops. — The latest intelligence relative to the Mississippi flood represents that it is the greatest on record; many plantations which were never overflowed before are now under water, and great damage has been done to the railroads; the waters are receding at some points, but the general situation is still alarming. — The ladies of Farmington, Illinois, are raising the beer saloons and great excitement prevails. — A conference of Southern college students and Young Men's Christian Association deputations met in Asheville yesterday; the object is to train college students for work in their respective States. — The Horace Greeley homestead, at Chappaqua, N. Y., was burned to the ground yesterday morning. — New York markets: Money easy at 3 1/2 per cent; cotton quiet; middling uplands 11 7/16 cents; middling Orleans 11 1/16 cents; southern flour dull and heavy; wheat dull and irregular; corn steady and less active; No. 2, 38 cents at elevator; rosin quiet; spirits turpentine dull and lower at 40 3/4 cents.

Bismarck says he is poor to be a German duke. If he was a Durban Duke perhaps he could stand it.

There is a woman in Georgia who in sixteen years has only spoken to two other women and a little girl. Rip Van Winkle would have doted on such a woman.

Hon. H. H. Carlton, member of Congress from Georgia, will retire at the end of his term to take the presidency of a land improvement company, to which he has been elected.

Hon. W. E. Gladstone is an Englishman only by accident. He was born in Liverpool, but his father and mother and all of his ancestors that he has any knowledge of, he says, were Scotch to the core.

The New York Commercial Advertiser keeps a weekly record of the private pension bills introduced in Congress. The number last week was 113, making the total up to Saturday for this session 2,893.

Governor Hill of New York has vetoed for the second time the ballot reform bill passed by the legislature. He is afraid it will disfranchise somebody. Mr. Hill does not seem to be running on a ballot reform schedule.

Gen. Russell A. Alger, says politics hasn't got anything to do with his trip South. Of course not. It would be interesting, however, to see other Republican Presidential aspirants if they could get close enough to him to see how he lay his wires to scoop in delegates "that can't be bribed nor bullied" to the next national convention.

LOCAL DOTS.

Rev. P. Sanders Reed, of San Francisco, has struck a bright idea. He thinks poverty could be lessened if laws could be passed prohibiting marriage among the poorer classes. Considering the striking disparity of births between the rich and the poor in some sections of this country this suggestion might be more properly entitled one to depopulate certain sections rather than to decrease poverty.

The Court of Claims has decided that the Government is responsible for the pay of the Congressmen which Silcott got away with. The decision only covers the salary for November, but the boys will probably find a way to vote themselves the balance. The probabilities are that hereafter they will do their own collecting.

Nelly Bly's lecture tour is not panning out as a financial success. The people are not tumbling in to hear her and she'll out their small change with half the alacrity which her enterprising manager thought they would, and now he wants to drop her, but she has got the grip on him and declines to be dropped.

Da ville, a once prosperous town in Vermont, has gone to seed on account of the abandonment of so many of the surrounding farms from which it formerly drew its trade. They should have a little more "protection" of some kind. If this thing goes on Vermont will become a howling wilderness.

The tornado which swept through Louisville, Ky., last Thursday night a week ago followed almost in the identical track of a similar one which swept through the town in 1835, when great damage was done to buildings but no lives were lost. Louisville was then a city of 15,000 people.

U. S. Treasurer Huston has gone from Washington to Indianapolis to help elect some Republican township trustees. This looks something like "offensive partisanship" but under Mr. Harrison's civil service reform administration it is all o. k.

Barnum, while in England, so captured the Prince of Wales, that they formed a partnership to introduce fast trotting horses into England. The Prince has always been regarded as pretty fast himself.

It is said that Senator Stanford, of California, has had case of Presidential fever, which accounts for the scheme which he advocates for lending Government money to farmers on real estate security.

For Progress and Prosperity. — Charlotte Democrat.

The Wilmington STAR has started on the second half of its twenty-second year, the oldest daily paper in the State. It has ever labored for the progress and prosperity of the people and deserves the patronage of the community. We wish our esteemed contemporary continued success.

One of the Best. — Maxton Union.

Without doubt the Wilmington STAR is one of the best of papers in the South, and it grows better as it grows older.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—Mr. Jos. F. Williams, now of Middletown, Conn., but for many years a resident of Wilmington, is in the city.

—The tug Blanche was towed up to the city yesterday, and the work of repairing the vessel was at once commenced.

—This is the last day on which cases can be entered for the approaching term of the Superior Court for this county, which will convene on Monday, the 14th.

—The annual meeting and election of officers of the Produce Exchange will be held at noon on Tuesday next, April 8th. The polls will be open from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.

—There will be a "Teachers Meeting" this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. rooms for the study of the International Sunday School Lesson. Scholars of the different Sunday Schools may also attend if they desire.

—Mr. T. B. Carroll, son of Mike Carroll of this city, has returned home for his Spring vacation. He has been for some time past at the Baltimore University School of Medicine, and intends returning shortly to continue his studies.

For Strangers in the City.

A city reader sends the STAR the following, clipped from the Southern Churchman, and suggests that it would be a good idea for all our churches to have cards printed (as some have) and use them:

A traveling man who spent Sunday in Cedar Rapids, and attended Grace church, came to the rector after evening song to say how he had enjoyed the day. He said: "I was just leaving the hotel to take a walk about town, when I passed a young man who slipped a card into my hand. I supposed it was an advertisement of cigars, or a notice of some Sunday night theatre, but I glanced at it and saw the cross on it, and then read it through. I went twice to church to-day; something I have not done in five years, and you may be sure that when I am near here again I will do the same thing. You don't know how kind a thing it is to show some attention of this sort to the 'drummers,' who are pretty good fellows, if the pious people do consider them clear outside the possibility of religion."

Primrose & West To-Night.

Those princings of the minstrel stage, Primrose & West, and their superb corps of minstrels appear at the Opera House to-night. The Atlanta Constitution says of the performance: "The stage setting and costumes for the first part are most magnificent. The stage is hung in heavy drapery of white satin, with the orchestra on a raised platform in the rear. Mr. Le Mack and Mr. Powers are on the ends at first; then come Mr. Primrose, Mr. West and Mr. Dockstader. The musical features are exceptionally strong. The solos by Mr. Davis, Mr. Natus, the sextette, Mr. Samuels and Mr. Moore are of the highest order of artistic excellence. Mr. Le Mack sings a topical song, entitled, 'Good Advice,' which was funny and caught on. Mr. Powers did some imitative good banjo playing. Then came Primrose and Dockstader, with West in the middle."

Better secure seats at once at Yates' bookstore.

CLASSICAL CONCERT.

A Musical Treat of Rare Excellence at the Opera House Tuesday Night.

The classical concert to be given at the Opera House next Tuesday night promises to be a musical treat of rare excellence. Great care has been taken in the selection of the pieces to be rendered, and the reputation of the artists—professional and amateur—who are to appear, is a guarantee of a brilliant success for the occasion. While this is for the same object as the sacred concert given last week at the First Baptist Church, it is by no means a repetition of the same, nor is it to be a sacred concert.

Tickets, we learn, are already on sale at the bookstores.

Home Building Association.

A special meeting of directors of the N. C. Home Building Association was held last night. The President, Mr. C. W. Yates, presided. Reports were received and routine business was transacted. The first instalments on shares will be payable on Saturday, April 12th, between the hours of 2 and 9 p. m., to the treasurer of the Association at the office of the MORNING STAR.

The regular meeting of the Association will be held on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

Good Friday and Easter Services at St. Paul's.

Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-day at 11 a. m. and 5.30 p. m. The Easter services at St. Paul's will be unusually interesting and devotional: The music by the new quartette choir will be of a high order, and a delightful programme has been arranged. There will be morning prayer and celebration of the Holy communion at 11 a. m. Children's Easter service at 3.30 p. m. and evening prayer and sermon at 8 p. m.

Y. M. C. A.

An Interesting Meeting at the Rooms Last Night.

The meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last night was very interesting. Short and earnest talks were made by Messrs. Helmick, Jaderquist and Coddling, of Kansas, Minnesota and Nebraska, respectively. They gave their reasons for going to the Dark Continent in very felicitous language. It is very clear that they are not going as adventurers but for the sole purpose of carrying the Gospel to the heathen, for they leave their families behind them, not knowing whether they shall ever see them again. It is clearly visible that they are really in earnest.

They left at 10.10 p. m. for Charleston, S. C., where they will speak tomorrow. From there they will visit several places in South Carolina, and finally return to New York, where they will take ship for their mission field.

There was a good attendance, and the meeting was very much enjoyed.

Fifth Ward Hook and Ladder Company.

The Fire Department Committee of the Board of Aldermen will, it is understood, recommend an appropriation in the annual budget for building a new truck house for the Fifth Ward Hook and Ladder Company. The house now occupied by this Company is altogether too small for the accommodation of the apparatus, to say nothing of the accommodation of the members of the Company, who have on every occasion rendered efficient service, and whose claims are entitled to the fullest recognition. The Fifth Ward, by the way, is building up rapidly, and will ere long be peopled with a white population that will outweigh the colored element.

The C. F. & Y. V. Celebration.

A meeting of the invitation committee for the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley celebration, to be held on the 16th and 17th insts., was held yesterday. A careful revision of the list was made, and it was decided to issue one hundred and fifty more invitations, which will swell the list to nearly eight hundred.

The Wilmington Gas and Electric Light Company has kindly offered to put in electric lights, gratuitously, at the Champion Compress building, where the banquet will be given.

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the forecasts for to-day:

For North Carolina and South Carolina, generally fair, slightly warmer and southeasterly winds.

For Georgia, generally fair, clearing in Alabama, warmer and southerly winds.

For Florida, fair, clearing in extreme western portion of western Florida, stationary temperature and southerly winds.

Rice Planting.

Nearly all the rice fields along the Cape Fear will be planted this season. Planting commenced some time ago and is now going actively forward, although some difficulty has been experienced in procuring good seed. Similar reports come from other sections, and unless some untoward event occurs next fall's crop will be one of the largest ever harvested.

There is Nothing
WHICH "BOOMS" OUR BUSINESS AS much as competition, either from home or Traveling Agents, for whenever prices and quality are compared we come off victorious.
All thinking people who investigate these matters can readily understand that our thorough knowledge of Musical Instruments, which we possess in great quantities, and our constant correspondence with the manufacturers at lowest wholesale rates, and our economical management, give us the greatest advantages.
If you buy of Traveling "Salesmen" you will be told that no one has to pay for the price of an instrument. They must sell cheap grades of Instruments. It is a fact that you pay more than you would here at home. Again, you have no idea, unless thoroughly posted, what you are purchasing. We are ready here and everywhere to be responsible for the goods we sell.
We have just received one of the greatest bargains of the season in PIANOS and ORGANS, which we offer at 30 per cent lower than the same grades as can be had by the retailer. Over two hundred Families in Wilmington have purchased from us, and can testify to our reliability. Call and see our beautiful and carefully selected stock.
