OUTLINES.

There was no session of the Senate yesterday; in the House private pension bills were considered, when a lively debate took place relative to the granting of pensions; Mr. Stone, of Missouri, made an earnest protest against the indefensible extravagance in public expenditures, and was followed by several members who favored the liberal pensioning of Union soldiers regardless of the cost; the private calendar was then considered.

The Farmers' Alliance of Kansas is now asking what Ingalls has done for Kansas during his eighteen years service in the Senate. Hasn't he given Kansas the brilliant distinction of having the only Senator who parts his hair in the middle? The Alliance should not be unreasonable nor unjust to Mr. Ingalls.

The women cleared the deck in the municipal election in the town of Manhattan, Kansas, last Tuesday, by electing a woman mayor and women to all the town offices. They captured the town two years ago and ran it so well that they carried it again Tuesday with a whoop, or words to that effect.

A French syndicate is investing over $20,000,000 in the construction of railways in Guatemala. In the meantime our Republican statesmen insist upon the high tariff wall and giving Frenchmen and other foreign capitalists full sway in Guatemala and the other countries south of us.

The STAR of Wilmington, has been published twenty-two and a half years, and is the oldest and most influential paper in the State. It will naturally continue to maintain that position and rank among the foremost journals of our South land. We wish it continued years of usefulness.

Mr. Jefferson Chandler of Missouri is patriotic. He feels under many obligations to Missouri, where he has lived from boyhood, and is anxious to repay the obligation in part, by taking Vest's seat in the U. S. Senate and giving the State and country the benefit of his great and towering intellect. This evidence of gratitude is very touching.

Ex-Gov. Ames, of Massachusetts, who has just returned from Cuba, says he learned while there from the Consul General at Havana, that Secretary Blaine was in favor of free trade with the Antilles and Mexico. Mr. Blaine seems to have been acquiring some new ideas on the trade question since he has become Secretary of State.

The distinguished Col. Shepard, of the New York Mail and Express, has discovered that Thomas Jefferson was not a Democrat. To give this discovery any importance the Colonel should now proceed to convince the public that he knows what Democracy means.

Many of the negroes of Liberty county, Georgia, are still waiting for Bell, the lunatic who pretended to be a second Christ, to come out of the lunatic asylum to which he was sent and lead them to glory. They don't seem to be entirely satisfied with such saviors as Ingalls.

Seats on sale at Yates' to-day for Monday evening's entertainment at the Opera House—the lecture on "Sights of Paris."

Rev. W. S. Creasy is expected to fill the appointment of Rev. F. D. Swindell at Wesley Chapel on the Kenansville circuit to-morrow.

The joint meeting of the Board of Magistrates and Commissioners of New Hanover county will be Monday next (not Tuesday) at 10 a. m.

The old horse-chestnut tree in front of the public building near the corner of Front and Mulberry, is to be moved, by order of the Mayor, to Third near Orange street. The other trees in front of the building will also be removed to some other street.

Mrs. D. J. Skipper, of Brunswick county, who was brought here some time since, for treatment by physicians for injuries received at the hands of her husband, was yesterday by the advice of her medical attendants removed to the City Hospital. Her husband, who was arrested in this city a short time ago (as reported in the STAR) is in the county jail at Southport.

YESTERDAY'S FIRE. A Frame Building Partly Burned—Good Work of the Fire Department. The firemen did good work yesterday afternoon at the fire that broke out about 2.30 o'clock in a small frame house on Mulberry street near Front. A high wind—almost a gale—was blowing from the southwest, and the fire had made such progress before it was discovered and the alarm was sent in, that the whole roof was in a blaze when the engines and reels of the department arrived. The fire burned with great stubbornness, but it was managed skillfully and with good judgment, and was finally extinguished with but comparatively slight damage to the house, while the wooden dwellings on either side were hardly scorched.

The building, a two-story frame structure, is owned by Mrs. Mary E. Hollingsworth, and is insured for $750 with Messrs. Atkinson & Manning in the Fire Association of Philadelphia. It was occupied by Mr. Chas. F. Brown, who saved all his furniture.

The firemen would have worked at some disadvantage—being without ladders until the arrival of the Fifth Ward hook and ladder truck—but fortunately there was ample water pressure, the building was a low one, and the flames were easily reached.

The absence of the new hook and ladder truck was due, it is said, to the fact that the horses were at work on the streets at the time of the fire, out in the direction of Kidder's mill, and the driver did not hear the alarm.

A member of the Committee on Streets and Wharves said, yesterday afternoon, that an order had been issued some time since to the Superintendent of Streets, forbidding the horses of the Fire Department being taken a greater distance than five blocks from their engine houses, and that this order had never been rescinded.

A Heavy Rain. There was a heavy rain yesterday morning that flooded the streets and washed out numerous gutters and alleys. The total rainfall, as recorded at the Signal Office, was an inch and twenty-hundredths. Some damage was caused to private property by overflow, and a great deal of sand was washed down from the hills.

OPERA HOUSE. Primrose and West's Minstrels. Never before has there been witnessed in this city such a minstrel performance as was given last night by Primrose and West. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity; the scenery was artistic and beautiful, the costumes were tasteful and elegant, and the programme was varied and most pleasing.

The minstrels commenced with an overture introducing the Little Drum Major—Master Willie Martin. They made a hit at the start, and kept up this standard throughout the whole act.

Among the many artists noticed were Barney Fajan in his latest idea "The Promenade of the Popinjays"; Barber, in his wonderful performance on the bicycle; the Weston Brothers, the famous musical prodigies; the original "Big Four"—Smith, Daly, Waldron and Martin; Lew Dockstader, in his specialty, and the English Swell, by Primrose. The soloists are excellent, and the company altogether is one of the strongest on the road, and will draw wherever they go.

CONDUCTING MEETINGS IN LAURINBURG—Great Interest Manifested—His Labors Meeting with Much Success. A correspondent of the STAR, writing from Laurinburg, says:

Mr. W. P. Fife, so well known throughout the State as the "Drummer Evangelist," is now conducting a series of meetings in Laurinburg, N. C., in which the inhabitants of the town and surrounding country are manifesting great interest, and that much good will result therefrom is beyond question. These meetings are being held in the Baptist Church, which has a seating capacity, as it is now arranged, of about six hundred, and is filled to overflowing nightly.

Mr. Fife is an impressive, entertaining and fluent speaker, and his deep and heartfelt earnestness in the cause he has adopted as his life-work cannot fail to meet with response in the minds of his hearers. That he is a diligent student of the Scripture, is evident by the ease with which he uses Scriptural passages in reference to the arguments directed at offenders against Divine law. His deductions and conclusions are most logically drawn, and his power of abstract reasoning is somewhat remarkable in one who is comparatively but a novice in evangelistic work.

His labors here are meeting with success, and with the aid and hearty cooperation so cheerfully accorded him by the resident ministers, a great revival of the Christian religion is looked for such as the town has never before enjoyed. There are also many earnest Christian people who are lending themselves heart and mind, to the work of redemption, and who ask the prayers of all believers for the blessings of the Divine Masters, in the upbuilding of his kingdom in this locality.

It is not now definitely known how long these meetings will continue, they having been in progress since last Monday night. Mr. Fife is beginning to show evidences of the effect of the arduous labor he has performed during the past winter, and needs rest and recreation which he will no doubt take at the earliest opportunity.

RIVER AND MARINE.

The Norwegian barques Ruth, Capt. Grefstad, and the Nativig, Capt. Sundblad, which arrived here yesterday, sailed from St. Thomas, W. I., on the 26th of March last, the Ruth at 8 a. m. and the Nativig at 1 p. m., and although neither ship was sighted by the other on the voyage there was only a half hour's difference in their arrival at Frypaning lightship.

The Concert Tuesday Night. It is wonderful what attractive power there is in good music. We made a mistake in saying tickets were on sale at Yates' bookstore yesterday, and thereby subjected that worthy man to much annoyance by reason of the many applications for reserved seats. We learn that the tickets are really on sale to-day, and those who apply early can secure reserved seats without extra charge.

A Very Low Death Rate. According to the report of the Superintendent of Health, to be submitted to the Board of Aldermen at their next meeting, the death rate of Wilmington for the year ended March 31st, is 11.30 to 1,000 for the whites, and 18.70 for the colored, on an estimated population of 25,000, white and colored. This is a good showing for the healthfulness of Wilmington.
