OUTLINES.

The Montana election case was further debated in the Senate yesterday, and Mr. Hoar gave notice that on Monday he should ask the Senate to remain in session until the case was disposed of, the select committee on the Quadro-Centennial Celebration reported back with amendments the House bill for the World's Fair at Chicago, and the hope was expressed that it would be taken up and passed on Monday; the Virginia contested election case occupied the session of the House until 5 o'clock, when a recess was taken to 7:30 o'clock, the evening session to be for the consideration of private pension bills.

The Senate Quadro-Centennial Committee held a meeting yesterday morning and ordered the World's Fair bill to be reported with some amendments, embracing the Daniel proposition for an international naval display and a celebration at the time of the dedication of the proposed statue to Columbus in Washington. Delegations from the New York Produce and Cotton exchanges, the Chicago Board of Trade, and the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, met yesterday before the House committee on Agriculture, to protest against the passage of the bill to prevent dealing in options and futures.

The government report of the condition of winter wheat estimates the average yield for the entire area at 51 against 91 the same date last year, on which basis, considering the increased acreage, the crop would indicate a yield of about $37,000,000 as against less than last year. — Snow at Harrisonburg, Va., Thursday night, and it is feared great damage was done to fruit. — Dun's review reports trade gradually improving, notwithstanding bad crop reports; business better for the week number 209, against 208 for the previous week. — At 10:30 o'clock last night Mr. Randall's physician expressed the opinion that his patient would not live till morning.

— N. Y. markets: Money easy at 4 1/2 per cent, closing offered at 5 per cent; cotton firm; middling uplands 11 9/16c; Orleans 11 1/4c; southern flour stronger at $2 25 @ 5.00; wheat fairly active and strong; No. 2 red 91 1/2 @ 91 3/4 cents at elevator; corn active and higher; No. 2 yellow 69 1/2 @ 69 3/4 cents at elevator; rosin turpentine quiet and weak at 12 1/2 @ 12 3/4 cents.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLVI.—NO. 18.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 12, 1890.

WHOLE NO. 7,343

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

—No cases for trial at the City Court yesterday.

—Spirits turpentine sold yesterday at 8 1/2 cents per gallon.

—Mr. Henry A. London, of Pittsboro, was a visitor at the STAR office yesterday.

—Don't forget the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium exhibition next Friday night, to be given at the Opera House.

—The Board of Aldermen will meet Monday afternoon to wrestle with the appropriations for the city departments.

—A great many of the peach trees are reported dead or dying; it is supposed from the effects of the recent cold weather after an open winter.

—There will be no services Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Mission, South Front street, but prayer meeting will be held at night.

—Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of Wilmington, is already spoken of as the first president of the Baptist Female College. So says the Raleigh Chronicle.

—A memorial service for the late Rev. Charles Carlstrom at an early day, to be participated in by the three Methodist Churches of this city, has been suggested.

—Mr. Geo. Chadbourne will conduct the services of the Business and Working Men's Prayer and Experience Meeting at the Seaman's Bethel tonight at 8 o'clock, to which ladies as well as gentlemen are invited.

—Receipts of cotton at this port for the crop year—to April 11th—are 132,492 bales, as against 150,770 to same date last year, showing a decrease of 18,278 bales. The stock is 5,270 bales, against 4,362 at same date last year.

—A "veteran" reader of the STAR says: A meeting of the "Old Stars" once a month where old army incidents would be related and army scenes depicted, would be very interesting and enjoyable. Also, a meeting at which relics of the late war would be displayed.

—The estimates for appropriations for the different departments of the city government for the year beginning April 1st, as made by the Board of Aldermen, with coupons to be paid and interest on money borrowed, amount to $161,000, while the income from all sources will not exceed $150,000.

—It was a novel sight yesterday to see one of the reels going from Front to Second on Red Cross street, to reach the fire. The sand was so deep that the man and horse were obliged to struggle most strenuously to get through one of the principal thoroughfares in the city. Can't something be done to improve this street?

Two Small Fires.

A house occupied by Mr. Jos. F. Sellers on Second, between Red Cross and Campbell streets, caught on fire on the roof about 9 a. m. yesterday. An alarm from No. 26 box, corner of Front and Red Cross streets, brought the fire department out, but employees at Messrs. W. E. Worth & Co.'s ice factory, close by, had extinguished the flames before the arrival of engines, trucks and hose reels. The damage to the house was slight. It is the property of Mrs. Thos. B. Smith and is insured with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright, in the Liverpool and London and Globe for $400.

One of the employees of the ice factory fell from the roof and was slightly hurt.

About 11 o'clock a. m. a fire was discovered on the roof of a frame house on Sixth between Walnut and Chestnut streets, occupied by a colored woman and owned by J. W. Moody. The damage was very slight.

The Naval Stores Movement.

Receipts of naval stores from April 1st to April 11th, as compared with receipts for the same time last year as posted at the Produce Exchange, are as follows: Spirits turpentine, 483 casks; last year, 594. Rosin, 12,617 barrels; last year, 7,106. Tar, 2,655 barrels; last year, 5,147. Crude turpentine, 330 barrels; last year, 117.

Stocks at this port as compared with stocks at same date last year, are: Spirits turpentine, 984 casks; last year, 444. Rosin, 15,907 barrels; last year, 77,235. Tar, 3,315 barrels; last year, 8,418. Crude turpentine, 1,270 barrels; last year, 568.

Rosin for England.

The British barque Trossachs sailed from Southport yesterday for Hull, England, with a cargo of 3,061 barrels rosin and 2,800 barrels tar, valued at $7,800, and shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downie & Co.

The Norwegian barque Leif Erikson cleared for London, yesterday, with 5,676 barrels of rosin, valued at $7,885. Vessel by C. P. Mebane and cargo by Williams & Murchison.

FIREMEN'S PARADE.

The Department to Take Part in the C. F. & Y. V. Celebration.

A meeting of officers of the Fire Department was held in the Mayor's office at the City Hall last night, to make arrangements for the parade and exhibition of apparatus on the occasion of the Cape Fear & Vaddin Valley railroad celebration on Wednesday, the 16th inst.

Chief Martin Newman was called to the chair and Capt. J. D. Kelly was chosen secretary.

The chair explained the object of the meeting, stating that the Committee of Arrangements had requested that the Fire Department take part in the celebration.

On motion of Foreman VonGlaun of the "Atlantic" it was decided that if the excursionists return from Carolina Beach by 6 o'clock p. m. the Department would be paraded and an exhibition given, but if the return was delayed until 7 o'clock only an exhibition would be given.

On motion, the chairman of the meeting and Capt. J. W. Duls of Howard Relief No. 1, Capt. Ed Daniels of Hook and Ladder No. 1, and Capt. Martin T. Davis of Wilmington S. F. E. Co. No. 1 were appointed a committee to confer with Col. F. W. Kerchner, of the citizens' committee of arrangements, to make preparations for the parade and exhibition, and report to an adjourned meeting to be held at 12 o'clock noon to-day at the City Hall.

MAXTON, N. C.

A Manufacturing Company with a Capital Stock of $100,000.

The stockholders of the Maxton Manufacturing Company, at a meeting held April 10th, elected the following officers, viz: J. C. McCaskill, President; John Leach, Vice President; and E. F. McRae, Secretary and Treasurer.

The object of the meeting was explained to be the formation of a company to establish general manufacturing industries in Maxton. The enterprise met with hearty support, and the company was soon organized with a limited stock of $100,000. It was decided that 10 per cent. of the capital stock subscribed be paid in next Saturday evening. The meeting was very enthusiastic and harmonious and everybody is in fine spirits at the little town's future outlook.

THE TRUCK MARKET.

The New York Prices for Southern Vegetables.

C. S. Palmer, Commission Merchant in fruits and produce, New York city, in a special to the STAR says:

The market rules firm and the demand is active for all Southern vegetables now arriving, especially asparagus; prime selling from $4 to $5 per dozen, and seconds from $2 to $3.50. Cabbage is in somewhat larger supply, but choice solid South Carolina and Georgia will sell at $2.50 to $3; North Carolina $1.50 to $2. Green peas $5 to 6 per crate. From the very short supply of the old crop of Northern sweets, which are selling at extremely high prices, sweet potatoes from the South are meeting with more favor and selling at $5.75 to $3 per barrel. Strawberries are in light receipt and selling from 50 cents to $1 per quart.

General Conference M. E. Church South.

The next session of the above body will meet in St. Louis, Mo., on the 7th of May. It is the highest ecclesiastical body and the only law-making power in this Church, and is therefore the most important of all their assemblies, and much interest is naturally felt by its membership in its deliberations. Rev. F. D. Swindell, the Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District and a citizen of this city, is one of the clerical delegates elected by the North Carolina Annual Conference.

Encampment Committee.

Col. Jno. W. Atkinson, Chairman of the meeting held Thursday at the Produce Exchange, has appointed the following named gentlemen as the committee to collect funds for improving the location for the Military Permanent Encampment: Messrs. George Chadbourne, Joseph H. Watters, R. M. McIntyre, J. C. Stevenson, George R. French, G. H. Smith, S. H. Fishblate, F. W. Kerchner, A. Adrian, J. W. Murchison.

RIVER AND MARINE

—German barque Paquita, hence, for Stettin, and Fortuna, hence for Hamburg, passed Beachy Head, April 8th.

—German barque Alexandrine, hence for Stettin, passed Dungeness, April 7th.

—Norwegian barque Brakka, hence arrived at London, April 9th.

—German brig Clara, hence, for Hull, passed Prawle Point, April 8th.

—Norwegian barque Dovre, Petersen, hence, arrived at Stettin April 2d.

—As the German brig Dr. Witte, Zeppelin, was leaving St. Vincent, March 24th, for Wilmington, she collided with the German steamer Baltimore. The brig lost her foremast, maintop-gallant-mast, jibboom, bulwarks, stanchions and other gear. It is estimated that her repairs will cost $5,500. The Baltimore was apparently unhurt.

AUDIT AND FINANCE.

The Board of Aldermen Requested to Reduce Their Estimates for the Annual Budget.

The Board of Audit and Finance met yesterday in adjourned session. Present: Mr. R. J. Jones chairman, Messrs. J. F. Maunder, Wm. Calder, W. R. Kennan, Jno. W. Hewett.

The estimates for the different departments of the city government, as submitted by the Board of Aldermen, were taken up and on motion of Mr. Calder the following resolution was adopted.

Resolved, That the chairman of this Board is hereby requested to submit to the Board of Aldermen a detailed statement of the probable income of the city for the next fiscal year, based upon the receipts of the past, and also a statement of the amount it will be necessary to raise in order to meet their appropriations and the fixed charges for interest, etc., with the request that they bring their appropriations more nearly within our resources, based upon the present rate of taxation.

The following communication from the City Clerk and Treasurer was read: To the Honorable Board of Audit and Finance.

GENTLEMEN—In compliance with the request to furnish your Board with polls listed and paid for the year 1889, the number is as follows: Listed—white polls 1,806; colored polls, 1,092. Paid—white polls, 702; colored, 174.

I would also state that for the preceding year, 1888, there was listed: 1282 white, 1447 colored polls, and of which 671 whites and 137 colored paid.

It was moved and carried that the report of the City Treasurer be referred to the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, with the suggestion that they devise some means to increase the collection of poll taxes.

The Board adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

The National Cemetery.

A Petersburg (Va.) letter in the Richmond Times says: "Mr. H. C. Lacy, who for many years past has been the keeper of the National Cemetery at Poplar Grove, in Dinwiddie county, Va., received instructions on yesterday from Washington to take charge of the National Cemetery at Wilmington, N. C. He will leave for Wilmington the 1st of next month, and will take his family with him."

"Woman is Born for Love"
And it is impossible to turn her from seeking it."

ONE OF THEIR MANY LOVES IS THE love of dress, and it is just as impossible to keep the needle from seeking the magnet as it is to keep the women from seeking the store that displays the largest and handsomest line of Dress Fabrics.

We have been crowded since our Advertisement appeared in Sunday's STAR. It was evidently a bright and shining STAR to many who had a

Spring & Summer Dress
IN VIEW.

Generally every one drops into a state of ignorance of the hurry and bustle of an Easter offering. It must certainly require a powerful magnet to draw the ladies out for a few days after Easter, but we possess the magnet, whose combined forces
