First Baptist Church,

The meetings at the First Baptist Church have grown in interest through the week, and will be continued next week. Rev. W. B. Oliver, who has done the preaching, has done it admirably well, and the congregations have been large. He will occupy his pulpit in Fayetteville to-morrow, but will return on Monday and preach through the week. Dr. Pritchard will fill his own pulpit as usual on Sunday morning and night.

Weather Forecasts. The following are the forecasts for to-

For Virginia, fair Saturday and Sunday, slightly colder, northwesterly winds. For North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, fair, stationary temperatures northerly winds.

CELEBRATION ECHOES.

The thanks of the public are due Mr. R. N. Sweet for the taste which he displayed in decorating the banquet hall.

Many of our country cousins heard the graphophone for the first time while in our city, and all thought it was im-

The Germania Band received many compliments for the admirable manner in which they rendered their selections at the banquet. It was Mr. W. F. Carter of Mount Airy, not of Mecklenburg, who delivered that telling speech in reply to the toast "Our Guests." Nearly all of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley visitors left yesterday morning, and each and every one said he was delighted with his reception. Mr. E. H. Smith, manager of the Orton furnished the supper at the banquet and is to be congratulated upon the smoothness and dispatch with which all

Our friends along the Cape Fear and Yadkın Valley must come to see us again soon; the people of Wilmington enjoyed their visit and will always give them a cordial reception.

The banquet wound up by a toast in song by Capt. W. H. Bixby, which was as follows: 'Here's to good luck and to the success Of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley road, And to the men who are here to-day, And to their ladies so far away, And to their fine girls,

And to their fine boys, Their farms, mines and forests, Their business, their homes; We hope they will prosper and gather in wealth, We'll give them our hands, And we'll drink to their health, Let's up with our glasses And drink to their health. Hurrah!"

WILMINGTON PRESBYTERY.

Reports on Education-Foreign Missions -The State of Religion-A Visit from Dr. Chas. F. Deems. Wilmington Presbytery assembled

The report of Rev. Dr. B. F. Marable on Education awakened an animated discussion of that subject, and brought out some very practical thoughts. The report was adopted. Foreign Missions, on the report of Rev. J. W. Primrose, gave the opportunity, which was duly taken advantage of, and some excellent and soul-rending addresses were made.

The venerable Dr. Chas. F. Deems, pastor of the Church of the Strangers of New York city, casually dropped in and was heartily invited to sit as a visiting brother. Dr. Deems, in responding, in very touching terms referred to times when he was a pastor in this city. Rev. K. McDonald and Ruling Elder T. D. Currie were elected delegates to the General Assembly; Rev. A. McFadven and Elder I. R. Faison, alternates. The Committee on the Narrative on the State of Religion in the bounds of the Presbytery reported encouragingly. Oak Plain Church is to be the place of the next meeting, and Thursday before the third Sabbath in October the

The Presbytery adopted the Revised Directory, with the request that the forms for burial and marriage be separated therefrom and recommitted for perfection.

Very little of importance remains to be done, and the Presbytery will adjourn to-night.
