Smith's Island or "Bald Head."

The Raleigh News-Observer says that the option for the purchase of Bald Head (recently mentioned here) was lows: taken by Col. R. M. Evans for Congressman Reyburn of Philadelphia, and adds: "The island is well adapted for a hotel and summer resort, and Mr. Reyburn proposes to build an elegant hotel there, and lay out the island into town lots, making a pleasure resort and watering place similar to Atlantic City or Cape May. It will also be connected to 20c. with a main land point by a railroad. The 'Bald Head' lighthouse is situated on this Island."
