Some of the Republican Congressmen are mad with Chaplain Milburn because he prayed the other day that they might be cured of the habit of swearing. There is no occasion for their anger for it would take a great deal more than Mr. Milburn's prayers to cure them of their bad pet habits.

Some one who has been figuring upon it, finds that there were 14,770 murders committed in this country within the past six years, and that only 558 murderers paid the penalty with their lives. Whether he kept a record of Judge Lynch's court, is

Of course the tariff on wool fosters the wool-growing industry. In 1867 there were in Iowa 2,399,425 sheep. Now, after the protection that wool has had during all these years, there are 540,700 sheep. There are not so many protectionists either.

Two years ago Mr. Reed believed in a free and full discussion of the tariff question and suggested ten days for each side, twenty days, as a reasonable time. Now he thinks four days enough. Tom has developed very rapidly as a forgetter.

Kansas City was one of the big boom cities a couple years ago. A recent number of the Times contained twenty-three columns of trustees' sales. Booms do pretty well for a spurt, but they haven't got the staying qualities in them.

Mr. Burrows says it is a "theory not a condition that confronts us. have paid $150,000,000 annually in pensions for a few years, they will conclude that it is a condition that confronts them.

When the clause on beans is reached in the discussion of the tariff bill if the Boston delegation does not come boldly to the scratch and show their claws we shall lose our respect for beans as an invigorating diet.

Carnegie believes that protection is a great boon. He has made $56,-000,000 in twenty-six years. The men who worked for him, who are not dead, are about where they were twenty-six years ago.

If a partial prohibition of imports is a good thing for the American people, why wouldn't a total prohibition be better? The protectionists should go for prohibition of imports, pure and simple.

Boss Quay says he is not going to resign the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee while 'under fire." But he seems to take mighty good care not to return the

MEMORIAL DAY.

An Old Soldier Suggests that the Address be Delivered in the Opera House.

The wish is unanimously expressed that the memorial address next Tuesday, by the Hon. Chas. M. Stedman, on the life of Gen. William MacRae, be de-

The reasons for this are manifold. Much care, time and patience have been expended on this effort, and it is but justice to the speaker to give him the advantage of the place best suited to the proper delivery of the oration. Speaking in the open air is at best very trying, and should the wind be blowing, much of the pleasure of the speech would be lost. There are many who wish to hear this ration in its entirety; and wish, also, to By the time the American people | 768 casks spirits of turpentine and 3,262 | hear it in comfort, and freed from the barrels rosin, valued at $18,197, and noise and bustle incident to a crowd shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing gathered in the open air. This end cannot be obtained by having it delivered at the cemetery, The committee - Mr. J. B. Hanks left yesterday | will find no difficulty in arranging the programme so as to have this speech at the Opera House, where all in a quiet, dignified way can listen to the speaker, as he reveals the salient points in the June. Mr. Hanks is well known as character of the dashing, brave and gallant son of the Cape Fear, Gen.

William MacRae. AN OLD SOLDIER.

THE BOY MURDERER. Avery Butler Sentenced to be Hanged on July 11th.

The boy Avery Butler, who shot and killed his father near Clinton, N. C., a short time ago and whose trial took place this week, has been sentenced to be hanged on the 11th of July next. The Caucasian says: "Upon the recommendation of the jury that the sentence be commuted to twenty years in the penitentiary, the Judge and Solicitor will ask the Governor for clemency, as the boy was convicted only on circumstantial evidence. He is 16 years of age, but looks not older that 10 years. It is said that the jury, before leaving the box, stood ten for conviction and two for acquittal. It is also rumored that his mother urged him to commit the murder, she being tired of her husband, who was in the habit of spending his idle hours in the company of other women. The boy intended to make a clean breast of the whole affair while on the stand, but the Judge overruled it."

The Wilson Short Cut. The Favetteville Observer says: "The engineer corps of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, Mr. Latta in command, arrived here on Monday evening last, and it is their design to commence work immediately on the southern extension of the Wilson & Fayetteville branch of the great Coast Line system. Their objective point will be Rowland, with a total distance of about forty miles to complete the Southern through connections; and, after some finishing up of the location of the line, we may expect grading and construction to commence in earnest."

Seaman's Bethel. Services to-morrow, (Sunday), at 3.30 p. m. Preaching by Rev. W.S. Creasy. All are cordially invited to attend. Captains of vessels are urgently requested to read this notice to their crews and urge their attendance at these services, which are especially for seamen.

Independent Order of Samaritans.

The various lodges of the order of Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria have been invited to turn ou with the Mt. Zion Lodge Sunday afternoon. They will meet at the lodge room on Princess street between Front and Second at 2 o'clock p. m., and march thence to the Central Baptist Church, where after a sermon, there will be a "grand rally" for the new church building.

Saw Mill Burned. A fire yesterday at Spout Springs, on the C. F. & Y. V. railroad, about 17 miles above Fayetteville, destroyed the extensive saw mill belonging to Mr. W. J. McDiarmid, together with a large quantity of lumber and eight box cars loaded with lumber for Northern markets. The fire broke out about midnight. The cause is unknown.
