DON'T GIVE UP

The use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. One bottle may not cure "right off" a complaint of years : persist until a cure is effected. As a reneral rule, improvement follows shortly after beginning the use of this medicine. With many people, the effect is immediately neticeable, but some constitutions are less sceptible to medicinal influences than thers, and the curative process may, thereand in such cases, be less prompt. Perserange in using this remedy is sure of its poward at last. Sooner or later, the most stubbern blood diseases yield to

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

For several years, in the spring months, I used to be troubled with a drowsy, tired feeling, and a dull pain in the small of my tack so bad, at times, as to prevent my reing able to walk, the least sudden motion causing me severe distress. Frequently, neils and rashes would break out on various parts of the body. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

-Morganton Herald: Died, April I1th, 1890, on Irish Creek, Burke county, Mr. James R. Kincaid, aged 90

-Ashville Citisen: Master Greeley Westall, aged 18 years, son of Major T. C. Westall, who so mysteriously disappeared on April 24th, has been heard from. He is at Boston enioying good health and says that he is happy.

-Salisbury Watchman: The arrangement between the Yadkin Railroad Company and the Penitentiary authorities, spoken of last week, has been completed. After the adjustment of some matters of detail a heavy force of convicts will be placed on the line between Albemarle & Norwood.

- Charlotte News: Mr. Archibald Little died at his home at Triangle, near Cowan's Ford at 9 o'clock last night. He was 45 years old. - Mr. . F. Wiswell, who is working the Hemby mine in Union county, has struck a valuable vein. The ore pans out finely. The mine is to be worked more energetically than ever, preparations having been made to increase the capacity of the plant,

- Chatham Record: There will be very few peaches in Chatham this year. --- A novel method of plowing was that recently adopted by a darkey in this county. His steer refused to work when hitched to the plow, and thereupon he hitched it to a cart and fastening the plow behind the cart he proceeded to plow the steer without any further trouble. - About three weeks ago a dog supposed to be mad passed through the Mud Lick section of Albright township, and bit several hogs and dogs. Last week a hog that was bitten by the dog and was supposed to be suffering with hydrophobia was killed. Several dogs in the neighborhood have been killed for fear that they would have hydrophobia.

- Winston Daily: Mr. Aleck Peddicord, who drives the 'bus for Messrs. Buford & Wall, and George Hickerson, colored, who holds a similar position with Mr. R. M. McArthur, got into a fight a few days ago over where their teams should stand at the new R. & D. depot. By accident Peddicord got one of his fingers in Hickerson's mouth, and the result was that the former's finger was nearly bitten off. Since then Peddicord has been unable to work and in fact the doctors say that the injury is a serious one. His arm is swollen and it is thought that amputation will be necessary to save his life. - Messrs. P. H. Hanes & Co. have contracted with Messrs. Miller Bros. for the largest tobacco factory, and in fact the largest uilding ever erected in either Winston

- Wadesboro - Hossenger-Intelligencer: The grip, whooping cough, choleramorbus and diarrhœa have had a good hold on the citizens of Polkton, - Fifty-two tracts of land were sold by Sheriff McGregor last Monday in default of taxes for 1889. While in that condition he lay down on the track of the C. & S. Railroad near the Four Mile Branch and was run over by the passenger train due in Wadesboro Wednesday night at 11 o'clock. He died from the injuries received the next day.

with a front of 114 feet.

 Goldsboro Headlight: Avery Butler, the boy that shot and killed his father near Clifton a few weeks ago, was put on trial at Clinton on Wednesday, and on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, the jury, after being out two hours, returned a verdict of "guilty," whereupon Judge Graves sentenced him to be hanged on July 11th. Upon the recommendation of the jury that the sentence shall be commuted to twenty years in the penitentiary, the Judge and Solicitor will ask the Governor for clemency, as the boy was convicted only on circumstantial evidence. He is sixteen years of age, but looks not more than ten years. W. R. Allen, Esq., of this city, and D. B. Nicholson, of Clinton, defended the prisoner. It is said that the jury before leaving the box stood ten for conviction and two for acquittal. It is also rumored that his mother urged him to commit the murder, she being tired of her husband, who was in the habit of spending his idle hours in the company of other women. The boy intended to make a clean breast of the whole affair while on the stand, but the Judge over-
