THE LIGHT INFANTRY.

Arrival and Reception of the Prize Winners from Charlotte. The Wilmington Light Infantry arrived here yesterday morning at eight o'clock and there was a large crowd of people at the depot to welcome our boys home.

Mayor Fowler, who came with the Light Infantry from Charlotte, being called upon, stated in a few well-chosen words that our company had borne off the honors in the competitive drill.

The company was met at the depot by the white fire companies and a procession was formed, headed by a platoon of police under Capt. R. M. Capps, and the Kingston Cornet Band (colored) which was engaged for the occasion, followed by the Atlantic Engine Company with hose reel, and each man carrying a new broom on his shoulder.

The procession moved up Water street to Mulberry, from Mulberry to Front, down Front to Market, and from Market to Third, then to the armory at the City Hall.

Arriving at the City Hall three volleys were fired, after which the company marched into the armory, deposited their arms and were dismissed. Capt. Kenan received the following telegram from Capt. John B. Broadfoot, of the Fayetteville Independent Company:

"The F. I. L. I. extends hearty congratulations to the W. L. I. on their Charlotte victory. We knew you would do it." Capt. Kenan set the following reply: "The W. L. I. returns sincere thanks to the F. I. L. I. for their kind words."

The members express themselves as delighted with their trip and say they will always remember with pleasure the many courtesies extended to them by the hospitable people of Charlotte. Our people are proud of the victory obtained by the Wilmington Light Infantry, and the company cannot fail to be greatly gratified at the enthusiastic welcome which was tendered to them on their return home.

CHARLOTTE CELEBRATION.

EDITOR STAR.—The 20th of May, 1890, anniversary at Charlotte, in commemoration of one of the most important events that has ever transpired within this good old State, will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to witness the stirring events of the day, and to participate in the festivities so generously offered by the citizens of the historic old town.

The chief features of the first day were the contest for prizes by four of the best drilled military companies of the State Guard, the trades display represented on "floats" paraded through the streets and the match game of base ball between the Charlotte and Columbia nines. The chief interest, however, seemed to be devoted to the contest between the military companies, commencing at 9 o'clock.

The first company to drill was the Governor's Guard, of Raleigh, followed respectively by the Wilmington, Charlotte and Monroe companies. The judges selected being experienced officers of the United States Army, every one was satisfied that no partiality would be shown and the prizes would be awarded according to excellence of drill.

The feeling was quickly instilled, in the officers and men alike, that every effort must be made to drill well and the result was an unusually high record for each company, the percentage being as follows, as announced by the judges: Wilmington Light Infantry... 93 per cent. Charlotte... 89 per cent. Governor's Guard, Raleigh... 83 per cent.

When the announcement was made by Capt. J. C. Morrison, who acted as Col. Anthony's Adjutant, the people shouted and hurraied their approval, and we could not help observing how enthusiastic every one seemed at our success. There certainly seems to be a band of sympathy existing between the Charlotte and the Wilmington people, and there is a great pleasure in feeling that we have such a whole-souled, generous and hospitable people for our friends.

Much credit is due to our Wilmington boys, under command of Capt. Kenan, for having executed the entire programme in eighteen minutes—about three minutes less than the next best, and about seven minutes quicker than the slowest.

THE LIGHT INFANTRY.

temanly deportment. Altogether, it was an unusually interesting drill, inasmuch as it proved that North Carolina boys can accomplish almost anything when put to the test.

There is one thing we beg to say, and that is no better officers exist in the State Guard than Col. J. T. Anthony and Capt. T. R. Robertson. They are thoroughly posted in all military matters, fulfilling their respective positions with that supreme sense of duty only found in the true soldier and at the same time treating every one with that courtesy only found in the true gentleman.

The annual meeting of the Ladies Memorial Association was held, as announced, at Atlantic Hall, Tuesday afternoon. Reports of the President and Treasurer of the Association were read and the following resolutions were adopted.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to confer with the President of the Children's Memorial Association and requesting that officer to use her influence towards merging that Association into the Ladies', with reduced entrance fees. The Children's Association having been organized with a view to this end.

Resolved also, That whereas in the coming year the 10th of May falls on Sunday, the services, being entirely of a religious character, be postponed, as on a former occasion, but be held as usual; that a clergyman be invited to address the people in a manner suitable for Sunday. Also, that the regular annual Historical Address be delivered by an orator not yet selected for the occasion; that said oration shall be delivered in the Opera House on some evening as early as possible after Memorial Day. Proceeds of address to be donated to the Medallion Fund, to be erected in memory of our Chief and President.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President—Miss Hettie James. Vice President—Mrs. John J. Hedrick. Treasurer—Mrs. Kate DeR. Meares. Managers—Mrs. John Cantwell, Mrs. William A. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A Question of Economy. THE CONTEST FOR THE LEADERSHIP IN THE DRY GOODS BUSINESS OF THIS CITY has perhaps never been greater than during the past year. HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS have been spent in advertising, and competition has been the life of trade.

A little friendly rivalry has only served to make trade more brisk. After a very busy and successful season, BROWN & RODDICK, No. 9 North Front Street, STILL MAINTAIN THEIR OLD POSITION AS THE LEADING RETAIL DRY GOODS HOUSE OF THIS CITY.

The contest by different firms for new business, and the energy exerted in consummating that end has only served to make BROWN & RODDICK consequently desirable as a place to trade at. The public at large realize the advantage of trading with a house whose good name is already established and whose word is their bond. They have found out that it is simply a question of economy after all to trade where satisfaction is guaranteed. Come again. My truly, J. A. BROWN, Manager.
