To City Subscribers, delivered in any part of

OUTLINES.

The Senate yesterday was principally coupled in the consideration of the Naval Appropriation bill, and a number amendments adopted, but no final acthe was reached; the credentials of Mr. Carlisle as Senator from Kentucky, in place of Mr. Beck, were presented; the Hease debated the River and Harbor the proposed Hennepin canal restrong the most attention; eulogies were delivered on the late Representative Wilber, of New York. - Several counties in Kentucky and s the more southern counties in West Virginia were swept by a tornado the law aight; thousands of dollars' worth damage was done, and it is feared the pas some loss of life; the play of these and the peals of thunder were ippalling. - The mother of Speaker the House of Representatives. its if unexpectedly yesterday morning, at are it me near Portland, Me.: the Speaktests for his home to-day. -- The presists students who assaulted two lathe Russian Embassy at Constanapple, were turned over to the Turkish promptly sentenced them to six months' impisonment and to a banished to Tripoli for life; the Rusan Ambassador expresses himself as talls, satisfied with the prompt action of Furkish government. - Billiugs, Montana, was visited early Priday mornbe with two shocks of earthquake; two hak houses were shaken down and such other damage was done; the in-. bitants were greatly alarmed. -The Sorthern Presbyterian General Asamibly, in session at Baratoga, has passed mammously, by a rising yote, the plant for the appointment of a Re-. New York markets: $5 mey easy, closing at 8 per ent.; cotton Jull; middling uplands 12 ac; middling Oricans 12 9-16c; south-

1013c at elevator, May 34c; rosin steady; -mrits turpentine quiet at 371/2c. The relations between "conduit "Bynum and his glass-blowing stituent, Campbell, who got him such a mess, must be somewhat ern flour dull and easy; wheat dull and tower; No. 2 red 97% c at elevator; corn moderately active but weaker; No. 2,

the general impression is that the I Know bill when it gets through parking in the Senate will look medicing like a chicken interviewed or a valone.

A A storn paper says the best paythe farmer can engage in serious winter apples. If he has think in raising apples he may is law it up by raising mortgages.

ille Vassar girls are level-headed. that it seventy-nine asked fifty-one the for turiff reform, twenty-one for for trade, and only seven timid enough to acknowledge that they visited protection.

Partition now Kemmler won't obwas much to being electrocised since he has discovered that the same shock that sends him off will not at the same time shock the constitution of he United States.

M - Kate Kane, of Chicago, who - leen admitted to practise in the U. Supreme Court, the eighth w man on the list, can bewilder a they as live languages, English, Ital-11. Spanish French and German.

fugalls says the purification of the is "an iridescent dream." The hansas farmers seem to be indulging as little of this iridescent dreaming at I propose to try their hand on a line ingails to see how it pans

Southern Illinois farmers are very much discouraged by the bad outlook for wheat. But the Illinois farmers should not be discouraged. When they get that bounty on coconsistey will be all right whether wheat grows or not.

Mr. Pillsbury of Kansas City, is a and blooded hustler. He wormed won at Charlotte on the 20th. It always homself into the artless confidence of gives me special pleasure to hear good news from the Wilmington Light Infanan English syndicate and sold them try, and I wish I could have been near enough to have tossed my hat in the air d great system of flour mills for a big pile of money, and then turns found and builds a similar system to fun opposition to the confiding syn-

There are eleven hundred miles of levees on the lower Mississippi. In 1582 there were 284 breaks, but the tle, Mary McAllister, Josephine Mcsystem has been so strengthened Bryde, Lily Sims, Jennie Vardell and since that in the recent flood there were only 23 breaks, the aggregate length of the breaks being only five miles. But these were enough to flood one-third of the State of Lou- for the Blackfish grounds. Fish are him a rising vote of thanks and refresh-

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLVI.--NO. 55.

One of the handsomest and best gotten up trade and industrial issues which we have seen in a long time has just been issued by the Statesville Landmark. It contains twenty.

four five-column pages, handsomely illustrated, under illustrated cover, and is full of compact, well arranged,

and well compiled information about Statesville and Iredell county. It is a work of value, and reflects credit not only on Joe Caldwell, who did it, but on the town and county for

The day before the vote was taken on the McKinley tariff bill a delegation of manufacturers visited Washington and urged that the bill go into effect thirty days after its passage, instead of January 1, as pro-prosed by some. McKinley favored this, and the reason was the man-facturers for whom McKinley was working were afraid, if January 1

was fixed as the date, the merchants would load up with foreign goods

If Benjamin Harrison ever had a large stock of courtesy and manners

he left them at home when he came to Washington, A committee of gentlemen from Baltimore called on him last week to invite him to be present at the Charities convention, when he rudely turned his back on them and churlishly informed them that he didn't have time to talk to

Rev. E. E. Jackson, colored, who rent a house, such as he would live in, because people up there would not live in a house which had been occupied by colored people, and for that reason house owners declined to rent to them. But there is no prejudice against the negro in Hartford-while he remains in the South.

Mr. Mckinley estimates that his tariff bill will reduce the revenues on imports $60,936,536 and on internal revenue $10,327,878, a total of $71,-

264,414, but Mr. McKinley when asked didn't know how many lamp chimneys were imported. Treasury experts calculate that the new tariff will increase the revenue about $40,-

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. D. NUTT-Open all day,

STAR OFFICE-Babbitt metal.

FISHING EXCURSION-Tuesday.

OPERA HOUSE-Merry Company.

H. L. FENNELL—Sales increasing.

J. G. Burk-Notice to tax-payers.

Brown & Roddick-Outing cloth.

J. H. HARDIN-Toilet soaps cheap.

TAYLOR'S BAZAAR-Time is money.

KIRKHAM & Co.-Auction Tuesday.

MARKET COMMITTEE-Bids wanted.

E. J. PENNYPACKER-Sealed proposals

MASONIC-Meeting Concord Chapter.

GILES & MURCHISON-Grain condenser

CRONLY & MORRIS-Lots at auction.

CRONLY & MORRIS-Sale desirable

At a meeting of the "drummers" last night, topics relative to the development of Wilmington as a commercial mart were discussed by many of its most Committees were appointed to enable the Association to come before the jobbing merchants, not as a body seeking,

but asking co-operation in sharing mu-

Such an organization as those who look into the future of our commerce would strive to perfect, deserves the most generous endorsement of our job-

Capt. W. R. Kenan received the following letter from one of the prominent men of Clinton in regard to the success

DEAR SIR:-I desire to congratulate

Commencement exercises of Charlotte

Female Institute begin Monday, June

2d. The graduates are Misses Eloise

Butt. Nona Caldwell, Mattie Cochrane,

Sadie Gaither, Mattie Harris, Sallie Lit-

The steamer Passport will leave at 5 a, m. sharp Tuesday, the 28th inst.

you and your company upon the honors

CLINTON, N. C., May 23.1890.

The Commercial Travellers.

wide-awake travelling men.

bing houses.

More Congratulations.

wot. W. R. Kenan.

over their success.

Mary Graham.

Blackfish Excursion.

Charlotte Female Institute.

of the W. L. I. at Charlotte:

and cut down their profits.

which it was done.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, MAY 25, 1890.

WHOLE NO. 7,380

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

- The mercury was up to 92 degrees on "the wharf" yesterday at 3 p. m. - Strawberries were selling in market yesterday at 10 and 121/2 cents a

- Fair for the round trip on the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad to-day

- Four interments are reported for the past week. One in Oakdale, two in Bellevue and one in Pine Forest - Marriage licenses for six couples -two white and four colored, were issued the past week by the Register of Deeds. - Dr. F. M. Potter, Superintendent of Health, who is on a visit to Birmingham, Alabama, will return home about the first of June. - Col. James G. Burr gives notice that he will be at the City Hall Monday June 2nd and every day thereafter until the 1st of July, to receive the

- The regular services at the Seaman's Bethel will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Primrose at half past three o'clock to-day. The Bethel is well ventilated and cool. Sailors welcome.

- The Jewish festival of the Pentecost began yesterday evening at sunset. The feast is commemorative of the first offerings of the Temple, and the delivery of the laws to the Children of Israel by God on Mount Sinai.

- Dr. T. H. Pritchard, after attending the Southern Baptist Convention in Fort Worth, Texas, and visiting relatives in Crockett, Texas, and New Ormoved to Hartford, Conn., couldn't | leans, returned Friday night last, and will occupy his pulpit to-day at 11 a. m.

> - Col. A. D. Jenkins and family who have been visiting his father-inlaw, Dr. Pritchard, tor the last three months, will leave to-morrow for New York and Saratoga. Mrs. Jenkins will sing for the last time in her father's church to-day.

> - Yesterday was the first half year of the organization of the Gleaves Hardware Company. The event was celebrated by an elegant supper at the Hammocks at which numerous toasts were drank and responded to, and all present had a royal good time.

- The Saturday excursions to Carolina Beach are immensely popular with the people. Probably the largest number that has visited that place this season went down on the Sylvan Grove vesterday. There could not have been less than five hundred on the boat when she returned in the evening.

-- The Cotton Region Bulletin reports a maximum temperature of 92° at Raleigh and Florence yesterday. 94 at Cheraw, 90° at Wilmington, Charlotte and Goldsboro, 88° at Wadesboro and Weldon, and 86° at Newbern. The minimum in [this district ranged from 60° at Newbern to 68° at Goldsboro and

SUNDAY SERVICES.

CRONLY & MORRIS-Sale unimp'd lots Brooklyn Baptist Church, Rev. R. E Peele, Pastor. Preaching to-day at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday School at 3.30 p. m. Public cordially invited.

St. James-Whitsunday-11 a. m., Morning Prayer and Holy Communion; 4.30 p. m., Sunday School; 6 p. m.,

Evening Prayer. Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-day: Morning Prayer at 9 o'clock; Litany, Sermon and Confirmation at 11 o'clock, with celebration of the Holy Communion; Evening Prayer and Sermon, the Rector officiating, at 8 p. m; Sunday School at 5 p, m. Seats free at all services.

Rev. Mr. Arnold will hold services at St. Paul's Mission, corner Sixth and Queen streets, at 3.30 p. m.

The Lutheran Christian Association will meet to-day at 4.30 p. m., in Luther Memorial Building.

Rev. F. W. E. Peschau will preach today in Luther Memorial Building at 11 a. m., in German, and at 8 p. m. in Services will be held at St. James' Home this evening at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Rev. J. P. King will administer the ordinance of baptism at the foot of Queen street, at 4 p. m. to-day.

Services at the First Baptist Church (colored) to-day as follows: Preaching at 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. Snnday School at 1 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all, by Rev. F. H. Hill, Knights of Pythias.

The Raleigh News and Observer says: Grand Chancellor Thos. D. Meares paid a visit Friday night to Phalanx Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of this city, and was given a handsome reception at the rooms of the Lodge. About seventy- and this is the secret of his success with five of the members were present and Grand Chancellor Meares delivered a highly entertaining and instructive lecture, after which the Lodge tendered to him with various criticisms, accordbiting finely, and good sport is promised. I ments were served.

SAM JONES.

Opinions of Wilmington Ministers in Regard to His Methods.

A STAR reporter interviewed the ministers of this city in regard to Sam Jones, and the following expressed opinions:

REV. P. H. HOGE, D. D., FIRST PRESBY-TERIAN CHURCH.

I am opposed to the proposed visit of Mr. Jones for the following reasons: 1. Because the language that he uses and the anecdotes that he tells lower the dignity of the pulpit, debase the public taste, and present a corrupting and pernicious example to our youth. Although such a style may attract some classes of hearers, it does not attract them to good, while it cultivates a taste for sensation and amusement that makes people impatient of the sober, serious presentation of Gospel truth, I know we are told that one cannot judge from the newspaper reports-that these things | REV. T. H. PRITCHARD, D. D., FIRST BAPdo not make the same impression when heard in connection with much of good that is not reported; but no one denies that these things are said, and it is a question whether it is right for a man to place himself where the glamour of genius and the power of personal magnetism will make him condone what he cannot approve, and apologize for that which his better judgment condemns.

2. Because of the danger of confusing the mind as to what constitutes the elements of a true revival of religion. The idea seems to be, "Let's get Sam Jones and have a revlval." So people are appealed to to subscribe on any and every sort of ground, with the expectation that if he comes, by whomsoever called, and with whatever motives, a revival will follow. Those who know the inner history of the Pearson movement know the months of earnest thought and prayer that were given to the preparations for the meeting, and how carefully we strove to follow every leading of Divine Providence, and to eliminate every element that was not of God. Everybody knows the result. But to fit up a tabernacle and get an evangelist does not secure a revival. The cold facts of the Charlotte meeting seem to amount to about this A great deal of excitement, enormous crowds, plenty of fun, a good deal of money raised under the stimulus of applause, a great many good resolutions publicly made, very few additions to the churches, and nothing at all like a general revival of spirituality. 3. Because of his depreciation of the Ministry and the Church. Nobody knows our short-comings as we do our selves; no one, I am sure, mourns them more. But most of us can claim that we are honestly and faithfully trying to do the Master's work. Without the patient seed-sowing of the regular ministry, Mr. Jones would not be able to have his meetings at all. And it is a sight to make angels weep to see a man who has none of the difficulties, trials and hardships of the regular ministry, who is at the very moment reaping the fruits of their labours, and getting more salary in a week than most of them get in a year. stand up in the presence of their people and hold them up to contempt for their unfaithfulness, and ridicule the small results of their ministry. What good will it do to gather large numbers in from the masses, if they come into the church with the idea that all the preachers are afraid to speak their minds for fear of imperilling their salaries, and that all the churches are too corrupt for an "honest" man like Sam Jones to be willing to minister to them? Discredit the Ministry and the Church and what have you to depend on for the salvation of the community? Sam Jones can't do it all, even if you take him at his own estimate. 4. Because, as a conscientious Presbyterian, I cannot endorse a man who makes a point of caricaturing and ridiculing what to me are the most precious truths of God's Word. Those who know how earnestly I have striven for Christian unity and co-operation, will not need from me a disclaimer of prejudice against Mr. Jones merely because he is a Methodist. Neither have I any objection to his conscientiously preaching what he believes. But I maintain that to hold up to ridicule in a union meeting the distinctive doctrines of other churches, is an outrage on propriety and an offence against Christian fellowship. Mr. Pearson was the representative of a Church that occupies an intermediate position between the Methodist and Presbyterian, He preached the Gospel, as he understood it, fearlessly and without compromise. But he did not attack, much less cericature and ridicule the doctrines of either. I have no objection to my people hearing all sides. But I would be unfaithful to them if by my participation in this movement I exposed them to the disturbing influences of senseless slanders and of the very doctrines that I preach to them, solemnly, conscientiously and in the fear of God.

For whatever good Mr. Jones has done in the awakening of the conscience and experience of hidden evils, I am devoully thankful. But it is our duty to look at both sides and weigh the evil with the good. And weighed in these balances Mr. Jones is, in my judgment, found wanting.

REV. H. B. ANDERSON, BLADEN STREET M. E. CHURCH.

I have been asked to express my views of the noted evangelist, the Rev. Sam P. Jones. The space allotted me, dorse him—for this I most emphatically do. I heard him three weeks at Nash- what I may say is based upon knowpure evangelist in the world, I unhesitatingly pronounce that man Sam Jones. of the upstart or crank. He preaches no vain theory, he offers no new gospel, but stands firm upon the teachings of Christ in the Gospels. He fails in no point to declare the whole counsel of God and he declares it with the force of conviction. He talked like he believed what he said. His words have authority,

Much has been said, and is still being said, in praise of him. The masses listen ing to their prejudices, but all love to of my acquaintance. The lifting of his hear him. The educated and refined are hand is the wave of the magician's rod, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

as eager as the coarse and uneducated and all understand what he says. He never fails to convince his hearers that he is called of God to "this office and ministry." I have heard divines from various cities over the Union, and I pronounce this man the most wonderful man it has ever been my pleasure to hear. He is famous and has gotten his fame honest-

Saturday night, if you "don't quit your meanness," than any other man. After all this, do you still ask if Jones' work is superficial? Well, I will say one of his sermons did more to influence my life for good and made me want "a closer

ly. You never think of calling him a walk with God" than any other sermon, save one by Bishop Key a few years ago In conclusion, I would say, let those who are prejudiced against him say as little as possible, and they will have the less to take back when Jones comes to Wilmington, for they will be delighted with him when they hear him,

In reply to your request to know whether I wish Sam Jones to hold meetings in Wilmington, I have to say that after mature reflection, I see no reason to modify my views of the preaching of this celebrated evangelist, as copied in the STAR from "Charity and Children," of which I am an editor; except in one particular I regret the use of one expression in that article-that in which I profess a want of confidence in the converts of Sam. Jones. With this single exception I reaffirm and with emphasis what was then said in condemnation of his peculiar style of preaching, and this I do after having received many letters and marked newspaper articles commending or sharply criticising my article, and some of them abusing me personally in no very measured terms.

Joe. Caldwell, one of the first editors in North Carolina, gave in his paper, the Statesville Landmark, the following opinion of Sam Jones: "That man of God, the Reverend Samuel D. Jones, is in Charlotte at this time, justifying the ways of God to men. Up to last evening he had called the people of that devoted city hounds, lousy calves oles, and had said of the best people dwell on earth), that they would not be way on the street instead of in a "tabernacle" he would get both eyes blacked and be sent to the rock-pile." Now, I say in all deliberation, that the man who talks that way in the pulpit is "bully," a "blackguard" and a "vulgarian," and these are not the coarsest and most vulgar things he said by a good deal. I do not say that I would not hear Sam Jones if I had the opportunity, nor do I say that I might not change my views of the man were I to hear him-but these things are grossly wrong, and demoralizing, and must result in harm to the cause of true religion, and I feel it my solemn duty to protest against them.

REV. W. S. CREASY, GRACE M. E

In answer to the enquiry as to what I think of Rev. Sam. P. Jones, I would say: I have heard him preach several sermons, and would repeat what has been often said, that cold type never has and never can give anything like a true idea of the man and the preacher. He must be heard, and when once heard will never be forgotten. His preaching s positive, and either draws men near him, or drives them from him. But where he has been, the number of those from all classes drawn to him are very largely in the majority. Judging from the standard erected by the Scriptures 'If the work be of man it will come to naught, but of God it must prevail," he has his commission from on high.

I regard him as a great and good man. I thank God for the good he has accomplished, and humbly pray the blessings of heaven to rest upon his labors, and all who are working for the salvation of souls.

REV. ROBERT STRANGE, ST. JAMES'

EPISCOPAL CHURCH. I heartly endorse what Dr. Pritchard wrote of "Sam" Jones some weeks ago I admire directness, fearlessness and simplicity in the pulpit, but abuse and vulgarity degrade the preacher and insult the hearer. I have never heard Mr. Jones, and I base my opinion on hearsay and the reports of the newspapers They show him to be a man of abusive tongue and irrascible temper. A man with such characteristics-whatever be his abilities—I should not like to see set forth as an example of what a follower of Christ ought to be. Sound doctrine, Christian charity and courtesy, seem woefully lacking in his preaching. I do not judge his motives, but a man who makes by preaching over two thousand dollars in one week, lays himself open to the charge of preaching for money, and so brings discredit on the Gospel of Christ. REV. R. C. BEAMAN, FIFTH STREET M. E

I have been asked to give my opinion of the great evangelist, the Rev. Sam P. Jones. I have no opinion. I might say something of my estimate of this weird thrilling, startling voice, crying in the wilderness and the market places "quit your meanness'-a voice that has hurled itself across this continent in tones like the thunders of God, something however, is so small that I can but en- with the same terrific power upon the brated comic opera at the Opera House, ville, Tenn., in the beginning of his | ledge and personal contact with the evangelistic work. If there is a simon- man. And (1) he is a man, a plain, natural man; a man who eats and sleeps and talks and laughs like other men; he There is nothing about him that savors | is the people's man-not a theologue walking on stilts-but a loving, brotherly, spmpathetic man. He is withal a high-toned, chivalrous, heroic man. (2) He has the courage of his convictions, a rare quality in most men, and he expresses his convictions in language which the people can understand. (3) He hates a mean thing with greater intensity of soul than any man I have ever known. (4) He is the most thorough master of assemblies I have ever listened to. He has more of that strange something we call personal magnetism than any man and one comes under the spell of his speech he knows not precisely how. (5) In preaching he has the boldness of John the Baptist, the tenderness of John the Disciple, and the faith of Paul the Apostle. His words are battles; he does not sprinkle rose water upon the devil and the moral leper spots reeking in the community, but smites them in the face with the judgments of God. His preachcheat. He will come nearer making you ing is thoroughly evangelical. He stands believe the Devil will have you before square upon the Ten Commandments and the Lord's Sermon on the Mount. He believes the Book and he preaches it. (6) Taken all in all, measured by every standard of greatness, Mr. Jones is a remarkably great man. A leading educator, one of the most intellectual and cultured men in North Carolina, said to me several months ago: I have heard all the great preachers in this country and in Europe. Mr. Jones is to me the greatest of the great." (7) Is he accomplishing great good? Let the muititudes, near two hundred thousand strong, stretching from New York to California, who have been led to a better life by Mr. Jones' preaching, stand up and answer that question. In my humble judgment he is doing more good among all classes of people than any oue man who is to-day laboring for the moral well-being of society and his visits are an incalculable blessing to any

REV. C. L. ARNOLD, ST. PAUL'S EPISCO-PAL CHURCH.

It am of the opinion that the preach ing of the Gospel is a sacred function: that those who proclaim glad tidings and publish peace should be regarded. and regard themselves, as messengers of the Most High. From such a point of view, it is evident that I cannot believe in buffoonery, profanity and vulgarity as proper characteristics of preaching. I the Rev. Sam Jones has been correctly reported in the papers, I must think him guilty of these improprieties, and therefore I believe that his methods and style are out of place in the pulpit. The Gospel is the glad tidings that are to be proclaimed to man for his elevation, improvement, culture and salvation. To degrade the Gospel is to degrade the most most agency for man's betterment. The simple truths which Christ taught need dirty dogs, fools and contemptible pup- not to be vulgarized in order to become the city (who are as good people as them their power. They can take hold of men's hearts and minds and raise up allowed to sweep out the kitchens of the the life to a higher plane, and he who bon-ton of Baltimore. If he talked that attempts to bring down the Gospel to men's meanness is doing irreparable wrong. It would seem, that although some good may result from the awakening of men's minds to the needs of their souls by such preaching, yet the evil consequences of the debasement of religion must far outweigh them.

I am of the opinion, though I must confess that my opportunities of observation in these matters have not been many, that such discourses as those reported to have been delivered by Rev. Sam Jones at Charlotte must be demoralizing, and in the end harmful to the community. I should be sorry to hear that we are to have such performances in Wilmington.

REV. R. E. PEELE, BROOKLYN BAPTIST

I have refrained from speaking pubicly of this noted evangelist, because it is my misfortune to differ somewhat from abler and better men

The man puzzles me, and while I cannot approve all he says I do not find it n my heart to condemn him altogether To his own master he stands or falls. I have read some of his full sermons, nd much that has been said for and against him, and taking his measure rom such sources L have judged him to be honest in aims, but not always vise in his means. To be sure he creates quite a stench wherever he goes and gets pretty badly esmeared himself, but he claims that it s because he cuts a ditch through the moral filth and rottenness of the people and that what they dislike on him is their own stain.

As to whether this sort of drainage is necessary, and if so, whether or not Wilmington needs it, is a question I have left for our older and wiser brethren to settle, and may God direct.

REV. J. CARMICHAEL, ST. JOHN'S EPIS-COPAL CHURCH.

In response to your query as to my pinion of the spiritual profit likely to accrue to this community from the proposed ministrations of the Rev. "Sam" ones, I would briefly state that I am happily ignorant of his productions, except in so far as a perusal of some of his recent sermons in Charlotte may furnish a basis for the formation of my judgment in this matter. and these impressed me as so extremely irreverent in tone and spirit as to verge on positive profanity, an utterly alien and destructive element in the so-called preaching of the Gospel of Christ. Hence can but believe that no really spiritual good could possibly be gained by this community from any preaching of Mr REV. JOHN W, PRIMROSE, ST. ANDREWS

You ask my opinion of Rev. Sam ones. My answer is in the words of Nicodemus: "Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?"-John 7: 51.

Juvenile Opera.

About seventy-five of the best singers in the Union and Heminway schools of this city will sing Collin Coe's celenext Wednesday night. This will not be the ordinary school exhibition, but will be an entertainment of merit. The music is bright and lively, just such as is best adapted to children. The marching that will be introduced will be very fine, and all who go may look for an enjoyable entertainment. Every one ought to attend and encourage the children.

Our Public Schools.

The present term of our public schools will close next Wednesday. The children will be pleasant to all their parents and friends at the Hemenway on Tuesday and at the Union on Wednesday,

RATES OF ADVERTISING. Contract Advertise

Ten lines solid Nonpareil type make one aguare.

NATIONAL MEMORIAL DAY.

The arrangements for the decoration of the graves of the Union dead at the National Cemetery, on May 30th, are in charge of Joseph C Abbott Post No. 15, G. A. R. The address will be by Rev. Geo. S. Rollins. There will be a procession as follows:

Enterprise Cornet Band Joseph C. Abbott Post, No. 15, G. A. R Such Veteran Soldiers and others as may wish to join. Fire Department

Sabbath and other Schools Carriage with Orator and Chaplain. Carriages

The procession will be under the comnand of Elijah Lane, Chief Marshal, aided by a staff of assistants. The procession will form on North Third Street. right resting on Market street, at 3 30 p. m., and will move promptly at 8.45 p. m. AT THE CEMETERS

Mr. Fred S. Rice, Master of ceremonies. Dirge, by Enterprise Band Prayer, by Rev. Wm. R. Thomas. Ode, by Mendelsohn Club. Reading of general orders, by Capt J S.

W. Eagles. Address-"Twenty-live Years After," by Rev. Geo. S. Rollins. Ode, by Mendelsohn Club Benediction, by Rev. Wm. H. Thomas.

Decoration of Graves The chief marshal has appointed the following assistants marshala Aida Monroe Byrd and A. J. Walker Marshals S. O. Mason, Geo. Bell, Jas. Scatboro, Jas. W. Taylor, R. F. Holmes and Hampton

Death of Maj. W. L. Young

The sad intelligence was received here last night that Mai W I Young, a real estate agent of this rity, died yesterday at 4 p. m. at the residence of his brother, in Apex. Wake county. His remains, it is understood, will be interred to-day at Cary

Maj. Young left here a few weeks ago, accompanied by his devoted wife to seek recuperation from an attack of pneumonia, which had left him greatly prostrated. He was a man of varied attainments and great information, particularly on subjects pertaining to the Cape Fear section. During the war he was stationed at Wilmington, and constructed an elaborate system of fortifications around the city. He was greatly interested in and had given much of his time and means to the investigation and development of the agricultural and mineral resources of this so tion of the Intelligence of his death will be received with sorrow by many friends, who held him in the highest apprecia-

The Rice Market.

The Savannah News prints the folowing, which may be of interest to rice planters and merchants here

The rice market is very strong just at present, and there is little or no stock to be had of clean rice. By June 1st there will remain in the mills only about 13,000 bushels of rough rore which, when milled, will make something, like 1,200 barrels of "clean." This will be about all the available stock to supply he demand until the new roop arrives. except, of course, the small amounts of ough that usually come to the market ate in the season. The sales on Tuesday were heavy; 1,050 barrels were purchased by W. G. Morrel from one hold-

ng. This is said to be the largest single sale or purchase in this market in a ong time, and netted some $16,000. The rice will be shipped to Charleston and New York. It is believed that prices cannot go up any higher, as they are now on a par with the prices of oreign rice, and any further advance in the domestic grain will offer an inducement to traders to deal in the imported

Weather Forecasts. The following are the weather fore-

For Virginia cloudy weather and rain with local thunder storms in the afternoon, warmer except in the southwestern portion, slightly cooler southerly

For North Carolina and South Caroina, cloudiness and frequent showers, except fair weather along the southeast coast, continued warmer wutherly

Funeral of Mr. Jno. MacRae

The funeral of the late Mr John Mac-Rae took place vesterday morning from St. James' Church, the interment being in Oakdale Cemetery Services at the Church and at the grave were conducted by Rev. Robert Strange. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thos: B. Harriss, E. R. Hicks, W. B. McKoy, W. H. Brown, Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., Walter Rutland, Capt. Frank L. Meares and Maj T H Mc

> ---RIVER AND MARINE

- German barque Nester arrived yesterday at Southport quarantine station

- The Clyde steamer Fanita arrived yesterday, to Mr. H. G. Smallbones, with passengers and freight from New York. - The steamship Yemaisee, Capt. Mc-Kee, is expected to arrive here Tuesday next from New York. Wilmington District-Third Round Quarterly Meetings in Part.

Southport, June 1

Rocky Point, at Herring's June 7 Scott's Hill, at Union, June 14 and 15. F. D. SWINDELL.

Presiding Elder.