

OUTLINES.

The Garfield memorial monument, in the View cemetery, Cleveland, Ohio, was dedicated yesterday; the memorial is a colossal structure, and cost $150,000; President Harrison, several members of his cabinet and distinguished men from all parts of the country were present; ex-Gov. Cox, of Cincinnati, delivered the oration of the day. — The Democratic Convention at Montgomery, Ala., is struggling over the nomination for Governor; about a dozen ballots were taken yesterday, without any change in the last ballot Thursday night. — John C. Fill, treasurer of the Lutheran Orphans' Home, Philadelphia, was found to be a defaulter to the extent of $35,000. — Major Panitz, charged with conspiracy against the government of Bulgaria, has been found guilty and sentenced to death; several others were also found guilty and sentenced to terms of imprisonment. — A local train, at Oakland, Cal., ran into an open draw yesterday afternoon, and a crowded car went through and several persons were drowned. — A large number of cases were decided by the Supreme Court during the week just ended, some of them of great importance. — The corner-stone of the Washington Memorial Arch was laid in New York yesterday, with much pomp and ceremony; George William Goethals was the orator of the day, and there was a large concourse of people present. — A man named W. R. Smith, in Buncombe county, resisted arrest yesterday, and shot the sheriff and one of his assistants; both are dangerously hurt; Smith is still at large. — Yesterday was generally observed throughout the North as Decoration Day.

A Georgia paper boasts of a young man who wears an eight and a quarter tile. It is to be hoped that he is not afflicted with the same disease that Benj. Harrison is. — Mr. Carlisle made his first record in the Senate by voting against the appropriation in the bill for the construction of battle ships.

"Black the Ripper" has started in the young girl whose mutilated corpse was found by the English police last Saturday near Altonbury. — The Democrats of Indiana are rallying around Congressman Bynum and are Hoosier enthusiasm since a "decoration of honor" was conferred upon him. They are real proud of him now.

Senator Plumb plumbs the tariff and all right so far, if he don't wobble when it comes to the final straightening up. Butterworth was a right until it came to the test and then he wasn't worth shucks. — That Georgia colonel who made a million dollars and is bestowing it on educational institutions, leaving his heirs only moderate legacies, is a wise example of editors who seldom leave their heirs large legacies.

A view of the fact that was a Republican Congress which demonstrated Senator Stewart should have put it more mildly when he characterized that act as not only one of the greatest pieces of folly but one of the greatest crimes in history.

A negro tooth carpenter in Macon, Ga., has adopted the Japanese method of pulling teeth. He uses the fingers instead of forceps, and it is said that his grip has such a stalwart clasp in it that he can snatch out the most stubborn grinder in a twinkling. — Sam Jones is now holding meetings in Nashville, Tenn. A special to the Memphis Commercial of the 25th, says his sermon that night was from "beginning to end, a tirade against the Democratic party," which he qualified by saying that he had "never sunk so low as to become a Republican."

Uncle Jerry Rusk is not only introducing great reforms in the methods of farming in this country, from an epistolary stand-point, but he is revolutionizing the seeds. Some "great pansy" seeds which he recently sent out produced beautiful turnips, and some "double pinks" nice long-necked squashes. There is no doubt the ability of the great farmer who can from "pansy" seed produce a crop of turnips, or from "double pinks" a crop of daisy squashes.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLVI.—NO. 60.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 31, 1890.

WHOLE NO. 7,385

It is said that some of the farmers of Alabama are opposed to the re-election of Congressman Oates because he refused to endorse the sub-treasury scheme. Instead of meeting antagonism his candid, manly letter, giving his reasons for his refusal to support that measure, ought to commend him to them as an honest man, devoid of the elements of a then demagogue.

Boss Quay is in more trouble. He has a candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, one Mr. Delameter, whom ex-Senator Emory boldly accuses of bribery and forgery, and declares his readiness to prove it in a court of justice. Mr. Delameter don't invite him to do it, but follows the example of the Boss and plays mum. The g. o. p. is making a beautiful exhibit.

Chicago proposes to see the Eiffel tower and go it five hundred feet better. The scheme proposed is to erect a tower for the World's Fair fifteen hundred feet high, to cost over $2,000,000, containing a hotel with four thousand rooms besides great halls for public gatherings, &c. Chicago may be a windy city, but she is a hustler.

The Philadelphia Press high tariff boomer says that "free sugar will give a great stimulus to the manufacturer of jams, jellies, preserves, etc., in this country. This is doubtless so, but it is remarkable how long it took the keen eyed Press to make the discovery. If free sugar is so good how is it about free wool?"

That Ohio embezzler who was collared to Canada last week and was collared and brought back, was as mad as a hornet because he hadn't read the papers and found out about the new extradition treaty.

A procession was formed in the afternoon in front of the City Hall and marched to the National Cemetery, where an address was delivered by Rev. G. S. Rollins, Pastor of the Congregational Church, and the graves were decorated with wreaths and flowers. The procession was formed entirely of colored people—only one white man being seen in the parade. It consisted of Jos. C. Abbott Post No. 15 G. A. R., the colored fire companies of the city and children of the Sunday schools of the different colored churches, and a large number of men and women on foot and in carriages.

THE LUTHERAN CHURCH.

To be Opened for Services To-Morrow—Improvements Made in the Building.

St. Paul's E. Lutheran Church, which has been in the hands of the painters and decorators and other skilled workmen for several weeks, will be opened for services to-morrow, to be conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau; the morning service at 11 o'clock in English and the evening service in German.

Extensive improvements have been made in the interior of the building. A new ceiling, of native pine, in panels, finished in oil and varnish, has been put in, and the walls have been handsomely frescoed, both in the vestibule and church.

In the church proper the decorations show a bronze border, beginning at the floor, trimmed with black and gilt tracings and above a row of tiling extending around the inside of the building.

The mid-walls are handsomely frescoed in buff, with frieze work of dark blue above. The ceiling is exquisitely paneled in dark colors, harmoniously and beautifully blended.

The council room in rear of the church is done in grey "paperine," with the walls mottled brown, and the furniture has also been rejuvenated and new matting placed on the floor.

The work has been done entirely by home artists, and will compare favorably with any. Mr. E. V. Richards was the designer, and the painting was done by R. L. Hutchins.

The Church Committee superintending the work outlined above consists of Messrs. L. Hansen, A. Smith and J. D. H. Klander.

Electric lights will be placed in the church next week, similar to those in use in the First Presbyterian Church.

THE W. L. I.

Their Visit to Richmond—Enthusiastic Reception, Etc.

Yes, they have all returned, full of enthusiasm, full of patriotism, full of the events of the memorable 29th of May at Richmond.

No description would give an adequate idea of the immense crowd gathered to witness the unveiling of the equestrian statue to our beloved Robt. E. Lee. Though Virginia by birth, the whole Southland claim him as their chief, and reverence his memory with affection.

North Carolina alone sent nearly three thousand people to do honor to the occasion. Six hundred of her citizen soldiery were there and about four hundred Confederate veterans—men who have seen that attended the exercises are enthusiastic beyond expression and say that nothing could repay them had the opportunity been denied them of being there.

Prominent among the military companies was our own Wilmington Light Infantry, commanded by the gallant Capt. Kenan. They were applauded to the echo as they passed enthusiastic admirers along the line of march, conspicuous in their demonstrations being beautiful young women and noble matrons.

There never was a more genial, gentlemanly set of fellows than our boys, and Captain Kenan is justly proud of them. The company was pointed out as being one of the crack companies of the South and their beautifully executed manoeuvres were conclusive proofs to those who saw them that their reputation was deserved.

We hope to see them soon ahead of all other military companies and believe the time is not far distant when this will be so.

There is a great deal of enthusiasm manifested, not only among the members of the company, but among those who appreciate merit wherever found.

We are proud of them and glad their reputation for TRUE soldierly conduct, excellent discipline and beautiful drilling extends beyond the confines of the Old North State.

Mayor's Court.

Fines were imposed in this Court yesterday, as follows:

William Galloway, colored, disorderly, $5.00 and costs.

Sam Westermann, colored, tramp, $20 and costs.

Mary Jane Smith, colored, disorderly, $20 and costs.

Return of the Light Infantry.

The Wilmington Light Infantry arrived in the city yesterday morning on their return from Richmond, Va. The members speak in warm terms of the hearty greeting the company received and were enthusiastic over the great gathering and grand display at the unveiling of the Lee statue.

Cotton Region Bulletin.

No rain in the cotton belt yesterday, beyond a slight fall in the Savannah district and a trace at Galveston and Little Rock. The maximum temperature ranged from 78° at Wilmington to 86° at Charlotte, Cheraw and Florence. The minimum ranged from 52° at Newbern to 63° at Goldsboro and Florence.
