

The Liver

When out of order, involves every organ of the body. Remedies for some other derangement are frequently taken without the least effect, because it is the liver which is the real source of the trouble. It is the only organ that can be healed, strengthened, or purified in any part of the system. Mercury, in some form, is a common specific for a sluggish liver, but a far more effective and more effective...

Ayer's Pills.

Loss of appetite, bilious troubles, constipation, indigestion, and sick headache, these are the most common ailments which afflict the human system. For a long time I was a sufferer from biliousness, liver, and kidney troubles, experiencing much difficulty in digestion, with a constant pain in the bowels, and other signs of the liver. Having tried a variety of remedies, including warm baths, with only temporary relief, about three months ago I began the use of Ayer's Pills, and my health is now such that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this medicine. — Mrs. George F. Jones, Portland, Me.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

Smithfield Herald: Some sneak of a scoundrel shot Mr. D. W. Fuller's horse which was feeding in the pasture and wounded it so severely that he has had to be killed. We were shown some oats Thursday by H. H. Maynard, taken from D. W. Fuller's oat field, which "takes the cake." They measured 5 feet and 4 inches.

Rockingham Spirit of the South: A gentleman representing an electric light company was in town this week prospecting with a view of establishing an electric light plant in our midst. He died in Black Jack township, on the 25th inst. Mrs. John McCormick, aged about 60 years. Also, on the same day, near Bostick's mills, Mrs. Elizabeth Bostick, nee Capel, wife of Mr. T. T. Bostick, aged about 48 years.

Goldsboro Argus: And still the most gratifying reports come from the farmers from every quarter as to crops. If no unfavorable freaks of nature befall, it is the general verdict that the very finest harvest ever known in this country will bless the farmers' labors in the fall. — The growing cotton crop is indeed booming. Mr. Jethro Howell, from Fork township, reports "squares" already forming in his crop.

Milton Advertiser: Some one put out some poison last night and as a consequence the carcasses of five dogs were found on our streets this morning. The gentlemen who, some weeks ago, began negotiations looking toward getting control of the Connolly gold mine have at last secured a lease of the property on satisfactory terms, and will take steps at once to determine whether or not it will pay to work said mine.

Shelby Aurora: Falston is elated over the bright prospect of having a railroad. It is said the bonds are floated, the money will soon be on hand and the work will soon begin. — The Baptist church in this place elected the Rev. T. W. Ebbott, formerly pastor of the Fayetteville Baptist church. He is an educated and popular minister and we trust it will prove to be a judicious selection, although he has not yet accepted the pastorate. His decision has not yet been made.

Wilkesboro Chronicle: It is understood that as soon as the railroad is completed to this point a preliminary survey will begin for Bristol, Tenn. There is a wholesale merchant in Winston whom it is said has been opposing Wilkesboro in regard to the location of the depot. As a consequence thereof all the merchants in Wilkesboro and quite a number in the county have boycotted him, and say they will never buy a cent's worth of goods from him.

Asheville Citizen: The syndicate headed by Mr. J. B. Bostick has sold an interest in the 130 acres of Bostick, Tenn., recently purchased for $30,000, to S. J. Green and B. Blanton, at the rate of $50,000 for the entire tract. The work of improving the property will be commenced at once, and the owners hope to have the pavilion ready in three weeks. This pavilion will be for the benefit of the public, and will be an excellent place for picnics. The owners propose to make an offer of the property to the city for a park.

Asheville Citizen: Mr. John A. Cline has a field of five acres highly cultivated, on which he makes at least four bales of cotton. This year it was planted in wheat and the yield will amount to ten bushels. — We saw yesterday a handsome lot of gold, the result of twelve and a half days grinding at the Allison mine. It weighed being burned 1,055 dwts.; after burning, 566 dwts., or more than 2 1/2 pounds. It is worth close upon $500. As it came from the retort it looked like a nest with 14 eggs the size of partridge eggs, nest and all solid gold.

Monroe Register: The most gratifying reports of a flattering crop prospects come from all sections of the surrounding country. All are looking forward to good times next fall. — Mr. Robert Phillips, who lived twelve miles south of Monroe, died last Sunday night, after a long illness of softening of the brain. He was about 75 years of age. — J. T. Griffin, of Goose Creek township, reports the finest cotton we have heard of. He says he has two acres which he has worked three times, and some of the cotton stalks have forms on them.

Raleigh News and Observer: Considerable building is going on in the northwestern portion of the city. — Mr. Sam Blay yesterday sold two fine fillies by Pamlico, foaled this spring for $500, which is said to be the highest price ever paid for suckling colts in North Carolina. — The work of completing the Governor's mansion is progressing rapidly and visible results of the progress are to be noticed. The contractors have put up in all the portions of the building and quite an improvement is noticed in the general appearance.

Asheville Citizen: Mrs. John Spain, aged 24 years, a daughter of John Buckett, dropped dead very suddenly at her home on Avery's creek last Monday of heart failure. — Jesse Ingram, 17 years old, also dropped dead at his father's home, within a short distance of Mr. Spain's, last week. — There is a rumor on the streets to the effect that a Northern stock syndicate in which George Vanderbilt and John H. Inman are interested, has purchased the land on the Hazard place to the end of the ridge. The rumor also says that the purchase includes the lands of J. G. Martin, H. C. Hunt, Mrs. S. E. Buchanan and W. W. McDowell. The object is to build a magnificent hotel on the land. None of the interested parties will talk on the subject, but they do not deny the rumor.

Roanoke Beacon: On Saturday night last about 8 o'clock the quietude of the town was broken and the citizens thrown into wild excitement by the report of a gun and the news that two men and one woman had been fired upon from ambush while standing on the street. The names of the parties are Dumbar Collins, Harvey Brodley and Better Arnold, all colored. Collins received several wounds in the body and lower limbs which, it is feared, will result fatally. Brothers only received slight wounds in the arms. The woman, who is the wife of Lloyd Arnold, are man tried and convicted on our last term of the Superior Court for manslaughter. Court, received one shot in the breast. Investigation of the case by the officers led to the arrest of Dennis Arnold, who was given a hearing before Justice J. A. Chesson and committed to jail to await the action of the next term of the Superior Court.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

There ought to be more monuments in this State, and of the first importance as a great monument to the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. — Charlotte Chronicle.

The present Republican Congress seems to think that the Treasury of the United States is an overflowing fountain for the sustenance of the Republican spendthrifts. — Smithfield Herald.

The newspapers ought to combine against Wainamaker in his next campaign. His business is advertised on a plank fence in Marion instead of the papers. — Hickory Press & Carolinian.

The New England press can plainly see the danger ahead in the McKinley Tariff bill, and already it is raising a "howl." But this is not even a faint echo of the one the Republicans will raise over this same bill after the elections in November. — Elizabeth City Colonist.

North Carolina is peculiarly barren of such memorials of the past. Our people have been too long indifferent to the great events of their history. Let us be up and doing. Let us commemorate an indestructible stone or imperishable brass the great deeds of the patriot fathers. — Raleigh News and Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

Saleslady—For a garden hat, madam, the one you are trying on is hardly large enough. Now this would be much better. Customer—Oh, no. That wouldn't do at all. Our garden is very small. — Boston Beacon.

"Why don't you ask the guests if they will have some?" asked Mrs. Gazzard of her husband, who was handling the pastry around in silence. "Because we never speak as we pass pie." — Judge.

"Confound it, anyhow," said the mother-in-law joke when the Angel Gabriel blew his horn. "This is the seventeen million, five hundred and twenty-one thousand, four hundred and sixty-seventh time I have been resurrected." — Washington Post.

"I don't think I kin stay here," said the colored domestic to a Washington housekeeper. "You don't have anything but granulated sugar." "You are rather fastidious, aren't you?" — Judge.

"It isn't me," but pa and ma allus 'sists on havin' loaf shugah in dah tea an' coffee." — Judge.

"Miss Pert—How still you have been for the last five minutes, Mr. Soltiegh!" Mr. Soltiegh—Have I? Well, perhaps I have. I have been buried in thought. Miss Pert—Not buried very deep, were you, Mr. Soltiegh? — Somerville Journal.

"It was bad enough for our American girls to go out of their own country and marry titled bankrupts, but this is worse." "What is worse?" "Why, here's a dispatch which says that several American ladies traveling in Turkey were presented to the Sultan the other day." — Washington Post.

"Say pop," said Johnny Blinks, "Charley Sawyer's going to clope with Sister Mary to-night. He's got a ladder hid in the barn." "You don't say so. Wait till I go in and tell your mother, so she won't think it's burglars, and kick up a racket. An', Johnny, you kin hang around outside and hold the ladder if Charley wants ye to." — Washington Post.
