Delegates to County Convention and Executive Committee Elected.

Pursuant to the call of the Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, meetings were held last night in the various wards of the city to elect delegates to the County Convention which will meet Saturday, June 7th, in the County Court House.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

The Evangelical Alliance will hold a regular meeting to-day.

Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point, was a welcome visitor at the STAR office yesterday.

A party of colored excursionists from Fayetteville is expected here to-day via the Atlantic Coast Line.

A joint meeting of the Boards of Audit and Finance and Aldermen will be held to-morrow to arrange the city tax ordinances.

The tax listers for the State and county and the city are waiting at the City Hall for citizens to come forward and list their taxes.

There was not a quorum present at the meeting of the Mechanics' Home Association called for yesterday afternoon. The meeting will be held Monday next.

Schr. Timothy Field, Stratton, cleared yesterday for Cape Haytien, Haiti, with 166,805 feet lumber, valued at $2,248 76, and shipped by Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop.

Commencing to-morrow, the 6th inst., and on every Friday thereafter, until October 1st, the banks in this city will close at 12 o'clock, noon, in order to give employes a half-holiday.

Levi Lane, George Arnold and James Russ, colored boys, charged with violation of a city ordinance (bathing in the river within the city limits), were fined five dollars and costs each in the City Court yesterday.

Tom Vann, a colored boy 14 years old, was locked up yesterday, charged with stealing a gold watch from Mrs. Terry, wife of Conductor Terry, of the W. C. & A. railroad. The boy was arrested by officer Wood, and the watch was recovered.

Mr. Thomas F. Gaynor, of Louisville, Ky., representing the Gaynor Fire Alarm Station System, has submitted a proposition to the Board of Aldermen to furnish the city with a plant of thirty boxes, with all modern improvements, and offers to put up the works for a test before acceptance.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Susan A. Flanner, Relict of the Late Bennett Flanner.

It is again our painful duty to announce the death of another of our old and highly esteemed citizens, Mrs. Susan A. Flanner, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at her residence in this city.

The Master's degree will be conferred at the Lodge at Clinton to-night, by Mr. S. Northrop, W. M., of Wilmington Lodge 319. A number of Masons representing the different lodges in this city will attend.

The Status of the Evangelist, Rev. Sam P. Jones.

EDITOR STAR:—My attention has been called to a recent communication in the STAR, in reference to the great evangelist, the Rev. Sam P. Jones, which is entirely misleading as to the facts in his case.

Mr. Jones is an ordained Methodist preacher in the North Georgia Conference, of which honored body he has been an honored and most highly esteemed member since 1873.

The funeral services will take place this afternoon from her late residence on Front street, thence to Oakdale cemetery.

New York Truck Market. A special from G. S. Palmer, commission merchant, New York, reports prices June 5d, as follows:

The market holds firm on North Carolina produce, especially beans; fancy one-half barrels, round, selling for $1.75 to $3; wax $2.50 to $3.

Police Records. The police made 127 arrests during the month of May, of which number 93 were colored persons and 34 white.

The court fines collected amount to $298.50 and the pound fees, $13.55.

Five places of business were found with the doors unlocked at night, and four alarms of fire were reported.

Died of Paralysis. A correspondent writing from Hayne, N. C., says: "Mr. Amos Bullard was stricken with paralysis May 29th, and died the day following. It was the third attack of the disease."
