What did Senator Sherman mean in his speech on the silver bill, Thursday, when he classed South America as an unchristian and an uncivilized country, after Secretary Blaine had been hobnobbing with their delegates to the Pan-American Congress for six months, and giving them a free ride all over the North? Mr. Blaine should make Mr. Sherman rise up and explain.

Rev. Sam Small some time ago gave out that he was going to enter the Episcopal ministry. From this it would seem that Sam is not yet sure where he

A Sparring Match Between Billy Layton and A. B. O'Neill,

The exhibition given last night at the Opera House between Messrs. Billy Layton of New York and A. B. O'Neill of New Orleans resulted in favor of Mr. O'Neill, by a score of thirty-eight to twenty-one points. The crowd that visthe original programme ited the sparring match was "little, but, ()h, my!" 'twas enthusiastic. The rounds were fought with spirit and vim. Layton forced the fighting at times, but managed at every dash to meet with his nose the outstretched arm of his opponent. At the end of the match O'Neill looked the worse of the two, as his nose was bleeding and his shirt was flecked and pallock his mouth half as with the claret; but this was all the General Bee was killed at the first battle of Manassas, and he was the one who gave to General Jackson the name of Stonewall. After the death of General Bee, Major Hill was made Adjutant on General Whiting's staff, and was with him in the Seven Days' fight around Richmond, and came to Wilmington with General Whiting in the fall of 1862. CHAPEL HILL.

Commencement Week at the University. CHAPEL HILL, N. C., June 5. One who attends for the first time a Commencement at the University is astonished to see the number of people attracted to Chapel Hill. They pour in from everywhere, not only from all over the State but from distant parts of the country. This year alumni are present even from California and Louisiana. Another astonishing thing is where all these people stay. The houses are few. the visitors are many, and yet nobody fails to find a place to sleep and all the food he wants, North Carolina hospitality makes houses and dining tables elastic. "It would be hard to find, anywhere in America, a gathering of more distinguished looking men and beautiful women," was the remark made to-day by a man who is familiar with people and things in most of the States of the

A considerable number came in on Tuesday night; the special train Wednesday morning brought more; and today, regular and special trains, and vehicles of all sorts, have brought visitors from near and far. Thursday is, of course, the great day.

For the Alumni, yesterday was full of interest, and it was an important day for the University. In the forenoon the Association of Alumni met in Memorial Hall, with the President, Col. W. L. Steel, of '44, in the chair. Judge James Grant, of '31, as the oldest Alumnus present, was made honorary president. Richard H. Battle, Esq., by special invitation, delivered an admirable address on the life and character of the late Charles Phillips, Professor of Mathematics. The address received the praise of hundreds of men who had been taught by Prof. Phillips during his thirty years' connection with the institution. Following Mr. Battle's address, Col. W. H S. Burgwyn, of Henderson, delivered an oration on "The Necessity of Preserving the Memorials of the Past, and of Transmitting to Posterity a Just and Impartial History of North Carolina." The choice of our oraevery citizen of North Carolina, could not have been bettered. One would think that all University men were born orators. Perhaps this comes from the training, given by the two Societies; perhaps it is natural; at any rate, it is a After the presentation of a tablet in memory of Prof. R. H. Graves, in a graceful speech by W. J. Peele, Esq., the Association adjourned to the Alumni dinner in Gerard Hall. The arrangements were perfect and the dinner (usually poor on such occasions elsewhere) was excellent. So much enthusiasm had been manifested in regard to the proposed Chair of History that most of the regular toasts were abandoned and informal speeches, brimfull of good things, took their place. Spontaneously the movement to raise the sum necessary for the endownment was started The following subscriptions were made in a short time: Ed. C. Smith, $500; D. G. Worth, $1,000; Judge James Grant, $1,000; E. A. Alderman, $150; Jno. D. Currie, $500; C. D. McIver, $150; Col Kenan, $500; the class of '89, $190, ($10 each); R. W. Winston, for the Alumni since 1875, a guarantee that they would raise $5,000, provided the older Alumni should raise the other $25,000; F. P. Venable, $500; Jno. Manning, $500; W. H. S. Burgwyn, $1,000; H. Parker, $25; W. H. McDonald, $25; G. T. Winston, $250. And then came a generous contribution from a generous man-J. S. Carr added $10,000, greeted by the cheers of all the assembly. Other contributions were-W. L. Steele, $500; W. A. Guthrie, $100; Judge Gilmer, $500; Dr. Ledoux, $250; Gen. Barringer, $250; E. G. Harrell, $100; Judge Phillips, $500. At this point Governor Fowle arose and said that he was authorized by a gentleman by him to state that the latter would add the $7,000 to $10,000 necessary to complete the endowment. The generous-hearted contributor was Judge James Grant. The work was done. And a happy day's work it was for all who have at heart the good of the University and of the State.

At night the Society representatives spoke in Memorial Hall. The speakers and subjects were as follows: From the Philanthropic Society-Shepard Bryan, New Bern, "The Conservatism of North Carolina;" John S. Thomas, New Bern, "The Ensign of Hope;" W. E. Darden, Kinston, "Homo Sum." From the Dialectic Society-J. V. Lewis, Darlington, "Science and Character;" Matt. J. Pearsall, Duplin county. "The Color Line;" R. W. Bingbam, Bingham School, "Manifest Destiny and Manifest Duty." The speeches were of uncommon excellence. It was remarked by all that no representative speaking in recent years had surpassed it. The decision of the committee was not announced until to-day, when the medal was awarded to

At the meeting of the Trustees on Wednesday, Mr. H. H. Williams, of Gates county, was elected to the Chair of Mental and Moral Science, to succeed the late Dr. Mangum. Mr. Williams was graduted at the University in 1883. Since then he has for some time taught with distinguished success at Trinity, after which he completed a three years' course in the Divinity School of Yale University. At present he is pursuing further studies in mental philosophy at Harvard. Mr. Williams is by all odds the best equipped man in the State for this important chair, and his election is greeted with delight by all here, particularly by the younger Alumni.

To-day has been occupied entirely with the exercises of commencement. To-night a pleasant reception given in the Library by the faculty to the Alumni and trustees is being heartily enjoyed by a host of people, closing fittingly one of the best of all commencements held at the University in its century of useful

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

Present Condition of the Channels of the Cape Fear River from Wilmington to the Ocean.

WHOLE NO. 7,391

U. S. ENGINEER OFFICE,

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 6. The past year's work on the improvement of the Cape Fear river at and below Wilmington has given results which will be most beneficial to vessels navigating this highway.

Opposite the city there is a channel from the main river into the North East Cape Fear river everywhere at least two hundred and sixty-four feet wide and sixteen feet deep at low water; thus allowing sixteen feet draft up the North East river clear to the railroad bridge at Hilton.

Across the shoal opposite Kidder's mill and Alligator creek, one mile below Wilmington, at Brunswick river shoal. three miles below Wilmington, at Logs and Big Island shoal, seven miles below Wilmington, at Lilliput, eleven miles below Wilmington, at Midnight shoal, sixteen miles below Wilmington, and Reaves' Point shoal, nineteen miles below Wilmington, the channel has now been completely dredged everywhere at least two hundred and seventy feet wide and at least sixteen feet deep at low water.

At Logs and Big Island shoal the channel has been also plainly marked by permanent buoys at all angles.

At Snow's Marsh, twenty miles below Wilmington, a new cut has been made about 1,000 feet west of the old channel, following the natural channel of the river through the "Five Fathom Hole" to the deep water at Southport. This channel is now everywhere two hundred and thirty-three feet wide and sixteen feet deep at low water; it is a single straight cut, only about two-thirds as long as the old cut, and will be more easily navigated and more permanent than the old channel. During the next month this new channel will be plainly marked for the use of vessels.

For nearly three years the suction dredge Woodbury has been steadily at work on a new straight channel across the bar. During the past year the old crooked channel has been abanoned and the new straight chann has been adopted by all navigation. The new bar channel is steadily growing in width and depth, and is now everywhere at least fifteen feet deep at low water, and two hundred feet width of channel. The rise of the tide at Wilmington is about two and a half feet and at the bar is about four and a half feet. Thus there is everywhere a depth of at least sixteen feet at low water from Wilmington to the bar, and at least eighteen feet at high water from Wilmington to the ocean. During the past year vessels drawing over seventeen feet have been loaded at the city wharves and have passed safely out to sea in a single tide; and vessels of eighteen feet draft might do the same in calm weather. The pending River and Harbor bill appropriates another $100,000 for this improvement. As soon as this money becomes available, work will at once be commenced on new, already approved projects, for obtaining a depth of at least twenty feet at low water from Wilmington to the ocean.
