estly kept.

Emma, the interesting little girl of Mr. W. F. Williams, of this city, was bitten by a venomous spider last Tuesday at the residence of her grandfather, Mr. W. I. Eddins, in Charlotte, where Mrs. Williams is visiting. A physician was in constant attendance upon the child for five hours, and prompt action alone saved her life. Mrs. Williams writes that her daughter is still suffering from the effects of the poison, but is improving.

The Onslow Railroad to be Extended to

Mr. H. C. Whiting, the manager of the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad, returned a day or two ago from a visit to New York. He reports that it is the purpose of the Company to extend the road to Newbern, and that a surveying party will be sent out as soon as possible to select a route. The track from Wilmington has been laid for a distance of sixteen miles, and is steadily progressing. To facilitate the work an additional engine and cars have been ordered, and further shipments of steel rails have been made. It is expected that the road will be pushed through to Jacksonville by the Fall.

CAPE FEAR ACADEMY.

Closing Exercises-Distinctions Awarded, Etc.

The Cape Fear Academy closed its seventeenth session yesterday morning. The pupils have been undergoing an examination for the past week and have shown excellent progress in their studies, which must be gratifying alike to teachers, pupils and parents.

Prof. Catlett, after a closing address to the pupils, awarded certificates of distinction to the following pupils, their names coming in the order of excellence: First Class-W. L. Latta, F. R. Russell, E. T. Huggins.

Second Class-C. H. Schulken, Louis Cutlar, Henry Bear, Thos. W. Davis, S. Greenberg, H. B. Peschau, C. K. Bacon, F. Pearsall, G. A. Heide, F. Donlan, Ino. Wessell, R. Dingelhoef, W. H. Green, Jr.

Third Class-Harry Honnett, W. Bellamy, Gaston Myers, John Blomme, R. G. Rankin, Jr., A. Empie. Louis Hall, E. Wessell and A. Peschau.

C. H. Schulken, Fred Pearsall and W Latta received only one demerit during the entire year.

John Wessell and W. W. Vick have never been late. The popularity of this school has continually increased and the session has added another successful year. Prof. Catlett is doing a noble work in Wilmington, and the prosperous condition of his school attests the estimation in which he is held by our citizens as an

PRIZE SHOOTING.

Arrangements for the Contest at the Hammocks July Fourth.

The arrangements made for the contest at rifle practice for the prize of $100 on the Fourth of July, at the Hammocks, offered by the Seacoast Railroad Company, are as follows: None but regularly organized teams will be admitted in the contest. The teams must be made up of five men each, and they will be required to report to Col. Wm. L. DeRosset, not lster than 12 o'clock of the day appointed. The firing will be conducted strictly under the regulations of the United States Army, and reference is particularly made to sections 630 to 634 inclusive, as shown on pages 231 and 232 of "Blunt's Rifle Firing," especially to those regulating the "pull of the trigger," (not less than six pounds), and shades for sights not allowed. Of course none but the Regulation Military Rifle Ammunition as issued to the State Guard only allowed. The firing will be at two hundred yards, at a regular target, as shown on page 143 of the above book, and marked "A" on the diagram. Four or more teams must enter to secure the prize, but should not less than three entries be made the prize will be Fifty Dollars. It is hoped that every white military company in the Carolinas will be represented in this contest.

Entries must be made by letter or in person to Col. Wm. L. DeRosset, on or before July 1st.
