WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1890.

FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

The Postal and Ship Bills Discussed in the Senate—Conference Report on District of Columbia Appropriation Bill Presented and Debated—The House—Both Houses Adjourn Until Monday.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Mr. Allison moved that the adjournment to-day be till Monday.

Mr. Edmunds and Mr. Sherman opposed the motion, and Mr. Plumb and Mr. Gorman advocated it, and it was agreed to.

At 2 o'clock the unfinished business was taken up, being two postal and ship bills.

Mr. Vest continued his argument against the bill. Referring to Mr. Blaine's anxiety in the matter, he said that he was as anxious as Mr. Blaine to bring back the supremacy of the United States on the ocean and as to the carrying trade.

He was as anxious as Mr. Blaine to open the ports of South America to American products. He sincerely desired the extension of commerce, and that the American flag might again be seen in every port and in every sea.

But the question was one as to the means to bring about that end. The Senator from Maine, Mr. Frye, wanted subsidies. He (Mr. Vest) opposed them in toto. He had seen in a New York newspaper last week a statement credited to Mr. Blaine, that he would give one year of his life for two hours on the floor of the American Senate on this question.

In view of that statement, at finding that Mr. Blaine had injected into this discussion an argument in the President's message, read in the Senate this morning, urging postal subsidies.

Mr. Vest went on to speak of the late Pan-American Conference, and said that the clerk's desk had read a clipping from the New York Herald, of a Buenos Ayres correspondent, to show what a prominent and intelligent citizen of Buenos Ayres, Senor Piora, who accompanied the Argentine delegates to Washington, thought of a conference of American, Cuban and United States delegates.

As soon as the clerk had finished the reading of this very caustic criticism Mr. Hawley asked Mr. Vest whether he knew who wrote that, and whether it was quite fair and decorous to have printed such a mass of irresponsible blackguardism.

Mr. Vest replied that the gentleman's name was given in the communication.

Mr. Hawley—I reaffirm what I said that the man who speaks as he does of honorable gentlemen, and who says that American colleges that degrees can be obtained for thirty dollars, says wilfully that which is false.

Mr. Vest—That may be ascribed to his ignorance of American colleges.

Mr. Hawley—And to his ignorance of all laws that govern gentlemen.

Mr. Vest—The secretary of a society in Buenos Ayres, and accompanied the delegation from the Argentine Republic to this Pan-American Conference.

Mr. Hawley—And you may add to that description that he is a liar and a blackguard.

Mr. Vest—That is a question between him and the Senator from Connecticut.

Mr. Hawley—The Senator from Missouri introduced his friend here.

Mr. Vest—The article was published in a New York paper, extracted from a paper in Buenos Ayres, and has gone broadcast over the country.

Mr. Hawley—The Senator from Missouri will not endorse what that blackguard said?

Mr. Rogers of Arkansas, demanded the regular order. Mr. Lodge suggested that there was no necessity to get cross about the matter.

Mr. Rogers retorted that the House had had enough of the bill, whereupon Mr. Houk of Tennessee, suggested that the Democrats might get more of it.

The request was not acceded to. The conference report on the District of Columbia Appropriation bill was presented. After debate, and pending a vote on the report, the House at 1:45 adjourned till Monday.

WASHINGTON.

An Unwavering Conference on the Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Another unavailing conference over the Silver bill was held this morning, lasting an hour and a half. One of the members says the time was spent as it was yesterday in general discussion of the financial situation, but no proposition was presented and pressed with any particular force. An adjournment was taken at noon until Saturday morning. It is said that previous to that time Republican members of the conference will hold a meeting with a view to agreeing upon a basis of action. One of the points upon which the conferees are divided is said to be whether any certificates to be issued in accordance with the bill shall be made a legal tender, or all certificates outstanding previous to approval of the bill shall be so.

Mr. Vest, who is credited with having suggested that the bill should require customs duties to be paid in gold alone, but that was ruled out on the ground that its consideration would open up discussion upon a matter not properly included in the scope of the bill.

Mr. Bland, of the House conferees, is quoted as saying that the only serious difference between the House and the Senate conferees relates to the bullion redemption clause.

CHICAGO REVIEW.

Fluctuations in Prices of Grain and Provisions.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. CHICAGO, July 3.—Wheat—Moderate business was transacted in this market, which ruled steady within a small range most of the day.

It opened rather weaker, and early sales were 1/4 to 1/2c lower than yesterday's closing, then advanced sharply 3/4 to 1c, eased off, and then held steady for some time within 1/2c range, and closed firm and 1/2c higher than yesterday's closing.

The market is being governed mainly by the weather conditions here and in Europe. Corn—There was very good speculative trade witnessed in this market. The first trading was at a slight advance over the closing prices of yesterday, was firm, a very little being offered, and under a good local demand advanced 3/4 to 1/2c—July showing most strength—ruled steady, and closed 1/4 to 1/2c better than yesterday.

Oats were moderately active but unsettled. There was a free liquidation of July by some of the large holders. This produced a weak feeling, and prices, after an advance of 1/4 to 1/2c at the opening, receded 3/4c, and the market closed steady.

In mess pork very little business was transacted, and changes in prices were slight. Trade in lard was moderate early. A few transactions were made at a slight advance in price, and especially for deferred deliveries. Later the market ruled easier, and prices receded again, and the market closed tame.

In short rib sides trading was only moderate, and prices were a little more favorable to sellers.

CHATTANOOGA.

Meeting of Confederate Veterans—Addressed by Gen. Gordon, of Georgia, and Others.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. CHATTANOOGA, July 3.—The first convention of the United Confederate Veterans' Association, met in Chattanooga yesterday. Gov. John B. Gordon presided. The city was gaily decorated.

The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. Xen' Wheeler, an ex-Federal soldier, and was responded to by General John B. Gordon. The question of organizing the Sons of Confederate Veterans was referred to a committee and will probably be reported favorably.

A memorial from the Woman's Jefferson Davis Monument Association of New Orleans, asking co-operation, was presented and several hundred dollars were subscribed.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Three Men Instantly Killed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. RICHMOND, VA., July 3.—A special from Lexington says: "About 5 o'clock this morning, at Buena Vista, three miners were instantly killed. The men had assembled about the shaft of the mine, and four men entered the cage for the purpose of descending, when, without warning, the car fell a distance of 140 feet to the bottom of the shaft. Eli Painter, John Montgomery and Lipps Sneed were instantly killed. Floyd Manon, one of the party, is still alive and conscious."

MINING TROUBLES.

Condition of the Strike in the Alabama Iron Works.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. BIRMINGHAM, ALA., July 3.—For several weeks there has been a condition of uncertainty among the industries of this region, owing to the differences among the miners for an increase of pay. Several thousand miners stopped work July 1st, pending settlement, and the order held a convention at the Pratt mines. The operators decided some ten days ago that they would "stand pat" on the present scale, and would continue to treat with the men only as employees, and not as an order. A long struggle seemed imminent with all the miners, and the furnaces closed, but to-day the miners gratefully declined to press their demands.

Other miners will follow this lead, and the threatened trouble is over. All the men will go back to work on Monday.

THE CLOAK MAKERS.

The New York Strikers Make a Determined Assault on the Men at Work—A Number of Persons Severely Injured—Work Progressing as Usual.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, July 3.—A crowd of about two hundred striking cloak makers gathered on Broadway, between Leonard and White Streets, this morning at the hour, when the hands in Meyer & Jonassen's shops, at 334, and the Mercantile Cloak Company's place, at 394 Broadway, were going to work. These are two of the largest firms in the trade, and are battling in the front rank of the Employer's Association against the strikers' demand.

When the employees tried to enter the shops they were surrounded by strikers, who forbade them with vehement gesticulations to enter. Some were frightened away by the crowd and escaped, while others who persisted in the effort to enter the shops were seized and hustled away by force. In a few minutes Broadway, for two blocks, was the scene of a dozen running fights, and for a short time the strikers had it all their own way, but soon the assailed men pluckily fought their way in a concerted force, and the strikers were plentiful. The working cloakmakers, however, generally got the worst of it.

Around Meyer & Jonassen's shops the battle raged most fiercely. A dozen strikers dragged Charles Butler, stock clerk of the Employer's Association, into the street and caulked him. Jos. Luberger, buyer for the house, was beaten. An old operator named Quincey was set upon and so badly beaten that he had to be removed to his home in a cab. William Wisner, another operator, received several scalp wounds. He was taken to the numbers street hospital for treatment.

Neither pistols nor knives were used in the melee, the only weapons used being fists and clubbed umbrellas. When the police arrived in force they had no difficulty in dispersing the mob. They used their clubs freely.

Mr. Moorcraft, of the cloak firm, said he had no idea that violence would be used. He had supplied the places of the strikers, he said, and work was progressing as usual.

STRIKING TAILORS.

A Disturbance in New York with Probable Fatal Results.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, July 3.—Abraham Rosenberg and a crowd of about one hundred and fifty other striking tailors, visited the tailoring shop of A. Drellett, of 19 Eldridge street, this afternoon, and began an indiscriminate attack upon Drellett, his wife and the workmen in the shop. Drellett defended himself with his revolver. He fired into the crowd, and shot Rosenberg in the back, inflicting a serious and probably fatal wound. Rosenberg was removed to a hospital, and a coroner has been summoned to get Rosenberg's ante-mortem statement. Drellett closed his place against the strikers, but they broke in the shop, and besides beating the inmates they destroyed goods valued at $10,000, and threw them into the street. Three or four shots were fired by Drellett, and it is believed that some others of the strikers, as well as Rosenberg, were injured, but so far they have not been found. Eight or nine of the strikers were arrested. There is considerable excitement on the east side of the city.

EAST TENNESSEE R. R.

A Lease Acquired from the Louisville Southern that Will Complete the System.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, July 3.—President Thomas, of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railroad, says: "The Louisville Southern road, about 138 miles from Louisville to a connection with the Cincinnati Southern, has been leased to the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia. This gives it a northern outlet, both to Cincinnati and Louisville, which is necessary to complete its system. The East Tennessee guarantees five per cent. interest upon $4,000,000 bonds. The net earnings of the road at the present time amount to about this sum.

This lease adds no additional burden to the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railroad Company, but gives it an outlet to a very important center on the Ohio river. The stock of the Louisville Southern road is held wholly by business men of Louisville, who have pledged themselves to join the East Tennessee Company to make its new line a valuable connection with the South and divide business with the Louisville & Nashville road.

COTTON.

The New York Sun's Report of the Market Yesterday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, July 3.—The Sun's review of the cotton market to-day says: Futures opened quite buoyantly with a better report from Liverpool and such a squeeze on July contracts as to be very suggestive of a "corner," but, as for some days past, speculation lacked spirit and the next crop was weakened by the fall of needed rains, though Texas got very little and the Mississippi valley rather too much, and only July maintained any advance over yesterday, while the next crop was slightly cheaper. It was evident at the close that Liverpool must keep "boosting," or we shall fall back. Cotton on spot was dull.

POLLY AND THE MINISTER.

A Sudden Interrogative That Surprised the Good Man.

Wide Awake.

Sister Robbins lay upon her sick-bed watching the clock, the slant of the sunbeams, and occasionally talking to her polly, a wise-looking gray parrot with glittering eyes and brilliant scarlet tail. It would be better, perhaps, to say that she replied to polly, for the parrot was by far the most talkative.

"There came a rap at the door of the room.

"Whoa," said Polly. "Come in," said Sister Robbins.

"The visitor entered, and proved to be the Methodist minister. Polly crept to Mrs. Robbins and cuddled close up to the lady's neck, laying her gray pate close beside her mistress' cheek. After some conversation the minister proposed to Sister Robbins that they have "a season of prayer," and accordingly knelt by her bedside and, with closed eyes and devout voice, began to pray.

Polly's eyes glittered more than ever. She crept unnoticed from her place of refuge, and with slow-lifted claws and noiseless step over the white counterpane went close to the unconscious minister. She scanned him meditatively, and then, when her head was so near his that you would have thought his ear in danger of being snipped off, she suddenly cried out in the clearest tones: "What in the world are you doing here?"

Sister Robbins finds it hard to convince the minister that they have family prayers. He says Polly's evidence is against her.

DRAWING THE COLOR LINE.

A Job of Painting Attributed to the Wrong Artist.

The eloquent temperance lecturer paused, wiped his perspiring brow, and said impressively to the man on the front seat, who had listened with the deepest interest to the discourse, and evidently was touched by his pathos and argument: "My friend, it is never too late to reform. There is hope for the most hopeless. The past is beyond your reach, but you can control your future. You cannot call back to your pocket the enormous sum it probably has cost you to paint your nose the color it has now, but—"

"All it cost me to paint my nose as you see it," said the man in the front seat, rising up, "was $1.60, including railroad fare and boat hire. I went fishing yesterday. My nose will be fair as a lily in a day or two. But go on with your lecture," he added, sitting down again, "I am very much interested."

Who Makes the Best Piano? EVERY MAKER, GOOD AND BAD, CLAIMS this honor, but there are only five or six high grade makers, viz: Steinway, Sohmer, Decker Bros, Steck, Knabe and Weber, each using the finest materials and each having distinctive merits. As, however, no Piano can be judged by a single point of excellence, but by getting an excellent one, and having thoroughly tested nearly all the first class makes, we find no better "all around" Piano than the Sohmer. They stand the Southern climate. They do not become sharp in tone and keep in tune a long time.

There is a fine assortment of these noble instruments, which, together with cheaper grades of different makes we offer at low prices. Just received a large stock of the Wmox & White Organs in all the latest designs.
