OUTLINES.

The presiding officer of the Senate gave notice yesterday that he had signed the bill for the admission of Wyoming as a State, and it is now with the President for his signature.

The Senate Monday paid its tribute of respect to the memory of Hon. S. S. Cox. Among those who paid high eulogy was Senator Sherman, who had to stop in the course of his remarks to "master his emotion."

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat is one of the strongest Republican papers in the Mississippi Valley. Speaking of the Tillman movement in South Carolina it says: "A cautious, robust split such as would bring about a big Democratic defeat is what the Palmetto State needs just now."

Since the Czar of Russia has learned from recent discoveries that poison may be introduced into an egg by means of a fine wire, without breaking the shell, he has become really unhappy.

The Democratic Alliance man who remembers that he is a North Carolinian as well as an Alliance man, will not be enticed nor driven into the Republican caravan.

A Michigander undertook to swim the Niagara rapids on the 4th and made a dismal failure. When the Michigander failed in that there is no use in any other gander trying it.

It is estimated that the proposed benefits on sugar will cost about $1,000,000. Thus far no estimate has been made on what the cocoon worms will sum up. The cocoon is an unknown quantity.

When the enemy is at the gates, election bills forged and bayonets at bay to dethrone white supremacy in North Carolina, it is time for the men who love her to stand together and present a solid front.

The farmers of this country can never have the relief they look for and demand while the Republican party is in power. If they would find speedy relief let them turn their batteries on that and demolish it.

We offer a premium of a bushel of gobbers to the Republican candidate in this State who will refuse to sign the Alliance "demands" if they should be presented to him, and if the winner prefers them that way we will have them parched.

Ex-Representative Farwell, of Iowa, has written a letter declining the use of his name as a Republican candidate for Governor. He says he wouldn't be compelled to defend the McKinley bill for any office in the gift of the people.

Gen. Post, Republican, has been renominated for Congress in the 10th Illinois district, but his constituents gave him to understand that there was to be no more tariff foolishness, and adopted a platform declaring for a "revision of the tariff and a reduction of duties."

The Progressive Farmer, of which that superb farmer, L. L. Polk, is editor, attacks Senator Vance. Is this in the interest of farmer Polk? What! Tillman to succeed Hampton in South Carolina, and Polk to succeed Vance in North Carolina? Great Scott!

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted. — Dr. R. H. Lewis, of Raleigh, is in the city.

— The usual prayer meeting will be held at Bladen Street Church tonight at 8.15 o'clock. — Robert Barry, colored, was fined $10 in the Mayor's Court yesterday, for resisting an officer.

— The Criminal Court for New Hanover county will meet on Monday, the 21st inst., not the 14th. — The Sylvan Grove will go to the Blackfish Grounds next Monday. The fishing there is splendid this season.

— There was a heavy cloud north and west of the city last evening, and probably considerable rain in that section. — The tug G. W. Pride went down the river yesterday to tow the schooner Jesse W. Starr from Southport to Philadelphia.

— Col. E. D. Hall, Chief of Police, has been granted leave of absence for two weeks, and will seek recuperation at Southport. — The British brig Julia A. Merritt cleared yesterday for Jamaica, Hayti, with cargo of 141,440 feet of lumber and 20,000 shingles, valued at $2,099.10, and shipped by Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop.

— The colored fireman on Engineer Louis Waxsmith's train, on the Weldon railroad, was stricken with paralysis at Faison's Tuesday night. His name was not ascertained. He was brought to the city yesterday morning on the "Shoo-fly" train—speechless but conscious.

THE WEATHER.

Range of the Mercury Yesterday—Wilmington the Coolest Place in the District—Refreshing Rain—Terrible Storm in Edgecombe.

The rain storm last night was a welcome visitor. It came from a northerly direction, and was preceded by a stiff breeze that cooled the atmosphere and lowered the mercury several degrees. Wilmington was by a long odds the coolest place in the district yesterday.

Advances from Whitaker's, Edgecombe county, report a terrific storm in that section yesterday afternoon. The large tobacco warehouse in that town was completely wrecked, and crops were seriously damaged in the surrounding country.

At Rocky Mount, a heavy rain fell, which was very welcome, as the crops were suffering from drought. There was a heavy wind there, also, but no damage is reported.

RICHMOND COUNTY.

Democratic Convention at Rockingham. A STAR special says that the Democratic Convention of Richmond county met in Rockingham yesterday, and instructed its delegates to support Frank McNeill, Esq., for Solicitor.

Ja. T. LeGrand, Richmond county's candidate for Congress, formally withdrew from the contest, and asked his friends to support Hon. Sid B. Alexander.

Resolutions were adopted endorsing the course of Hon. Zebulon B. Vance, and promising him the earnest support of the county for renomination.

A Small Fire.

An alarm sent in yesterday afternoon about half-past two o'clock from box No. 32, corner of Third and Nun streets brought out the Fire Department, but its services were not needed. The fire was in an out-house on the premises of Mrs. P. L. Sells, on Third between Church and Castle streets, and was extinguished by persons in the neighborhood.

Industrial Manufacturing Co.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Industrial Manufacturing Company, held last night, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President—Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr. Vice President—H. P. West. Secretary and Treasurer and General Manager—E. F. Johnson.

A Juvenile "Jerk."

It is claimed for Eddie Carter, at Clarkton, N. C., that he is the youngest telegraph operator in the State. Eddie is thirteen years old and has been at the key for two years, assisting his father at Clarkton.

TOWN TALK! Tripping lightly down Front street Upon a July day, Those same two happy girls they meet, And this is what they say.

KATE LEVELHEAD—WHY, ANNIE, WHERE in the world have you been all this time? I haven't seen you since last Saturday. What have you been doing?

Annie Vivacious—Katy, I have been just as busy as could be. You know last time I saw you on Market street you told me to go to BROWN & RODDICK'S, and I did so, and have been sewing ever since. Kate Levelhead—Isn't it lovely there? Annie Vivacious—Yes, just lovely! Why I never saw such pretty goods in my life. Say? I got one of those CORSETS, and then I just went through the whole stock. Such lovely LACES and new RIBBONS, and oh, Kate, did you see those exquisite PERSIAN MULLS? I got the sweetest little blue figured one in the whole lot, and I'd just give my head for that cute little pink one like he had just sold, but it's all gone. Do you know, Kate, every body in town is talking about those lovely MULLS. Just as soon as I finish these things I am going there and do some more shopping, for I saw them get in some entirely new designs in PERCALES, and VELVET RIBBONS and BELTS, and all sorts of things, and some dashing SILK STOCKINGS in Tan and made Modes, for only 99 cents, and all pure Silk, too, Kate.

Kate Levelhead—Come by for me, Annie, Tuesday morning, and I'll go down with you. Annie Vivacious—All right. Good bye! Good bye!
