OUTLINES.

A quorum had to be drummed up in the Senate yesterday before business could proceed; memorials were presented from Headquarters Grand Army Post, protesting against the fee of ten dollars charged by pension agents under the dependent pension act, and against the federal election bill from St. Louis and Adrian, Michigan; consideration of the bill to transfer revenue marine service to the Navy department was resumed; the tariff bill was taken up, and discussed in a lengthy speech by Mr. Vance; in the House the sundry civil appropriation bill was considered. A shooting affair occurred in Georgia yesterday, when two men were fatally wounded; it was the result of a quarrel over family affairs. Dun & Co. report the tone of the business world as more satisfied and confident; business failures for the week number 192, against 207 last week. A favorable report has been made on the bill granting an annual pension of $2,000 to Mrs. Gen. Geo. B. McClellan. The Norwegian steamer Signe, loaded with fruit, has been wrecked off one of the Bahamas islands. The crops in a great portion of France have been destroyed by incessant rains; wheat is rotting, and the losses are estimated at five hundred million francs. The clock-makers' strike in New York is ended, and work has been resumed; the strike of workmen on the public schools is extending, and may seriously interfere with the opening of the schools in the fall. N. Y. markets: Money easy at 4 1/2 percent; southern flour firmer and less active; wheat unsettled and dull, No. 2 red 98@99 cents; corn firm at No. 2 red 46 1/2@47c at elevator; rosin quiet; spirits turpentine dull at 42@42 1/2c.

The proposed boycott is unwise and impracticable. It is bad politics. President Harrison got lost in Washington a few days ago. He must have been wearing his grandfather's hat. The hotel waiters in St. Louis are on a strike. The man who don't strike is the hotel guest. He waits while the waiter strikes. Congressman Cooper had the mudge in him and stuck to Reed who has finally come down, and it is now said that Commissioner Raum will be investigated, or whitewashed. Philadelphia is said to have within her limits 8,000 vagrant children who are homeless and without family ties. Philadelphia believes in protection but does not seem to extend it to her little waifs. Professor Putnam says man has existed for ten thousand years in this country. We don't doubt it. We have seen men who must have existed that long, for in all the time we have known them they have not changed a particle. Chancellor Von Caprivi is quoted as saying that American hogs will be admitted into Germany after October next. Give the American hog half a chance and he will get there. Bismarck made a great mistake when he prayed himself against the American hog. If Boss Reed had not fought the silver dollar so hard he might have got his head on it, which would have made him immensely popular. He should have thought of this. He has missed his biggest chance to get the American people to take him without a protest. A severe drought has extended over a large area of the West, and the whole of New England is afflicted in the same way. Between drought and high tariffs the farmer of the East and West is on the ragged edge. We haven't any drought down this way, but the h. t. gets here all the same. Bro. Robinson, who furnishes the sunshine for the Durham Sun, has issued a pocket souvenir edition, complimentary to the North Carolina Press Association. It is a nulum in parvo edition, containing much valuable information, and many points about that hustling burg.

It is reported by authority that President Harrison has paid $10,000 for that Cape May cottage which John Wanamaker presented to Mrs. H. This is quite proper and shows what public opinion freely expressed will sometimes do. Having paid for that house President Harrison will feel much more at ease in it.

Mr. J. B. Hussey, for many years connected with the press of this State, is now making a tour of the State as a representative of that able and sterling paper the National Democrat, published in the city of Washington. It is not only one of the ablest champions of Democratic principles in this country, but as an educator of the people in the great issues which divide the Democratic and Republican parties it is without a superior if it has an equal. Aside from the editorial ability which characterizes it, its contributions from distinguished and able writers, and the speeches of Democratic Representative and Senators on the great questions of the day which appear week to week, make it an invaluable paper to those who would be well posted on the issues before the American people. If there had been no census taken Kansas City, Mo., would still be a large city. She claimed 240,000 and when the enumerators returned only 133,000 that whole town became hopping mad. Then the city authorities decided to have the work done over again, and when they couldn't drum up more than 132,000 they made peculiar remarks about the whole census business.

LOCAL DOTS. Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted. The anglers are cooping up their tackle for the blackfish next Monday. There will be preaching tomorrow at Grace M. E. Church at 11 a. m. and 8.15 p. m. Service to-morrow at St. Andrews' Presbyterian Church, 11 a. m. There will be no night service. Services at the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow at 6 p. m., conducted by Rev. J. W. Primrose. Heavy rains were reported yesterday along the line of the Carolina Central railroad, as well as on the C. F. & Y. V. road. The Cape Fear river continues low at Fayetteville, but it is expected that recent rains in the up-country will soon give good floating water. Receipts of cotton at this port for the crop year to July 25th, 132,811 bales; to same date last year, 152,015 bales. Decrease, 19,304 bales. Divine services at St. James' Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 6 p. m. The rector will officiate in the morning, and at 6 p. m. will conduct the service at Lebanon Chapel, Wrightsville Sound. The prayer and experience meeting of business and working men at 8.15 o'clock at the Seamen's Bethel to-night will be conducted by Mr. B. F. Hall. The ladies, seafaring men, and the soldiers are invited to attend. As all the "old sports" guarantee fine weather next Monday, there will no doubt be a rush for the decks of the Sylvan Grove, and the unfortunate blackfish will suffer as they never suffered before. This will be a good opportunity for some of the soldier boys to try their luck. Mr. R. C. Hoffman, Vice President, and Mr. L. F. Myers, General Superintendent of the Seaboard Air Line, were here yesterday on official business. Mr. Joseph Dickerson, Superintendent's Private Secretary, was also here. There are few men in the country so young as Mr. Myers who occupy so responsible a position as his. A man named Skipper, from Brunswick county, who was in the city yesterday and left for home about noon, considerably under the influence of liquor, returned about five o'clock in the afternoon and reported that he had been robbed of four dollars in money and a pistol by three highwaymen—a white man and two colored men—who attacked him some three miles from town. Persons who knew him attached very little credence to his story.

Third Congressional District. The following is the Executive Committee of the Third Congressional District as appointed at the recent Convention at Clinton: Bladen—R. S. White. Cumberland—Z. W. Whitehead. Duplin—S. B. Newton. Harnett—T. J. Swann. Moore—D. E. McIver. Onslow—Dr. Cyrus W. Thompson. Pender—T. J. Armstrong. Sampson—W. S. Thompson. Wayne—F. A. Daniels.

THE ALLEGED HIGHWAYMAN. Dennis Horn Acquitted of the Charge of Robbing Alonzo Millis and Convicted of Assault and Battery on Alex. Moore. The trial of Dennis Horn, colored, on two indictments—one for highway robbery and the other for assault and battery—occupied the greater part of the time of the Criminal Court yesterday. The two cases were tried before different juries, and resulted in an acquittal on the charge of highway robbery and conviction of assault and battery. Col. B. R. Moore, Solicitor, conducted the prosecution, and Col. A. M. Waddell, attorney for the W. O. & E. C. R. Co., appeared as counsel for the prisoner. Alonzo Millis, a white farmer, the complainant, testified that the robbery took place about 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the 19th of June last, on the road from Wilmington to Northeast Ferry, about six and a half miles from the city. He identified the prisoner as a man who overtook him on the road, and walked by the side of witness' cart, with a club in his hand made of a piece of scantling. Millis suspected the man of some evil design, and took his money out of his pocket and put it in the bottom of the cart. As soon as he did this the man jumped into the cart, seized the money and jumped out again. Just then two men came out of the bushes in a threatening manner, and prisoner said to them, "don't strike him, I've got the money." The prisoner was also identified by other witnesses for the State. Mr. Jackson, who lives on the road, four miles from the city, testified that on the day mentioned Millis stopped at a well in front of Jackson's house about 2 o'clock. Went out to speak to Millis and saw the prisoner drinking water at the well. After drinking he went up the road ahead of Millis. Was positive that the prisoner was the man. A colored woman living near Jackson's place, saw Millis, Jackson and a colored man at the well on the day and at the time mentioned, and to the best of her knowledge the prisoner was the man. Another witness for the State, Mr. Harrell, testified that he was on his way to the city in a cart and met Millis in the road, a colored man walking by the cart. He swore positively that the prisoner was that man. It was claimed by the defence that the prisoner on the day on which the robbery is alleged to have occurred, was at work on the W. O. & E. C. railroad, at Scott's Hill. Mr. W. B. Goodwin, track-layer on the road, said he was at work on the 19th of June with the prisoner, twenty-one miles from Wilmington; prisoner worked all day, and was paid for a full day's work. Mr. Brockman, track engineer on the road, testified that he was certain that the prisoner was at work on the 19th of June. Anthony Brown, colored, worked with prisoner; and testified that prisoner went to work on the 19th of June and worked three hours, laying track, when they knocked off. The case was given to the jury in the afternoon, and a verdict of not guilty was returned. The prisoner (Horn) was then put upon trial for assault and battery on Alex. Moore, a colored farmer, who was attacked on the road on his way home from the city on the 25th of June, by a colored man, whose object was supposed to be robbery, and who struck Moore with a club, but was frightened off by Moore's cries for help. Six witnesses swore most positively that Horn was the man seen on the road near the place where the robbery occurred, and Moore also was positive that prisoner was the man who assaulted him. The prisoner's defence, as in the first case, was an alibi, and the same witnesses testified in his behalf that he was at work on the railroad on the 25th day of June. In this case, however, the prisoner was found guilty, the jury bringing in a verdict at night after Court had adjourned.

Concert at the Hammocks. The following programme will be rendered by Prof. John G. Miller's band at the pavilion this afternoon. March, "African," Ramsdell. Waltz, "Brilliant Eyes," Frey. Serenade, "Wayside Chapel," Wilson. Cornet Solo, "Polka Enchantment," by G. J. Miller, Jr. Bewitching Eyes Schottische, Pecham. March, "Honor the Brave," Rollinson. Caprice, "Odetta," Dooks. "Vivat Galop," Likof. From this date the band will play at the Island Beach Hotel on Tuesday and Friday evenings, and at the Pavilion at the Hammocks on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings. Death of Miss Julia Bear. The sorrowful announcement was made yesterday of the death, in Boston, Mass., after a short illness, of Miss Julia Bear, only daughter of the late Marcus and Mrs. Carrie Bear, of Wilmington, aged sixteen years. Her remains will be brought here for interment, and the funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock from the residence of Mr. Sol. Bear, on South Fifth street.

ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT. IN AND AROUND CAMP. It rained at intervals in camp yesterday, but not enough to mar the occasion. Col. Stanhope E. Blunt, U. S. A. is in camp each day, and has made a host of friends. Dr. Hubert Haywood, Surgeon General, says there is but little sickness in camp. The Y. M. C. A. tent was crowded all day yesterday when the soldiers were not on duty. The camp is thoroughly inspected every morning and the police regulations are admirable. The hotels at Wrightsville and the Hammocks are crowded with guests, either permanent or transient. Capt. Dick Williams, in command of the Greenville Company, is an affable officer and is popular with his men. The soldier boys manage to have lots of reasonable fun these pleasant nights between dress parade and taps. The condition of the camp is reported as "distressingly healthy," with hardly any sickness worthy of the name. No artillery nor rifle practice at the battery yet. There is some sort of a "hitch" about the arrival of the target. The wagonettes and other carriages running from Wrightsville station to Camp Latimer did a thriving business yesterday. The absence of drunkenness or of men under the influence of intoxicants is a commendably noticeable feature of the Encampment. Mrs. E. L. Gilmer, Mrs. Bradshaw, and Miss Lucy Ball, of Greensboro, dined yesterday at headquarters, Gov. Fowle also being present. The Wilmington Light Infantry ought to be out in force at Camp Latimer. Their presence would be very pleasant to the boys who are in camp. A good many young people were sadly disappointed last night on account of the weather, which prevented them from attending the german at the Hammocks. Visitors at Wrightsville ought to be accomplished pedestrians, for if they go in the vicinity of the station there or at the Hammocks they are sure to strike a gait (gate). Maj. Smith, of General Glenn's staff, says he is familiar with all the ground about Wrightsville. He knew it in "war times," and was in Capt. Southerland's battery. We saw one case yesterday that should be reported under the head of "too much beer," and where sobriety prevailed he looked decidedly lonesome. It was not a bad case. Commissary General Cantwell is in camp, and although his military service dates back to the Mexican war, he is as lively and fond of military life as the most enthusiastic recruit, of less than a year's experience. While the rain fell in perfect torrents in Wilmington yesterday afternoon there was but a slight shower in camp. The men were on dress parade at the time and the shower was over before they got very wet. The Third Regiment Band are indignant because their regulation uniforms, which were to have been completed in June last, have not yet reached them. They hope to have them before breaking camp. Conductors Lenmore and Phillips, of the Seacoast Railroad, are having a plenty of hard work, but are polite, courteous and accommodating to the great number of passengers, and are always good-natured, under all circumstances. Quite a number of soldiers, who could not leave their homes and business before duty last night, and we are sorry to say, that several were obliged to leave, so that the number remains about the same. Lieut. W. A. Wynne, acting Adjutant of the First Regiment, although quite young and performing his first service in that capacity, is a prompt, efficient and pains-taking officer, conducting his varied and onerous duties with entire satisfaction to all. To-day is expected to be a gala day in Camp Latimer. The Governor will review the troops, and the men will don their best "harness" and do their utmost to deserve praise from the Commander-in-Chief. If the weather is favorable a great number of visitors from the city will be present. The Y. M. C. A. headquarters is about the busiest place in camp. It is provided with plenty of chairs, tables, conveniences for letter-writing, besides being supplied with many of the State papers, the leading dailies and most popular magazines, where those who desire can read not only the home news, but what is transpiring in the world at large. The Falls Murder. It is possible that some light may be thrown upon the murder of Mr. Nathan Falls at an investigation that will probably be held to-day. Arrests were made several days ago of persons suspected of complicity in the murder, and who have since been confined in jail.

THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE GUARD. A Rainy Day in Camp—Arrival and Reception of Gov. Fowle—Musical Entertainment by the Y. M. C. A.—Visitors at the Camp. The appearance of the weather yesterday morning was not favorable for a pleasant day, yet none of the regular exercises were neglected, and at the proper hour the "Hornet's Nest," Rifleman, Capt. Robinson, and Co. Capt. Perry; the companies detailed for escort duty, and preceded by the Third Regiment band, under the command of Maj. E. C. Harrell, proceeded to Wrightsville station to receive and escort Gov. Fowle, who was to arrive on the morning train from Wilmington, to headquarters. The Governor arrived in due season, accompanied by Col. T. W. Strange, of his personal staff, and was met at the station by Adjutant General Glenn, who conducted him to the carriage which was in waiting for him. The line of march was immediately taken up for camp, where they arrived about half past ten o'clock. Arriving in camp the Governor was conveyed to the quarters of Quarter Master General Olds, where met the staff officers of the camp; the latter in full uniform. As both regiments were drawn up in line of battle when the Governor arrived they wheeled into columns of companies and passed in review at once, the officers saluting and the men with arms at a "carry" as they passed. They marched with soldierly precision and bearing, and deserve commendation for their fine and correct marching. The review having been accomplished the men were dismissed, and the line officers came forward and greeted the Governor, who had a pleasant word and a cheery smile for all. During the day arrangements were perfected for to-night's concert. The concert will be given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., and the programme will be as follows: Forepaugh's Aggregation Overture, Southall, by Third Reg't band. Recitation (Parrhasius and the Captive), J. E. Tingle, Henderson Guards. Serenade (Pleasant Dreams), Ripley, by the band. Recitation (poem original), "The Unknown Drummer Lad," Tasker Polk, Warren Guards. Quartette (Whispering Hope), R. B. Boyd, H. Williams, W. K. Williams, W. R. Watson, Warren Guards. Recitation (comic), "John Smith," by J. R. Wilder, Hornets' Nest Rifleman. Fantasia (Chit-Chit), Herndon, by the band. There will be religious services at the Y. M. C. A. tent to-morrow (Sunday) evening, conducted under the auspices of the Association, in which it is expected that some of the prominent members of the Guard will take an active part. The threatening weather kept many from the camp grounds who had intended to utilize their weekly half holiday by a visit to the soldiers, although a large number went from the city on all the evening trains. They passed the hours in rambling around the camp until the hour for drill and dress parade, when they flocked to the guard line to witness the manoeuvres, and were deeply interested spectators of a few of the duties of soldiers in time of actual war. It was an interesting exhibition to the young because they had seldom seen even the semblance of war, of which it was a counterfeited, and to the elderly because it brought mournful memories of those sad and trying days when they saw such scenes with hearts beating proudly, but in anxious solicitude for loved ones who were in the ranks, soon to leave them never more to return.

Knocked Down and Robbed. Police Sergeant Bender, while making his rounds last night, found a colored man at a negro lodging house on Water street, who said he had been stepped near Parsley & Wiggins' mill, coming from Meares' Bluff, last night, by five or six men, who knocked him down and robbed him of four dollars in money. The man gave his name to the Sergeant as Mack Taylor.
