VOL. XLVI.--NO. 125.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 16, 1890.

WHOLE NO. 7,450

There are twenty-five prisoners, men and women, in New York under indictment for murder, five of whom have been convicted, one Japanese, one negro and the other three white Americans. The Jap, a sailor who made mincemeat out of another Jap sailor, will be the next to try the killing properties of the electrical apparatus. Then comes the negro, and later the white Americans, so that as far as races and nationalities go the electrical killing method will have a fair show

What is the matter with Uncle Jerry Rusk? Whence this profound dumbness? Why does he not write some more epistles to the farmer and throw some light on why the Mc-Kinley tariff does not "open a market for another bushel of wheat or barrel of pork." Mr. Blaine's discoveries have a tendency to get the farmers mixed on the high tariff

If the high tariff protectionists really want to encourage home industry why don't they go straight at it and pass a law making it a misdemeanor for a citizen of this country to import anything made by the 'pauper labor" of Europe? This would simplify matters and show that these patriots were in downright

Politics must be pretty hot in Kansas. Col. John B. Rice writes an open letter to Senator Ingalls denouncing him as a self-confessed political leper and champion of corruption, and says he will take the stump against his own son who is a candidate for the Legislature and pledged to vote for Ingalls.

The difficulty of keeping a quorum in the House is accounted for by the organization of poker parties, which have more attractions for some of the members than the business for which they are paid. But they are not to be so much blamed for this. Reed rule would demoralize any body of men.

Senator Plumb has not only kicked out of the traces on the tariff question, but has jumped up, cracked both heels together, and hit the force bill plumb in the eye. He is establishing the reputation of being very much of a man and quite a jolly

THE SUICIDE.

Coroner's Verdict in the Case of Cuffey

Coroner Jacobs held an inquest yesterday morning on the body of "Cuffey Screven, the colored man whose death from taking laudanum Thursday evening was reported in the STAR. Dr. F. W. Potter reported as the result of the bost mortem examination the finding of laudanum in the stomach of the deceased, and his belief that death was caused by this drug.

Henrietta Hall, the colored woman who reported the condition of Screven, testified that the deceased came into the kitchen where she was at work. He said good evening and remarked that he was very sleepy. She told him that he looked stupid, and he said, "Yes, I am, for I have taken two spoonsful of laudanum." She asked why he took it; but he made no answer, and sat down in a chair and fell asleep. She tried to get him up but could not; succeeded finally in partially arousing him, and he asked her not to call a doctor. Upon hearing the above testimony the jury rendered a verdict that the deceased-Cuffey Screven-came to his death from an overdose of laudanum administered by his own hands.

A Sad Bereavement. Evander Whitfield, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Toomer, severely scalded last Wednesday by the overturning of a vessel containing boiling water (as mentioned in the STAR), died yesterday evening. The deepest sympathy is felt for the parents in their sad bereavement. The funeral services will take place this afternoon at half-past four o'clock from the residence of the family several weeks and knew nothing about on South Fifth street.

A FATAL PISTOL SHOT.

Clara New Dies From the Wound Inflict ed by Julius Bloodworth-The Coroner's Inquest, Etc.

Clara New, the young colored woman who was shot by Julius Bloodworth last Wednesday, died yesterday morning at half-past ten o'clock at the house where the shooting occurred, in McRae's alley. Dr. F. W. Potter, superintendent of of health, who attended the woman, made a post mortem examination of the body, but the Coroner was not informed of the woman's death until about five o'clock in the afternoon, and then only by a friend of the woman who applied for an order for a coffin and a permit for the burial of the body. Coroner Jacobs at once took steps to hold an inquest, and summoned and empanelled the following as jurymen: F. S. Merrick, R. F. Rowan, T. C. Miller, Elijah McKellar, Monroe Byrd and Jno.

Dr. Potter testified to having made a bosi mortem examination on the body of the deceased. There were three holes, he said, made by the ball in the small intestine on its passage into the backbone, but after examining closely for two hours he had to abandon the search without finding the ball.

Minerva Wright testified that she was in the kitchen with the deceased and Julius Bloodworth; they were playing, and the next thing I knew a pistol shot was fired. I saw the deceased fall on the floor and tried to get her up, and then ran out and called Joe Boney and Mag Wheeler, and then went off after a doctor, and then to the City Hall. After heard the shot I saw the man go out the kitchen door, and haven't seen him since. His name is Julius Bloodworth.

Mag Wheeler said Minerva called her and asked her if she had seen her brother Julius; she had not seen him. Minerva said he had shot Clara. Mag said she then went over and helped Clara into

The jury rendered a verdict that the deceased, Clara New, came to her death from a pistol-shot at the hands of Julius Bloodworth.

John Bloodworth, father of the murderer, was in the city yesterday, and called at the City Hall. He told Mayor Fowler that he had not seen Julius for Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

A Handsome and Commodious Structure to be Erected on Front and Mulberry

The proper papers for the lot on Mulperry street between Front and Nutt, recently purchased from Hall & Pearsall by the Young Men's Christian Association, have been executed and the property is now in the hands of the Association. The buildings now on the place will be sold at auction next Tuesday and will be immediately removed, preparatory to the erection of a handsome structure of pressed brick or brown

Mr. S. W. Faulk, architect. of New Castle, Pa., will be here next Monday to secure the data necessary to enable him to execute the final plans and detailed specifications. Our own city could possibly have furnished a skilled architect, but Mr. French has had extended experience in designing Association buildings and is therefore best fitted for this work.

The building, it is intended, will be first class in every particular and an ornament to the city. Twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars will be expended in its construction. It will be three stories on Front street and four stories on Nutt, On Nutt street the first and second floors (seventy-five feet deep) will be fitted for store room and offices, and, under the terms of sale, will be occupied by Messrs. Hall & Pearsall for their business, The first floor on Front street will be occupied by two stores, 30x65 feet, between which will be a commodious entrance to the Association rooms on the second floor. On the same level as the first floor on Nutt street, in rear of Hall & Pearsall's store, and extending partly underneath the stores on Front street, will be the

The third and fourth floors on Nutt street will be fitted for a handsome lecture and music hall, with a seating capacity of over one thousand.

The second and third stories on the Front street end will be used exclusively for the Association rooms. Through the past twelve months the committee on the purchase of a lot have worked earnestly and faithfully in behalf of this movement for the young men of Wilmington, and should be unstintedly commended for their success in securing the present eligible site. Plan after plan have they canvassed, and have never flagged in their determination to procure a good and desirable place for this important building. The place has many advantages. It has a splendid southern exposure and will get the breeze from that quarter, making it comfortable and securing ample ventilation, Every visitor to the city must pass right by it, by whatever road he comes, except the Onslow road. Owing to the large number of young men employed in the railroad offices and shops it is very nearly in the centre of population of that class of the community. There will be an assured income from both the Nutt and Front street ends. Already one of the stores on Front street has been spoken for, and, as before stated, the entire Nutt street end

The directors have decided to sell the ot on Market street, and it is being advertised for that purpose.

This is the most earnest and extended movement yet made in Wilmington in behalf of the physical, social, intellectual and moral welfare of her young men, and should and doubtless will receive the hearty support of the com-

Happy Family Reunion in Pender.

A correspondent of the STAR writes: There is not a more loving or affectionate family than that composing the eight children and their parents, Mr. F. H. Bell and wife Susan, living near Rocky Point, Pender county. These eight children, living in various portions of Pender and other counties, were assembled in joyful reunion on Friday last at the elegant and happy home of their honored father and mother, and spent the day most happily. The dinner table contained every delicacy and luxury that could tempt the appetite. Six of these children are happily married and husbands and wives were also present. Mr. Bell is well known as one of the foremost and best citizens of Pender, and one of its largest and most successful farmers. This delightful reunon was the more agreeable because of the presence of his son, Dr. C. D. Bell, a talented and leading physician of Gates county, and a big farmer.
