OUTLINES.

Yesterday's session of the Senate was devoted to eulogies of the late Senator Beck of Kentucky; Mr. Blackburn gave a beautiful sketch of the life of the deceased, which was devoted to the aid and elevation of his fellow man; it had been moulded on that faith, which he believed was doing God's service; tributes of affection and regret were also delivered by a number of other Senators; the consideration of the lard bill was the principal business of the House and a large number of members took part in the debate; when a vote was taken on the passage of the bill it was found that no quorum was present, and it will come up again on Monday or Tuesday.

Since the last of June 372,000 applications have been made for pensions under the dependent pension law, an average of about 7,300 a day. As the law allows pension agents a fee of ten dollars in each case for filing these applications it will be seen what a bonanza they have in this dependent pension bill.

Have the Republican Representatives and Senators become so unreliable that they have to pledge them in writing to stand by certain measures? They must be getting fearfully demoralized. But what better could be expected from a Congress run like that is?

A Denver man who had stepped out of single cussedness into married blessedness, informed his friends at his old home that his bride was a handsome Colorado woman, and was mad enough to kill the telegraph man who sent her over the wires as a "handsome colored woman."

A Macon, Ga., man wants the homeliest woman in Georgia to ride on his float in the trades display at the coming State fair, and to draw her out offers a prize of $2,000. Here is a chance for some Chicago woman to make money by migrating to Georgia.

A writer giving the reason why there are so many bald-headed men remaining bachelors says it is because girls adore a handsome suit of hair. But maybe it is because they don't want to run the risk of losing the little hair they have left.

The New York Tribune remarks that "it is a good thing to have a President who never goes fishing on Decoration day." There are a good many people in this country who believe that it wouldn't be seriously hurt if the President who now circulates about the White House went fishing every day. Lige could run the machine about as well as he does, and do his whistling besides.

A voracious traveller has discovered a petrified corn field in Tennessee. A report of that kind need not surprise us coming from a State that has a Representative in Congress like Houk. It ought to be good on freaks. It is a blessing that the corn fields in Kansas are not petrified, for if they were how would the farmers keep warm in winter?

A short grain crop and a surplus destroying Congress are a little too much for Uncle Sam at the same time.

We are indebted to the managers for a premium list of Edenton Fair, which will be held from October 28 to 31. The premiums aggregate over $25,000.

The Raleigh Signal has re-appeared after a lengthy nap. The first article on the first page, a contribution from Wilmington, flies the signal of distress.

The Farmers' Alliance of Missouri at its recent meeting declared against the sub-treasury plan and adopted the Democratic policy on the tariff question.

It is estimated that Canadian and California poachers have already captured 20,000 seals while Mr. Blaine is waiting the convenience of Lord Salisbury to say what he is going to do about it.

The Grant Monument Association of New York protests against the movement in Congress for the removal of Gen. Grant's remains to Arlington cemetery, and Mrs. Grant objects unless it is understood that a place be reserved for her grave beside her husband, a condition made when the present site of burial was decided upon.

Tom Reid has sent Force bill Lodge and several other exhorters up into Maine to stir up the sovereigns for him. Mr. Blaine has other business to attend to and will not take a hand in the racket. He loves Thomas Brackett so well that he will let him paddle his own canoe in his own way, and won't be very sorry if the canoe upsets.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

Prof. M. C. S. Nobles returned home yesterday. Spirits turpentine sold yesterday at 38 1/2 cents per gallon. A large party of excursionists from Raleigh are expected here on Wednesday next.

The revenue cutter Colfax was in port yesterday, but went down the river in the afternoon. Capt. E. J. Pennypacker, Collector of Customs, is again at his post of duty, after a few days illness.

A special meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry is called for tomorrow evening at the Armory.

Mr. A. P. Yopp left yesterday for Newark, N. J., to select and bring out a new locomotive for the Onslow railroad.

A meeting of the Laborer's Union is called for Monday night at 7 o'clock at the Hall, corner of Chesnut and Water streets.

Mayor Fowler advertises for proposals for making a macadamized roadway on Market, from Fourth to Seventh street.

Interments the past week in the city cemeteries are reported as follows: Oakdale, one adult; Bellevue, one adult; Pine Forest, (colored) one adult and one child.

The next full moon, which will be on the 29th inst., will most probably be accompanied with very high tides; but shooting marsh hens is not lawful until September.

The Charlotte "Quicksters"—colored base ball club—beat a Wilmington nine in a game played yesterday, Score 12 to 8. The same clubs play Monday for a purse of $100.

The Governor paid $200 for the capture of Steve Jacobs, the Robeson county murderer who passed through Wilmington a few days ago. His Excellency will now have to appoint a day for Jacobs' execution.

We learn that the school committees of this city at a recent meeting re-elected all of last year's teachers with the exception of a primary teacher in the Peabody school. The next term begins on the 6th of October.

The German brig Frederick Wilhelm Jensen cleared yesterday for Glasgow, Scotland, with cargo of 1,000 casks spirits turpentine and 2,350 barrels rosin, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son and valued at $23,000.

The receipts of cotton here yesterday were 42 bales—nearly all new. Receipts of new cotton at other places mentioned were: New Orleans, 1,467 bales; Savannah, 1,662; Galveston, 1,400; Augusta, 186; Charleston, 123. Nearly five thousand bales in all.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Rev. J. W. Craig will preach to-day at 11 a. m., in Bladen Street M. E. Church and at Fifth Street Church at 8:15 p. m.

Services in the Brooklyn Baptist Church at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m., to-day by the pastor. The public cordially invited.

Services in St. John's Church to-day as follows: Holy Communion at 7:45 a. m., Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11 a. m., Sunday School at 8:45 p. m.

Rev. Mr. Anderson will conduct services at Fifth Street Church this morning at 11 o'clock and at Bladen Street Church in the evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Rev. C. L. Arnold requests that notice be given that Sunday School at St. Paul's Mission, corner Sixth and Queen streets, will be held this Sunday morning at 9:30, as usual.

The pulpit at the Central Baptist Church corner of Seventh and Reid Cross streets, will be occupied to-day as follows: At 11 a. m., by Rev. K. H. Simmons, at 3 p. m. by Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, at 8:30 p. m. by Rev. L. T. Christman.

Over-Reached Himself. The colored base ball players from Charlotte were in trouble yesterday. Dr. W. H. Moore, colored, at whose house on Second street between Market and Princess the members of the club had taken up their quarters on arrival here, objected to their changing their boarding house as they desired to do, claiming that he had agreed to his terms of 75 cents a day for board for each of the six men, and refusing to receive pay for the days spent at his home, locked up their base ball suits and other property and disappeared from his usual haunts. A warrant for "claim and delivery" was issued, and forcible entry was made and the property seized by a constable and delivered to the claimants who gave the bond required.

From all appearances it seems that Dr. Moore has not only lost his boarders, but the amount of their board as well.

The Visit to Clinton—A Most Pleasant Occasion.

The Odd Fellows team, of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, which went to Clinton last Friday for the purpose of conferring the initiatory first, second and third degrees on Judge E. T. Boykin and Mr. W. R. King, of Clinton Lodge No. 124, returned yesterday much pleased with their visit. The captain of the team was P. G. Frank Meier. They began work at 8.30 p. m. Friday with their own paraphernalia, which they brought with them, and finished at 1.30 a. m. yesterday.

The ladies of Clinton had decorated the lodge room with flowers and provided an abundance of iced lemonade, and the members of Clinton lodge met the team and escorted the visitors to Bass' hotel, where they partook of a nice supper.

At the Lodge, after the degrees were conferred, Judge Boykin and others made short addresses.

Past Grand D. B. Nicholson then extended an invitation to the company to adjourn to the hotel where an elegant banquet was spread, graced by the presence of some of the ladies of Clinton.

The members of the team express their appreciation of the kind treatment and hearty hospitality with which they were received by the members of the Lodge and other good people of Clinton.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Nominees for County Officers in New Hanover.

The Republican County Convention for New Hanover met yesterday in the Court House. There was only one contesting delegation—that from the Second Ward, headed by Dr. Bill Moore,—and this was promptly set down upon by the committee on credentials and the VanAmringe delegation from that ward was given the cake.

Mr. F. B. Rice was made permanent chairman, and J. W. Mosely permanent secretary.

The following ticket was nominated: Clerk of Superior Court—S. Van Amringe. Sheriff—W. H. Chadburn. Register of Deeds—J. B. Dudley (colored).

Treasurer—Elijah Hewlett. Coroner—B. Bellous. Constable, Wilmington township—R. F. Holmes.

Legislature—Ben Williams (colored) and Luke Grady.

Four delegates for each township were appointed to the State, Congressional and Senatorial Conventions.

Cotton Belt Bulletin.

The notable feature about the weather yesterday was the absence of rain and the comparatively low temperature that prevailed. Outside of the Wilmington, Charleston, Atlanta and Savannah districts, where there were light showers at a few stations, no rain was reported in the cotton belt. The maximum temperature ranged from 78 to 90 degrees and the minimum from 60 to 70. In the Wilmington district the lowest temperature reported was at Goldsboro and Florence, 54 degrees.

Family Excursion Friday.

Rev. Dr. Hoge.

RANGE OF THE THERMOMETER.

The following is the range of the thermometer yesterday at the Signal Office in this city, as compared with the same date last year:

Jute Bagging.

Nearly all the cotton that has come to this market thus far this season is wrapped in jute bagging, and it is probable that the greater part of the cotton going to other markets is also wrapped in that material. The price of cotton bagging is much higher than it was last year, on account of the high price of cotton, and, besides, cotton bagging does not protect cotton nearly so well as jute bagging. There is another thing which the farmers take into consideration, and that is that under the present system of selling cotton, viz., by gross weight, they get about 80 cents more for a bale of cotton covered with jute bagging than one covered with cotton bagging. Taking into account, therefore, the greater cost of cotton bagging and the wastage which that kind of bagging permits, it may be safely estimated that those who wrap their cotton in jute bagging get fully $1.25 a bale more for it than those who wrap it in cotton bagging. It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that many Alliance men are using jute bagging.
