OUTLINES. In the Senate yesterday the resolution to prevent the sale of spirituous liquors in the Senate wing of the Capitol was referred to the committee on rules; the tariff bill was then taken up, and the schedules relative to tobacco and agricultural products acted upon; all proposed amendments were rejected, and the paragraphs remain as they came from the House; a call of the House was necessary before it could proceed to business, and then tactics were resorted to in order to consume time; the Cannon resolution, offered on Monday, relative to revoking leaves of absence was used as a means of consuming time, when Mr. McAdoo, ot New Jersey, heaped denunciation and ridicule upon Mr. Cannon's statesmanship and historical knowledge and his love for the farmer; the stormiest scenes of the session then ensued, Mr. Cannon and Mr. McAdoo indulging in gross personal epithets, which put the House in a perfeet uproar; other members were drawn into the controversy, when hot words were exchanged between Mr. Wilson, of Washington, and Mr. Beckwith, of New Jersey, both Republicans, the lie passed and a blow given; quiet was finally restored, the Democrats all the while thoroughly enjoying the spectacle of a family quarrel; after the rich scenes a resolution was adopted for the arrest of absentees, and revoking all leaves of absence, except for sickness, and the House adjourned. - Gen. M. H. Bonham, Railroad Commissioner for South Carolina, was found dead in his bed yesterday morning. - A fire in Norfolk vesterday destroyed property valued at from $20,000 to $30,000. - The explosion of a freight train boiler, on an Ohio railroad, yesterday, killed the engineer and fireman; fifteen oil cars were burned. - The protocol of peace between Salvador and Gautemala has been signed. Seven aldermen have been arrested at Biddeford, Maine; by the U.S. marshal, charged with fraudulent use of the voting lists. - The anti-Tillmanites held a conference at Columbia, S. C., Monday night; the proceedings were secret; it is thought that there will be no further attempt to organize the opposition. - - The flagship Charleston has been ordered to return to Honolulu to protect American interests in the Hawaiian Islands, where it is reported a revolution is imminent. - The collapse in the price of cotton has almost stopped business in the Manchester market. - It is stated that a majority of the directors of the American Cotton Lard Co. have resigned, and that their places will soon be filled by men of widely known business ability, who will represent the real holders of the property. — An old man and a little girl, father and daughter, were killed yesterday by jumping from a train, while at full speed, about ten miles from Philadelphia; they were from Illinois, and were bound for Hamburg, Germany. - The Ohio Democrats yesterday nominated several State officers.

A woman in Jersey City who wanted to commit suicide, swallowed a bottle of varnish instead of the bottle of "pizen" which was to put an end to her earthly woes. Varnish is not a pleasant beverage, and it made her so sick that she didn't feel in a mood to lead a funeral procession, and concluded that Jersey City wasn't such a bad place to stay in after all, when the doctors had pumped the varnish out of her.

The State election takes place in Arkansas September 1st. General James P. Egle heads the Democratic ticket, the opposition ticket being headed by N. B. Fizer, Union Labor candidate, who is endorsed by the Republicans. The Democrats claim in advance a majority of 20,000 for their ticket, while the opposition say they will walk in with not less than 10,000 majority. Less sanguine Democrats put the majority at from 5,000 to 10,000.

The new State law in Indiana requires that each party shall have printed on their election tickets some figure or device by which one ticket may be easily distinguished from another. The Republicans are considering what to put on theirs. Why not a "block-of-five" and a fac simile of a $2 bill?

When brought before the court he submitted, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 and be confined in the county jail for thirty days. The sheriff's officers took Watson into custody and he was locked up. Nothing was done with Sheehan, who, it seems, was employed by Watson. The latter was very abusive to the Clerk of the Court at Wrightsvflle, when that officer advised him of the consequences that would follow if he persisted in refusing to obey the law.

A Swallow's Sad Flight.

The large brick chimney that stands in the ruins of the burned mill at the corner of Mulberry and Nutt streets is the home of thousands of swallows, which, at evening, pour in and out of its cavernous depths and circle around its top in unending flight. Tuesday evening a curious accident happened to one of the birds. In its flight downwards it impaled itself on the lightning rod attached to the chimney, and it remains there still, spitted against the sky, a curious sight to all whose attention has been called to it.

inquest were James O. Bowden, E. A. was that the fight between Ramsden and Koch took place in the afternoon on the head.

Dr. Thos. F. Wood, who with Dr. Lane and others made the autopsy on the deceased, testified that Ramsden came to his office on Sunday, the day after the fight, and complained of suffering from a slight wound on the head on the right side and on his face on the left side. The doctor gave Ramsden a wash for his mouth, and he went away; did not see him again until on Monday last when Ramsden was in a dying condition at the hospital.

The doctors gave it as their opinion that the wound on the right side of the head caused Ramsden's death.

RIVER AND MARINE

-The steam tug Blanche which has been lying up for repairs since her woodwork was burned some months ago, made her appearance on the river yesterday in all the glory of bright new fittings and fresh paint, under the command of Capt. T. Jacobs, of Southport. She was saluted by all the vessels in port, as she passed in review up and down the river in front of the city. All the work on the Blanche was done by skilled workmen under the personal supervision of Capt. Tom Harper, her owner. All her iron steam pipes have been removed and pipes of brass and copper substituted. The wheelhouse is of pine, oak and juniper, and she has been supplied with "Snelling's patent steering apparatus."
