OUTLINES.

It was announced in the Senate yesterday that general debate on the tariff bill had closed, with the exception of the day when the final vote is taken...

Mr. Edmunds remarked in his speech in the Senate Wednesday that "if the tariff is bad for the farmer of North Carolina, it is bad for the farmer of Vermont."

There is a man in Kentucky who believes in taking time by the forelock with both hands. He announces himself as a candidate for Assessor in 1894.

The St. Louis Republic suggests the following as a condensation of the tariff bill, which about covers the case:

"Be it enacted that the importation of all articles competing with what New England has to sell is hereby prohibited, under fines which shall not average less than 50 cents on the dollar of value in such articles, when their importation is attempted, provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to deny the plutocratic States the freest possible trade in what they have to buy."

We regret to see the announcement of the death of Capt. T. C. Evans, at his home in Reidsville last Tuesday. For many years he was connected with the press of this State, and was recognized as one of the brightest and readiest writers on it.

The Emperor of Germany is going to publish a newspaper of his own in Berlin. This will give him a chance to get rid of some of his surplus cash.

Florida ought to be a sugar-growing State if it be true, as asserted, that the cane grows luxuriantly there, and can be cultivated at a cost of $10 an acre, as compared to $18 in Cuba and $24 in Louisiana.

Brazil says she is ready to respond to the Blaine reciprocity idea, but in that case, if there should be a deficit, how will Mr. Allison whack on that 5 cents a pound on imported coffee and rabe in $25,000,000?

Mr. Wauamaker says he don't want to be President nor Senator. Perhaps he don't want to wear a pair of wings and be an angel, either.

Jacob Seligman, of Michigan, is only four feet tall but he draws more attention in a crowd than a six-footer, because he can draw his check for $16,000,000.

The Speaker of the Oklahoma House fainted the other day in the excitement of a session. He should wear a sash like Tom Reed. A sash is a great bracer.

The unkindest cut that editors give politicians is the cuts they sometimes print in their papers. We occasionally see some that are the refinement of cruelty.

It is reported that Senator Quay has bought a newspaper in Pennsylvania. The current impression was that Mr. Quay owned a number of newspapers in Pennsylvania.

The census reports 134 religious denominations in the United States, and yet with all these to choose from there are lots of people who can't find religion to suit them.

A Philadelphia paper says there is an $8,000,000 street railway deal about in Boston. Boston must be a queer town when an $8,000,000 street railway deal has to go afoot.

Gov. Gordon so enthused a young lady at Eatonton, Ga., the other day that she rushed up to him to tell him that she "loved him," and then the sly fox said he would rather have her love than the love of all the men around there.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

The half-holiday has gone into Fall and Winter quarters. Spirits turpentine dull at 36 1/2 cents per gallon. No sales. Superior Court in Pender and Brunswick counties next week.

The street hands are repairing the sewers at the foot of Walnut street. Receipts of cotton yesterday 894 bales; receipts the same date last year 5 bales.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Robinson are on a visit to friends and relatives in Vermont.

The police court fines collected the past month amount to $385.83, and the pound fees paid in $25.50.

Capt. A. D. Brown left for New York yesterday, where he will spend about ten days in making his Fall purchases.

The Ladies Foreign Mission Society of St. Andrew's Church will meet this (Friday) afternoon at 4 o'clock in the ladies' room of St. Andrew's Church.

Capt. J. W. Fry, General Manager of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway, is here.

Mr. S. H. Fishback returned from New York last night. As usual, he surveyed the political horoscope up North, and he reached the conclusion that the Democrats will "sweep the country" in November.

The entertainment announced in the STAR to be given to-night at the Carolina Yacht Club House at Wrightsville, has been postponed until some night next week; the date to be more definitely stated hereafter.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday A. S. Robinson, colored, was charged with obstructing one of the docks. He was released on condition of the removal of the obstruction forthwith and paying the costs of the case.

There are no reliable "pointers" in regard to the Collectorship of this port. There is said to be a strong feeling among the colored people here in favor of the appointment of John E. Taylor, the present colored Deputy Collector.

The Charlotte News says that a good many people of that town will attend the Sam Jones meetings, and that it is probable that his engagement will cover two Sundays, arrangements are being made to run two Saturday night excursions from Charlotte to Wilmington.

Notice was posted at the Produce Exchange yesterday that on and after October 3d next, additional reports of the New York and Liverpool cotton futures will be received.

Auditor Riach, of the Atlantic Coast Line, and Mrs. Riach are luxuriating in the famous "Catskills," of New York. They are expected home about the 15th inst.

Speaking of the popularity of Wilmington's seaside resorts, attention was directed yesterday to the fact that Carolina Beach, which many predict will not only be the favorite of the Carolinas but of the South, there were, during the past season, thirteen new and substantial cottages erected by citizens of Fayetteville, Maxton, Columbia, S. C., and other places, and every visitor was charmed with the place.

The cotton compresses are about the busiest places in town just now. At the Champion yesterday the two large Morse presses were in operation, turning out per hour from 125 to 150 bales of compressed cotton, which truckmen were rapidly transferring to stevedores loading the British steamship Picton, lying at one of the piers, and which it is estimated will take about 7,000 bales.

The work of grading the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad to the Virginia line to the point where it is to connect with the Cripple Creek or North Carolina extension of the Norfolk and Western was completed to-day.

Funeral of the Late John Sholar. Funeral services over the remains of the late John Sholar will be held at 11 o'clock this morning in the First Baptist Church, of which he was for many years a member.

Weather Forecast. The following are the weather forecasts for to-day: For Virginia, light local rains, preceded by fair weather, stationary temperature, southerly winds.

OPERA HOUSE.

McCarthy's Mishaps. The theatre season opened last night at the Opera House with McCarthy's Mishaps, and if this is a fair test of what is going to be presented here this winter it will not only be enjoyable to the play-goers, but also profitable to the management.

Miss Lizzie Daly as Jemima Primrose was a most typical old maid, and her interpretation of her part was simply perfect. She has no superior as a dancer, and was recalled again and again.

Little Vinie Daly won the hearts of all by her sweet childish ways and her graceful movements, and was always greeted with loud applause whenever she made her appearance.

Every one who enjoys a good hearty laugh should not fail to see "McCarthy's Mishaps."

Another Sudden Death. Mrs. Lydia Wheeler Found Dead at her Residence on South Front Street.

Mrs. Lydia Wheeler, wife of John Wheeler, residing on Fourth between Queen and Wooster streets, was found lying dead in her room yesterday afternoon about two o'clock.

Death at a Great Age. Mr. Chas. F. Browne received a dispatch yesterday announcing the death of his grandfather, Mr. Thomas Browne, who died at Wayman, Sampson county, last Monday afternoon at the advanced age of 98.

The British brig Edith is discharging ballast at the Champion Compress wharves. The schooner Roger Moore is the first vessel to discharge ballast at the new city wharves belonging to the city, where the old fish market stood.

The British steamship Carn Brea is the second of the season's cotton fleet to arrive. She is consigned to Mr. C. P. Mearns and will take on cargo at the Wilmington Compress.
