The only business done in the Senate vesterday was the consideration of the conference report on the railroad land forseiture bill, when Mr. Morgan made a speech in opposition thereto; Speaker Reed resumed the chair in the House. and his appearance caused a round of applause from the Republicans; the point of no quorum was made at the opening of the session, but the Speaker took no note of it, and attempted to proceed to business, but it was soon discovered that no quorum could be procured, and amid Democratic applause, there was a forced adjournment. -- Dr. James E. Rogers was shot and killed near Alexander, in Buncombe county, Wednesday night, by William F. Boyd; the cause of the shoot ing was a dispute about the payment of an account due Rogers. --- A revolution has broken out in the Canton of Ticino, Switzerland, and several members of the government have been imprisoned and one killed, while the others have fled; troops have been sent to the scene. - Dr. E. J. Roach, a prominent physician of Atlanta, died yesterday. -The tariff bill as it passed the Senate was enrolled yesterday and sent to the House; it will, at the earliest moment, be considered by the ways and means committee, and it is thought will be reported back to the House, with committee recommendations not later than Monday or Tuesday. -Late advices from Guatemala place the Barrunda incident in a new light the captain of the steamer Acapuleo has made a statement which the Guatemalan authorities claim completely justifies their action. - Two men have been arrested at Utica, N. Y., charged with wrecking the train near Albany several days since. — The Republican Senators held a caucus yesterday to arrange the order of business for the rest of the session; about a dozen measures were considered of sufficient importance to warrant them being placed on the programme; the question of adjournment was also talked about, but it was the general opinion that until the tariff bil is finally disposed of the day for adjournment cannot be fixed. --- Nominations for State officers of South Carolina were made at Columbia yesterday, by the Democrats; B. R. Tillman is the nominee for Governor. --- The Southampton strikers were more quiet yesterday, and no riotous demonstrations were made. --- New York markets: Money tight, ranging first at 4 with interest to 6 per cent., last loan, and closing offered at 6 per cent; cotton firm; middling uplands 10 11-16 cents; middling Orleans 10% cents; southern flour firmer and quiet: common to fair extra $3 35@3 90; good to choice do. $4@5 90: wheat dull and 4@ 6 cents higher: No. 2 red $1 06@1 061/2 at elevator; corn 4 cents higher and

When Dr. James McRee, who was afterwards a famous surgeon in Lee's army, had recently obtained his sheepskin, and before he had begun to practice, his father, also a very learned physician and scientist, owned a negro boy who one day was eating persimmons, where some rams or goats were. The boy was fooling with one of the animals and received a butt in his chest that caused a persimmon seed to lodge in his windpipe. The old doctor told his son that if he could cut it out successfully he might have the boy-and the future army surgeon cut the windpipe-the seed popped out-the life of the boy was saved, and as a man he long served the master whose skill had rescued him from death.

Cotton Belt Bulletin.

There was rain yesterday at all the stations in this district of the cotton belt; the heaviest down-pour was at Newbern, which reported 1.07 inches. Wadesboro reported half an inch and the other stations smaller amounts: The maximum temperature ranged from 80° at Lumberton to 88° at Wadesboro; the average for the district was 84°; two degrees higher than the maximum in this

For Georgia, local showers, stationary temperature, except warmer in northern portion, variable winds.

For Florida, local rains, stationary temperature, variable winds.

Capt. John T. Rankin yesterday received contributions amounting to twelve dollars, in response to the appeal published in the STAR from the Ladies' Memorial Association of Fredericksburg, Va., for funds to be used in placing headstones to mark the graves of North Carolina soldiers in the Confederate Cemetery at that place. Capt. Rankin will be glad to receive and forward any sums of money that may be expected to return to-day. The Mignon is valued at about $10,000 and is insured.

The juvenile Charlestonians are in trouble. The chief of police has notified them that it is a violation of the city ordinances to drive goat carts on the sidewalks. A few of the Wilmington boys do worse than that. They not only use the sidewalks for a driveway, unmercifully.

The Peanut Crop.

Peanuts are higher now than they The excursionists from Mount Airy have been before in years, and the prospect is that prices will be well maintained. Reports from Virginia, which produces the great bulk of the crop, are that while vines look thrifty and there has apparently been no drawback for the growers, there are few nuts on the vines and the yield will be small.

A wedding in high life was declared suddenly off in St. Louis the OUTLINES. other day. A Mr. Frewen, of England, had wooed and won the affections of a charming widow, who had been wooed and won four times before, her last husband being a wealthy man named January, who, dying left an estate of $5,000,000 settled upon the children. Mr. Frewen concluded he would investigate the financial side of the question before the knot was tied, and finding how prominently the children figured in the premises, decided that it would not be in keeping with the dignity of a high-toned English gentleman to play second fiddle to the young Januaries, and declared the match off, and then went off himself. Awful.

A writer in the Forum advises people when they see a tornado or any thing of that sort meandering in their direction not to get excited, but to remain cool and self-possessed, just as if a tornado wouldn't snatch the hair off of a self-possessed man as quick as any other. He should have coupled with his advice the injunction to strike for a dug-out without ceremony. The dug-out is the only thing for which a tornado and "sich" have any re-

The cotton crop of the South this year will be the largest ever raised. This is conclusive evidence, that the white and black people of the South are not getting along at all, and that the white man spends most of his time hunting up the negroes with shot guns, and that the negroes spend most of their time keeping out of the range of the shot gun. The cotton raises itself.

The present constitution to amend which the convention was called was framed in 1850. Senator Hampton, of South Carolina, says that while he will accept a re-election to the Senate, if so honored, he will not ask for it. He says he has never asked for an office and that it is too late to begin now.
