The river and harbor bill, which has been signed by Speaker Reed, now awaits the signature of the presiding officer of the Senate, and after this is obtained it will then be sent to the Senate for his approval. - The conterees on the tariff bill were in session about an hour yesterday morning; the opinion is expressed that an agreement will not be reached before Monday next. - An important event in the industrial development of the South is reported from Chattanooga; a successful casting of steel from Southern iron his been made, which explodes the notion that it contained too much phosphorus for this purpose. - The arrange by the fire in the Alhambra made, at Granada, amounts to $50,000; a is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary to screen the theft of some of the many works of art contained in the palace. -- A ministerial crisis is reported from Portugal. ---The outrages in Armenia are of the most terrible character; murders are being constantly committed and women subjected to the grossest indignities. --- The slave trade, under German protection, in Africa, has revived to an extent unknown in thirty years. -Republican nominations for State officers were made yesterday in Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Hamp-

Mr. Harrison is now doing some dead head junketting around Cresson Springs in a palace car furnished gratis by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

It is said that Speaker Reed will throw his whole weight against reciprocity. In this event we shall see which weighs the more, the sash or the plume.

Senator McMillan is said to be the best dressed man in the Senate. Mr. Kennedy thought after he got through with him that Boss Quay was the best dressed.

The Democrats and anti-prohibition Republicans of Kansas are pooling their issues, a fusion which seems to be causing more or less confusion in the Republican camp. If the reciprocity amendment to the tariff bill sticks there is nothing to prevent Mr. Harrison from becoming very rich if he turns his attention to the accumulation of lucre. One half the farmers in Sangamon county, Ill., Abraham Lincoln's home county, are now renters instead of owners of their farms. They are realizing the benefits from the protective tariff.

There is a fatal epidemic prevailing in Carroll county, Ohio, which was at first thought to be malignant typhoid fever, but is now pronounced to be genuine Asiatic cholera. Last Thursday there were six deaths in one neighborhood.

• WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1890.

Let there be a full turn out of the Democracy at the meeting called by the Executive Committee, at the City Court Room, Friday night. Then the organization is to be made and the ball set in motion for the coming campaign. This is something in which every Democrat in the county should take an active and personal interest, for New Hanover can and must be redeemed.

A census taken of one ward in New York city, with only a population of 1,103 shows an error of 184 as returned by Mr. Porter's census taker. If this be a fair sample of the way the work was done in that city no wonder that there is a lively kicking. But New York is a Democratic city.

It has been questioned whether steel for structural purposes could be successfully made by basic process out of Southern iron ore. This question has been set at rest by the successful tests made at Chattanooga Tuesday, as reported in the STAR's press dispatches this morn-

In view of the fact that pearl-fishing has become a great industry along the Manitowoc river, in Wisconsin, it is hard to account for the failure of the McKinley tariff builders to put an extra tax on pearls. This is an unpardonable neglect of one of our infant industries.

Ex-Gov. Bullock, Republican, of could be eliminated from the Republican party, it might eventually make a track in the sand in the South. After that was done there wouldn't be even the hoofs of the beast left.

It is expected that similar arrangements will be made with the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley road, and an effort will be made, also, to have reduced rate tickets put on sale at Raleigh.

Opera House.

Bell's Marionettes had another packed house last night, which shows the appreciation in which this company is held by the people of Wilmington. Every act is a novelty in itself, and the Marionettes alone would amply repay any one for going to see the performance; but they are only one of the many attractions. Among the other interesting features are the musical glasses, the trained canary birds and Madam Strong's Fata Morganna. Captain George Liable, the diminutive comedian, and Boyd, the male soprano, attracted much attention and received many warm plaudits. The lightning crayon sketches of Messrs. Baker and Delmar were universally admired.

The presents awarded last night were not only valuable but most useful, and were given in profusion. The leading present, a thirty-five dollar bedroom set of furniture, was won by Robt. Reardon, colored, No. 11 Third street. To-night the leading present will be a cow and calf.

OBITUARY.

Mr. H. C. Prempert, One of Wilmington's Prominent German Citizens.

Mr. Henry C. Prempert, who was reported so ill in Wednesday's STAR, died yesterday afternoon at a quarter past two o'clock. Mr. Prempert never fully recovered from an attack of "the grip" which he had last winter, but the immediate cause of his death was an affection of the heart and a congestive chill. He was born in Herbesleben, Coburg-Gotha, Germany, on October 20th, 1826, and consequently would have been sixtyfour years old on the 20th of October next. He served in the German Army after which he came to the United States in 1854 and settled in Baltimore, but left Baltimore in 1857 and located at Goldsboro. He was a charter member of the Goldsboro Rifles, and as such was one of the first to answer the call of Governor Ellis to take possession of Fort Macon, After this he joined Company H, Second North Carolina Regiment, and served as Regimental Drum-Major until the end of the civil war. He was a gallant Confederate soldier, and none loved and revered "The Lost Cause" better than he. At the end of the war he commenced business again at Goldsboro, but left there in 1868 for Raleigh, where he remained until 1873, when he again returned to Goldsboro, living in that town until 1877. In 1877 he removed to Wilmington, where he has lived ever since.

Mr. Prempert was a member of the I. O. O. F., and was a Past Grand in that order; he was also a Royal Arch Mason and a Knight Templar, and he was a Past Chancellor of Germania Lodge No. 4, Knights of Py-

He leaves a wife, three sons and one daughter and two sten-daughters

His daughter is living in Salisbury, and is the wife of Mr. J. W. Kerr, of that place. One of his step-daughters married Mr. Wm. Bonitz, of this city. Mr. Rem Prempert, his oldest son, lives in Philadelphia, while his youngest son, is located in Washington, D. C. Mr. Arthur Prempert, the next oldest son resides in this city.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at half-past four o'clock in St. Paul's Lutheran church, of which he was a member, and the members of the different Orders to which he belonged will turn out to do honor to the memory of their friend.

Mr. Prempert was a man of many noble qualities, and all who knew him respected him for his strict integrity. He made a vast number of friends in this city who sympathize deeply with his family in this sad hour of their bereave-

Though naturally impulsive and excitable, he was a man of kindly heart and generous impulses; devoted to his family and loval to his friends. He was enthusiastic in his attachment to the various benevolent orders of which he was a member, and was always a leader in every movement inaugurated for their advancement.

Quietly and peacefully he "crossed over the river." He will be sadly missed; but his memory will long be treasured in the hearts of his "troops of friends."

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

The Sound Place of Maj. C. M. Stedman Sold to a Syndicate.

The beautiful Summer residence of Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, on Wrightsville Sound, has been sold to Messrs. Jacob S. Allen, Thos. W. Strange and Wm. M. Cumming for $7,500. It is one of the most attractive places on the coast, embracing commodious buildings, thirty-nine acres of land, with a large and handsome lawn running almost down to the water's edge. It is the intention of the purchasers to divide the property into lots of suitable size, and to have a big auction and a big oyster roast, preceded by a big advertisement in the STAR. The transaction is considered a good one for the seller, but under the plan proposed by the purchasers they will no doubt realize a handsome profit on their investment.

CRIMINAL COURT.

The Barker Perjury Case on Trial-Other Cases Disposed of.

In the Criminal Court yesterday morning, the case of Jno. A. Barker, charged with perjury, was called. Messrs. Russell & Ricaud and Bruce Williams appeared as counsel for defendant and Solicitor B, R. Moore and M. Bellamy, Esq., for the State. The case was continued from the previous term, and it having been discovered that there was an arror in the bill of indictment, on motion by the State's counsel a juror was withdrawn and a mistrial ordered by the Court. A new bill of indictment having been made, the case was set for trial at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the Court took up and disposed of the following cases:

State vs. Caleb Blount, larceny. Verdict guilty. Defendant fined $50 and

State vs. Annie Davis, assault and battery with a deadly weapon. Verdict guilty. Defendant sentenced to six months in the County House of Cor

State vs. Dover Johnson, larceny. Verdict guilty. Defendant sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. State vs. Stephen Graham, false pretence. Juror withdrawn. Mistrial ordered by the Court. Defendant discharged.

At 3 p. m. the Barker perjury case was again taken up, and a motion was made by defendant's counsel for a continuance. The motion was over-ruled by the Court. A plea of former jeopardy was then interposed by counsel and argued by Judge Russell for the defendant and Col. Moore for the State; but this also was over-ruled. Judge Russell then urged a plea in abatement alleging that twelve grand jurors were not present while the investigation was going on, and that there were not twelve grand jurors present when the indictment was made, as required by law. He asked that a jury be empannelled to try

The Solicitor argued that the record showed that there were twelve grand jurors present; and that this was not the proper time to make the plea-it could only be made on a motion for arrest of judgment,

On this point, however, the Court decided that the plea was made at the proper time. The Solicitor admitted that there were only eleven jurors present when the indictment was found, and explained that one of the jurors, being a connection of Jno. L. Barker's wife, had requested that he be excused. Judge Russell-There were only nine jurors present. The foreman of the grand jury was called, and stated to the Court that eleven jurors were present when the investigation was made and when the indictment was found. After a little legal sparring between counsel the Court announced: "The plea is overruled and if there are no more motions to be made, we will proceed with the trial of the case." The jury was then empannelled, and Solicitor Moore stated the issue: That at the Superior Court for this county, in December, 1884, before Judge Avery, Jno. L. Barker, (son of the defendant, Ino. A. Barker), brought an action against his wife, Sarah A. Barker, for divorce; that the divorce was granted upon the testimony of the two Barkers, who were the only witnesses; the only question was did John A Barker, the defendant in this case, swear falsely in giving his testimony, as to the relations of Sarah A.

Barker with one Elijah Keeter. Counsel for defendant objected to the whole record of the divorce case in the Superior Court being put in evidence by counsel for the State, and took exception to the ruling of the Court, which decided that the State might introduce it.

The record of the case was then produced and read, after which the examination of witnesses for the State was commenced and had not concluded when at 6 p. m. the Court took a recess until 10 o'clock this morning.

One of the first witnesses examined was Mr. Elijah Keeter, who swore positively that no improper relations had ever existed between himself and Bar-

The witness was then picked up by the opposing counsel, and the following colloquy ensued:

Where were you in 1882. Mr. Keeter In Wilmington. Where were you in the beginning of
