OUTLINES.

President Harrison was at Galesburg. Himois, yesterday, where he reviewed his old command, the first brigade, third division of the twentieth army corps: there was a large gathering, and the city was profusely decorated; the President made a brief speech in response to and didress of welcome, in which politics was studiously avoided, and confined himself principally to an expression of his pleasure in meeting with so many of his old comrades. --

Several representatives of the International and Iron and Steel Institute of England arrived in Pittsburg Sunday night, they are here to gain practical information, and to ascertain, as far as possible, the material resources of the country, particularly in the Southboth above and below ground; our government they consider stable, and they icel that investments here are sound.

John Elam, a former law partner of Mr. Harrison, says the President assured him that he would not be a candidate for re-election. He is a model citizen and a model Democrat. He cast his first vote for Andrew Jackson and has never missed voting at an election since.

If an enthusiastic old Hoosier, who voted for Harrison's grandfather, and who voted for him, too, couldn't presume to call him Ben, who could? If not, why not? He might even call him Benny without encroaching upon the lines of strict propriety.

A great many Republican statesmen have taken the stump. If they would confine themselves to taking the stump, the treasury of this country wouldn't be on the verge of bankruptcy as it is. The Republican statesmen have very taking ways Between their takes and mistakes the country is in a bad fix.

A party of gentlemen connected with the Onslow Railroad were in Newbern last Tuesday. They were the contractor, Mr. Thos. A. McIntyre, of New York; the general manager, M. H. A. Whiting, of Wilmington, and Messrs. Henry E. Knox and Wilbur McIntyre, of New York, and Dr. R. W. Ward, of Jacksonville, N. C. The Newbern Journal says the party came from Wilmington by the railroad as far as built, and by private conveyance the remainder of the way, and they report that about thirty-two miles of the road have been completed, which brings it within about eighteen miles of Jacksonville. The road has been graded all the way to Jacksonville, and the surveyors are now twelve miles beyond that place, and will reach Polloksville by the middle of next REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. R. M. Croom, of Pender, Nominated for State Senator.

The Republican Senatorial Convention of New Hanover, and Pender counties, was held yesterday at the Court House in this city, to nominate a candidate for the Twelfth Senatorial district. Gen. S. H. Manning was nominated for the position, without opposition, but upon being apprised of the fact, in a brief speech declined the honor, for the reason that he thought Pender county was entitled to the Senator. He suggested the name of R. M. Croom, of Pender county.

Gen. Manning's declination having been accepted Mr. R. M. Croom was unanimously nominated, whereupon the following resolution was passed:

We recognize in Gen. S. H. Manning a true leader of the Republican party. He has been sheriff of New Hanover county for the past sixteen years, and in all that long period he has been faithful to his trusts, and has the confidence of all our leading men regardless of party. He was among the first to make his settlements with the State of all moneys entrusted to him, and he comes up to the standard, "an honest man's the noblest work of God." We pledge ourselves to support him for any office he ever runs for.

All Watches Compasses.

A writer in the London Truth says: A few days ago I was standing by an American gentleman, when I expressed a wish to know which point was north He at once pulled out his watch, looked at it, and pointed to the north. I asked him whether he had a compass attached to his watch. "All watches," he replied, "are compasses." Then he explained to me how this was. Point the hour hand to the sun and the south is exactly half way between the hour and the figure XII on the watch. For instance, suppose that it is 4 o'clock. Point the hand indicating 4 to the sun and II on the watch is exactly south. Suppose that it is 8 o'clock, point the hand indicating 8 to the sun, and the figure X on the watch is due south. My American friend was quite surprised that I did not know this. Thinking that very possibly I was ignorant of a thing that every one else knew, and happening to meet Mr. Stanley, I asked that eminent traveller whether he was aware of this simple mode of discovering the points of the compass. He said that he had never heard of it. I presume, therefore, that the world is in the same state of ignorance. Amalfi is proud of having been the home of the inventor of the compass. I do not know what town boasts of my American friend as a citi-

The Rice Crop. Rice will be high this year. Not only has there been a partial failure of the crop in this country, but in the rice-producing sections of India and Japan the crop has also been a failure, and for this reason the prices should be good, which will compensate in some degree for the losses sustained. The failure of the crop in Japan has amounted to almost a rice famine and the grain is so scarce that the government, fearing the effect of speculative operations, has forbidden the exportation of it. Heretofore, despite the duty imposed, the Japan rice has come in close competition with the American product, and has frequently affected the market seriously, From this we will not suffer this year, however, and rice planters will no doubt re-

Mr. Peters, Republican of Kansas, although opposed to some features of the new tariff bill, swallowed it as a whole, and wishes it could be made a "punishable offence for any member of Congress to introduce a bill for a revision of the tariff during the next ten years." He doubtless expresses the sentiments of the protected manufacturers on this point, who would be perfectly willing to extend the period to twenty-five instead of ten years.

When the Republican candidate for Governor of Tennesseee opened his campaign in Nashville last week it was given out that the colored brethren would not be allowed seats on the floor of the house with white folks but would be seated in the galleries. The colored sovereigns declined this unasked for elevation, said they were not proud and were perfectly willing to sit with the white Republicans down below, and they "sot."

When that old Hoosier at Washington, Ind., addressed Mr. Harrison as Ben, Mr. Harrison, great man as he is, though Tom Reed, since the Portland custom house swipe, says he's small, didn't swell and get mad but said he hoped the old fellows would all call him Ben.
