If the Bourbon Duke of Paris should visit Paris, Ky., he would doubtless be introduced to some of the noble Kentucky bourbons, and would find them quite popular over there.

Congressman Lodge, of Force bill fame, who has been renominated for Congress, declines the challenge sent him by Henry George to discuss the relation of the tariff to wages. That's a subject he don't care to take in this campaign.

The Governor of Arizona, who wants the territory admittel as a State, among other reasons given, assures the g. o. p. managers that she will vote the Republican ticket. With this assertion reasonably established there will be no difficulty in getting in, the matter of population, &c., being in this case non-essential.

showers in southern portion, northeasterly winds, and stationary temperature. For Georgia: Rain, northeasterly winds, slightly warmer in the northwest and stationary temperature in the southeast portion,

For East and West Florida: Showers in the western and rains in the eastern portions, easterly winds, and stationary temperature.

Cotton Belt Bulletin. Beyond slight showers at some of the stations, very little rain was reported yesterday in the cotton belt. Generally, fair weather prevailed from Virginia to Texas. The average maximum temperature ranged from 72° for the Augusta district, to 88° for the New Orleans district; the average minimum from 56° for the Mobile district, to 70° were expected to indicate the 8th and 9th. presence of storms in the Atlantic, and to serve as a means to warn vessels and 16th. about to sail. Failing to secure this important service, a simpler method has been adopted, and the current chart embraces the feature for the first time.

A record is to be kept of the action of the surf along the coast. Reports last" month have been tabulated, and are found to have a value as a natural prognostic of ocean weather. The life saving service will co-operate in this work, and last month's data comes from these stations. A diagram is given of the surf late in August previous to the great hurricane. It represents the height of the waves along the coast between Nantucket and Hatteras. It is seen that the surf clearly indicated the presence of the hurricane two or three days in advance, as there were no winds along the coast to cause it. The ice in the North Atlantic has about disappeared. There are two or three derelicts in the track of ocean steamers.
