WASHINGTON NEWS,

Naval Construction-The New Gunboat

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.-A large amount of naval construction, now in the hands of ship builders firms, appears to be somewhat embarrassing to builders in the matter of obtaining supplies of material which must be of domestic production. The number of steel works that can produce large steel castings required to carry out certain designs, is exceedingly limited, and they are pressed with standing orders, so that Cramp has suggested to the Navy De-partment that he be allowed to modify the designs for the stern and stern posts of armored cruiser No. 2-two mammoth steel castings-in order to open up a field to other methods of construction and hasten work upon the vessel. The trial of the new gun boat Concord will take place early next week. The requirements in the case of the Concord are severe. She is almost a duplicate of the Yorktown, now in service. The Yorktown was designed to develop 3,000 horse-power, but by strenuous exertion the builders managed to develop 3,400 horse-power on her trial trip. This maxlmum performance was then made a positive requirement in the case of the Concord, which must consequently develop 3,300 horse power on the trial or lose the builders $100 for every horse-power lacking. On the other hand, if the requirement is exceeded, contractors will get a bonus of $100 for every horse-power above 3,400 developed. If the new vessel does as well as the Yorktown she should make a trifle over 161/2 knots per hour over the measured mile.

The Work of the Brotherhood in Session at Pittsburg. By Cable to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—The business of the Convention of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers is progressing quite rapidly and an adjournment in about ten days is expected. The sessions continue secret, but it has been learned from a reliable source that the proposition of a federation with the Trainmen's organization has beeu re-

The new Executive Committee just appointed is as follows: Edward Kent, of Erie, Chairman; Col. Nat. Sawyer, of the New York Central, R. M. Clark, of Denver, Col. Ash Kennedy, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Dan Brown, Derry, Pennsylvania, G. B. Lorver, Temple, Texas. At a meeting of the committee last night $2,025 was distributed among the widows, orphans and indigent members of fifty of the four hundred and fifty-two divisions of the order. This amount was distributed among fifty-six persons. The Committee on Special Charities-John Hoffenberger, New York, Chairman, also held a meeting and disbursed considerable money.

Atlanta, Ga., Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minn., have been suggested as the place for holding the next meeting. The Western delegates have combined in favor of St. Paul.

A prominent delegate states that the assertion made by a New York newspaper, that the Convention had ordered a strike on the Erie road, is false. The

No session will be held to-morrow, the members having accepted an invitation to visit the shops of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Altoona.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

A Train Carrying the Czar to St. Petersburg Fired Into-Bloodless Duel Between French Deputies-Mr. Gladstone's Speech at Edinburg-Turks Persecuting Christians in Armenia.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, October 21.-The Evenment has advices from St. Petersburg stating that as a train in which the Czar was travelling on his return to St. Petersburg from his hunting trip in Poland was passing Gradino, a shot was fired at the train from the railway station,

PARIS. Oct. 21.-A dnel between M. Paul De Roulide and M. Reinach, growing out of a debate in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, relative to the action of the Government against the Boulangists, in the course of which M. De Roulide insulted M. Menach by describing him as "that lackey of all administrations," took place at an early hour this morning. The weapons used were pistols. Twenty-five paces were marked off by the seconds; and the principals then took their position. At the word M. Reinach fired, but his shot flew wide of its mark. M. DeRoulide did not fire. M. Reinach's seconds then proposed that the duel be continued, but M. De Roulide declined to accede to the pro-

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 21.—The closing of the Greek churches by the Ecumenical Patriarchate, in consequence of the Porte's action toward the Church, was productive of no incident of note. The Governor of Armenia has stationed troops in the Christian quarter of the city of Erzeroum to protect residents who fear that the Moslems intend to conduct an organized pillage of the quarter. Six Moslems have been arrested on suspicion of being implicated in a plot to rob the Christians.

Brigandage is rife along the caravan route between Erzeroum in Armenia and Trebizond, 120 miles northwest of Erzeroum. A number of caravans have been attacked and plundered by brigands.

TIPPERARY, October 21.-The trial of the defendants indicted for conspiracy was resumed before Magistrates Irwin and Shannon to-day. One of the witnesses who gave evidence yesterday for the Crown testified that he had since been told that hereafter his family would not be supplied with milk. Discussion followed between counsel, in the course of which V. B. Dillon, of counsel for the defendants, said he wished that the tribunal before which the case was being heard was the superior instead of the magistrate's court. If such was the case he would charge Balfour with contempt of court for his recent utterances at New-

Michael O'Brien, one of the defendpear before the court and state under oath what he had said at Newcastle. The court declined to issue the summons, declaring that it refused to be the medium for anything illegal or improper. LONDON, Oct. 21.-Mr. Gladstone addressed an audience of 5,000 persons in the Corn Exchange, at Edinburgh, this evening. Ireland, he said, continued to eclipse all other subjects. The country now recognized that the Irish question must be settled before others. Opponents to home rule had hoodwinked and deluded their constituencies by pledging themselves against coercion, promising local government and expressing themselves against granting large advances of British money to buy out landlords. Yet their first favorite measure after gaining power was coercion. Local government was vanishing in thin air, and there was a proposal before Parliament granting forty million pounds to buy out landlords. Conservatives took credit for setting Ireland to rights by a firm and resolute government. Their admininistration of the law was worse than the law itself. The state of things was such that subject has not been brought before the | the Irish ought to hate the law, though he would not say they ought to break it. The government itself was a perfect pattern of illegality. Its methods tended to provoke the people. Mr. Gladstone referred to the Tipperary affair. It was grossly illegal, he said to close the doors of the court house against the people. The appointment of Shannon to try the case was a gross scandal, not merely because he was an executive officer, but also because he had been involved in a serious personal altercation with Dillon. If such tricks were played in England by wantonness of power, a very short way would be found to remedy such abuse. After examples of police misconduct at Mitchellstown and Tipperary, it was impossible to respect the police or the administration of law by the police. Their brutality and harshness constituted the crowning insult of absenteeism, the grossest that could be inflicted on the people at such a time. Baltour appeared to feel that it was not a part of the business of the Minister for Ireland to reside there. Besides, how many of those present knew whether there was a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland or not? [Cheers.] Nobody heard of him. Absenteeism, which was among the lowest sins of degradation in the last century, seemed now a constant habit, the Irish Minister flaunting his absence in the face of the people. The government vaunted itself on peace in reland, yet kept six times more policemen there than in England and Scotland. British tax-payers paid £1,600,-000 yearly to the Irish police, simply to assist in collecting rents for landlords. English and Scotch landlords met their tenants fairly, and had not found it necessary to appeal for help of policemen to collect their rents, yet British landlords had lost more on rents than Irish landlords, and if the government would grant a general election the state of public opinion would prove that the country was von over to home rule. On this great question of Ireland, Mr. Gladstone concluded, the last of the could get, but by the merest chance the fortresses of bigotry and oppression engine was stopped just before it would go down before the Liberals attack. Justice to Ireland would rid them of an intolerable nuisance and deep disgrace, and would gild with a glow brighter than that of any former period the closing years of a glorious reign.

The speech was received with enthusiastic cheers. Shortly after the conclusion of the speech Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone attended a concert, at which M. Patti sang. Dense crowds were assembled outside the concert hall as Mr. Gladstone's carriage drove up, and he was heartily cheered, and he was also cheered by the concert audience. After the concert Mr. Gladstone had a long and pleasant interview with Patti. LONDON, October 21.—The executive of the Ship Owners' Federation is organizing a scheme providing for the Aug. 17, 1889. all ports as a final resort against exac-

Original Package Houses Starting Up in Iowa Towns-Effect of the Recent Kan-

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SIOUX CITY, Oct. 21.—Original package houses are beginning to open here, in view of the recent Kansas decision. The city authorities are arresting proprietors and fining them $50 a month, as was done before Congress passed the bill. There are at least three hundred places where liquor is sold, but these places will be closed by the city authorities, and only respectable original package houses allowed to run.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.-A special dispatch from Fort Dodge. Iowa, says systematic scheme on the part of the liquor men of Iowa to bring back the original package to legal life has been discovered in this city. A number of men who were openly engaged in the original package business, last summer, received circulars. purporting to come from the Secretary of the State Original Package Dealers' Association. The name signed to the circular was that of a prominent Council Bluff liquor dealer. In the name of the newly formed association, every ssloon keeper was urged to contribute liberally to the fund to be used in an attempt to secure an injunction restricting the Iowa court from prosecuting the original package dealers under the old prohibition law. It is claimed that the recent Kansas decisions give good grounds for such action.

YANKTON, S. D., Oct. 21, -The original package houses here have been reopened on the strength of the recent Kansas decisions. City officials will probably pass an ordinance licensing such houses.

The New York Sun's Report of the Market Yesterday.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. NEW YORK, Oct. 21.-The Sun's review of the cotton market to-day says: Cotton futures opened at 1 to 3 points decline, closing at 6 to 11 points advance from yesterday's closing prices and steady. Jack Frost came to the relief of the bulls this morning. Killing frost, ants, asked that a summons be issued | was reported from middle and western have heard of it. That market from a cheaper opening turned to a dearer closing, and the bears made a rush to cover that soon run prices up 6 to 8 points, Then it was seen that no serious injury could result from the frost reported. In fact the time has come when light frosts do good rather than harm. Speculation fell off and prices slightly receded. but in the last fifteen minutes there was a recovery to the best figures of the day. The weather reports from the South were a little mixed and, without special features. Spot cotton was quiet and about steady.

Registration Frauds in Chicago. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, October 21.-On the last day of registration about 50,000 new names were put upon the lists. Since then both parties have been earnestly at work, each trying to show that the other had caused many names to be fraudulently put upon the rolls. The aggregate result, according to an independent morning paper, is that about 25,000 notices, or one-half in number of the new registration, have been sent out calling on persons suspected of being improperly registered to come forward and es-tablish their claims to the right to vote.

CHICAGO REVIEW.

Fluctuations in Prices of Grain and Provisions.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. CHICAGO, Oct. 21.-Wheat-Good business was transacted. The market at times ruled active, and at others a little more quiet. The feeling developed was decidedly strong. During the early part of the session, when the demand was good and not much wheat offered, but, like yesterday, when the top prices were reached considerable long wheat came on the market, which had the effect of causing a reaction. Some of the largest operators, who had been operating on the bull side for the past few days, it was claimed, had let go of their holdings. The opening was 36 1/3c higher than yesterday's closing, eased off about 3/3c soon after the opening, then started upward, advancing %@1c; later became weak, declining %@1c, fluctuated and closed 14.0%c higher than yesterday.

Cable advices were encouraging. Corn was active and excited, the market ruling much stronger, and higher prices ruled on all futures. The feeling developed was a little unsettled, first trades being at 1/201/4c advance, and under good buying and limited offerings advanced 11/4c, reacted 1/8c, ruled firmer, and closed with %@%c gain. The mar-ket sympathized with wheat and oats some. The break after the early advance was attributed to heavy offerings of room operators.

Oats were active, stronger and higher than at any previous time on the crop. The strength and upward tendency in prices were assisted by that in the other markets, also by free purchasing by shorts, who paid no attention to prices so long as they got in. There was also good buying by a very large trader, and moderate selling by a heavy trader. May was the active month, and opened 1461/2c higher, and advanced 11/2c more. For a time the market held firm at the outside, but gradually eased off 1/4c, and finally closed with a net gain

Mess pork-Brisk during the early part of the session. An advance of 15@20c was gained, but toward the close the advance was lost, the closing figures being about 21/2@5c lower than on Monday.

Lard-Only moderate trade was reported, at 21/2 @5c higher, and the market closed steady at inside figures. Short rib sides—Quite a good trade was reported. Prices advanced 2½@5c. but during the latter part of the session prices receded 71/2@10c.
