Senator Voorhees is pitting his figures high. He predict a Democratic majority of 15,000 n Indiana next Tuesday.

Senator Ingalls says he owes all he has to the people of Kansas. As he holds a good many notes which he discounted at 18 per cent. some of the people of Kansas owe him a good deal, too.

Gen. Booth says the first step towards reforming society in England is some effective plan to feed the poor. Hungry people are not in a good frame of mind nor of stomach to be reformed.

A Kansas man killed himself because he had been jilted twice. He was entirely too speedy. He should have kept on till he had been jilted a half dozen times, and by that time he would have gotten used to it, and might still be happy,

In view of the reported duty of $500 to be levied by the Mexican government, which is simply a prohibitory duty, on every car-load of American cattle shipped into that country, how will the Western cattle men like the McKinley tariff?

Two years ago the high tariff advocates declared that the main idea in the protective tariff was to ensure good wages to American workmen. The main idea in the McKinley tariff seems to be to increase the cost of | train. goods to the American workman, and 'let wages take care of themselves

Manual of Southern Investment Secu-

The STAR is indebted to Messrs. John L. Williams & Son, of Richmond, Va., for a copy of "A Manual of Investments, 1889-'90," which has been prepared with much labor and care, and at great expense by that banking firm. The book is a handsome one, and gives in a complete and compact form important facts and figures regarding Southern investment securities, besides a great deal of valuable and interesting information about many of the numerous mining and manufacturing corporations of the South not to be found elsewhere.

The contents also includes data and statistics of the finances of the Southern States, cities and towns, banks and insurance companies, street railways, water works, gas light and electric light companies, cotton, cotton oil and cotton manufacturing, iron and steel, sugar and tobacco industries of the South; digest of recent decisions in banking law, savings bank statistics, immigration, growth of the South, 1880 to 1889, investment tables.

The information regarding railroads is classifled in systems, and the facts and figures given are brought up to April and May of this year. A fine railway map, expressly prepared for this work, is inserted in each volume, the various railway systems being designated by different colors.

A Small Fire.

The fire yesterday afternoon, for which an alarm was turned in from box No. 42-Fifth and Orange streets-was at a house on Sixth street between Orange and Ann, occupied by J. W. McCartney. The fire was in a closet and its timely discovery and the promptness with which it was extinguished by the people in the house preyented any serious damage. The Fire Department was on the ground promptly, but its services were not needed.

FIREMEN'S CONVENTION.

The Meeting of Chiefs of Departments to be Held in Greensboro.

A meeting of Chiefs of Fire Department's in the State is to be held in Greensboro, on the 10th of November next. The Greensboro Patriot, calling attention to the fact that the railroads throughout the State have signified their willingness to give a free pass to one chief from every town in the State to attend the meeting, says: "The object of such a meeting can easily be seen to be of immense benefit not only to the men themselves, but it will be felt throughout the State and by every town sending a representative to the conference; not only at a time of fire, where the benefit of an exchange of ideas will assert itself, but in the safety felt by the community in general wherever a community exists which possesses a fire chief with interest enough in his duties as chief to take advantage of every opportunity to better acquaint himself with his duties and prepare himself for the hour when he must shrink from no duty, but be ready for any emergency; be capable of not only meeting it, but to successfully overcome it when met."

The city o' Wilmington will no doubt be represented at the convention. The Chief of its Fire Department-the best in the State-could no doubt give many valuable hints and suggestions to his brother firemen at the convention.
