Rev. W. J. Erdman at the Y. M. C. A Week of Prayer.

WHOLE NO. 7.518

All who are interested in the study of the Bible will find that the privilege of listening to the readings of Rey. W. J. Erdman, who comes to our city next The Police Committee reported the week under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., fs an exceptional one. The national reputation of Rev. Mr. Erdman causes his time to be constantly in demand, and efforts were begun nearly > six months ago to secure this visit. The earnest words of commendation of Rev. R. G. Pearson, for whom our community has such high regard, are sufficient to acquaint the public with Rev. Mr. Erdman, if nothing else were known of him here. Mr. Pearson frequently expressed a desire that his revival services might be followed by Mr. Erdman with his Bible readings, for the sake of the new converts, to whom the scriptures would thus be made plain and

His style is not that of an orator whose personal magnetism attracts crowds, nor yet of a profound scholar whose learning makes him too lofty to be understood, but he is a plain, common sense teacher of the truth of the scripture, who proves scripture by scripture. To appreciate him he must be heard.

A CORRECTION.

EDITOR STAR :- Mr. W. P. Oldham, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, in a communication published in your issue of Sunday, with the caption, "Watch Your Ticket," says, that if the Democracy of New Hanover county had attended the meeting of the Republicans, held on Friday night last, and heard the speech of one of the said candidates, (referring to the nominee for sheriff or myself) no Democrat, yea, no decent man, could hesitate as to what his duty is on Tuesday next."

In reply to the statement, I desire to say that during the whole of this campaign, I have said nothing, either at a a private meeting or at a public gathering, that could give offence to the most refined person, either lady or gentleman, nor have I said anything except what was directly involved politically in the issues in the campaign.
