THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XLVII.--NO. 38.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1890.

Returns Received From the State Election Special Star Telegram. BRUNSWICK.

SOUTHPORT, Nov. 4.—Except for Register of Deeds and Treasurer which show small loss, the Democratic ticket shows a gain over the vote of 1888. Sheriff shows the largest gain. This is a Republican stronghold.

CUMBERLAND. FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 4.—Sheriff Smith's majority in Cross Creek township is 909; Sutton 837. So far as returns have come in the majority is about 890. The Democratic ticket is all safe by a majority not less than ffive hundred; may reach 800.

Returns now in give Sutton's majority as 1,463; McGill's majority 1,469; Sheriff Smith's majority as 1,483. No possibility now that the majority will be reduced to less than 1,000. Grady, for Congress, may run a little behind.

PENDER. ROCKY POINT, Nov. 4 .- Bellamy, 99; Croom, 169. Burgaw gives Bellamy 111; Croom, 103.

BURGAW, November 4.-Returns indicate the election of R. C. Johnston. Moore, Clerk, and Johnston, Sheriff, are largely ahead from the townships heard

WAKE CONNTY. RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4.-Wake county gives an estimated Democratic majority of 500; Guilford county, 250; Chatham county, 600; Rowan, 1,200; Lenoir, 600. Edgecombe elects a Democratic Treasurer, Clerk and Sheriff, by 300 majority. The Legislative ticket is Cheatham, Republican, for Congress, carries the county by 1,000 majority bbls. over Mewborne, Democrat.

RALEIGH, Nov. 4.-Scattering ? returns show the election of the following Democratic Congressmen: Branch, 1st district; Grady, 3rd district; Bunn, 4th district; Williams, 5th district; Alexander, 6th district; Henderson, 7th district. Returns from the Second, Eighth and Ninth districts are not conclusive. The Democratic State Judicial ticket is elected by a large majority. RALEIGH, N. C. November 4.-Returns from 160 precincts out of 1,600 show net Democratic gains over 1888 of 4,400. The election of Democratic Congressmen from the 1st, 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th districts is regarded as certain. Crawford, Dem., has gained largely on the vote of 1888 in the 9th district, and his election to Congress, which has been regarded as doubtful, is now considered certain. The election of Cheatham, colored, in the 2d district, seems now to be in doubt. Mewborne, Democratic Alliance candidate, is polling a full vote, and may be elected. The Legislature will be Democratic by from 60 to 80 majority on a joint ballot. Vance will be returned to the U. S. Senate.

Caldwell county gives Cowles 700 majority. Boone and Blowing Rock, in Watauga, give Cowles 125 majority. Beaufort county gives 400 Democratic majority. Three townships in Iredell county give Henderson, for Congress, a gain of 229 over last election. Cata v-ba gives Henderson 1,400 majority. RALEIGH, N. C., November 4.-Interest has centered in Wake on the contest for Clerk, between Thompson, Dem., and Upchurch, Rep. Indications are that Thompson will be elected by more than 100 majority.

BLADEN.

ELIZABETHTOWN, November 4.-Grady gains 9 in Bethel and Hollow. Bladen will give the State Senator a good majority. The election of Representative is in doubt. Have strong hopes yet. Think the county ticket is elected.

Elizabethtown township, a Republican precinct, gives Grady, dem., for Congress, 149; Scurlock, rep., 196. The township gave McClammy 149 last term and Robinson 230; a Democratic gain of 34.

BUNCOMBE. ASHEVILLE, Nov. 4 .- Asheville township, which includes three precincts outside the city gives Crawford, dem., 467 majority over Ewart, rep. The Democrats claim Crawford's election by from 800 to 1,200 in this district.

HENDERSON HENDERSON, Nov. 4.-The Democratic county ticket is elected by about 400. Only three precincts to hear from; with full vote will elect the Democratic WARREN COUNTY. WARRENTON, N. C., November 4. -Warren county elects a Democratic Clerk, Sheriff, Treasurer, member of the Legislature, and a Republican Register of Deeds. For Congress, Warrenton township gives Melborne, Dem., 230; Cheatham, Rep., 403.

FRANKLIN COUNTY, FRANKLINTON, November 4.-The majority for Bunn, Dem., candidate for Congress in Franklin county, will reach 600. The entire Democratic ticket in the county is elected by at least 500 majority. RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4,-Returns from the Seventh District indicate the election of Cowles, dem., to Congress, ind. Demotratic Alliance. Returns indicate the election of Crawford, dem., in the 9th district. Democrats, probably, are elected in every Congressional District except the second, where Cheatham, col., Republican, will win.

ROWAN AND GUILFORD. RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4.-Henderson, Dem., for Congress, carries Rowan county by 1,200 majority over Thomas. Williams, Dem., for Congress, carries Guildford county by 726 majority. RUTHERFORD.

SHELBY, November 4.--Returns from the county are coming in very slowly. Shelby gives the Democratic Judges 400 majority; Cowles, 170 over Forcett. Other officers have no position, Durham, for Senator, running badly behind. The remainder of the ticket at present cannot be estimated. Cowles' majority here has a degree of certainty. The State ticket will have over 1,500 majority.

The New York Press remarks that "when a man can get a suit of underclothing for 66 cents the cry of dear prices is silly." Is that the kind of underclothes the Press man wears? He could take some of his old exchanges and have a suit made for even less, and it would be about as serviceable as his 66 cents suit. But that is the kind they expect the poor man to wear, and think it good enough for him.

The New York World makes the deliberate statement that Laura Jean Libbey writes with her knees crossed and a big wad of yellow gum in her mouth. Some body about that office seems to have been making a special study of Laura Jean. It is to be hoped for the sake of the compositor, that while she crosses her knees she does not neglect to cross her t's.
