OUTLINES.

The returns from Tuesday's elections continue of a cheering character, but the general result is not much changed from what has already been given, the best feature to note this morning is the probable gain of four United States Senators in Kansas, in place of Ingalls in New York, in place of Edwards in Illinois, in place of Farwell in New Hampshire, in place of McKimley in New York, in place of McKimley in New York, in place of McKimley in New York...

A Western editor who had studied it profoundly expressed it as his deliberate and unbiased opinion that it was easier for a jackass to pass through the eye of a last year's potato than for a working man to extract comfort from any section of the McKinley bill.

Speaker Reed says on his late stumping tour he travelled 6,000 miles, made 66 speeches and talked to 150,000 people. Result, a Democratic gain of over 50 in Congress. If he had travelled 12,000 miles, made 132 speeches and talked to 300,000 people, there mightn't have been any Republicans at all elected.

If the Republicans hadn't packed the U. S. Senate with twelve Senators from the pocket States they made the Senate would be Democratic after the 4th of March. It was to prevent this that the packing was done.

Mrs. Elma Stuart, an invalid who had sampled 38 doctors and all the drug shops, says the way to get well and keep well is to feed on rare beef and hot water. The Republican machine runners should try this.

The Washington Star, Ind., remarks that "a good many Democrats are anxious to get the next House just to hear the Republicans pleading for the rights of the minority." They seem to have got it.

Many of the young Democrats of Wilmington worked nobly on the day of election and to them in a great measure is due the glorious redemption of New Hanover county. All honor to them.

The potato crop of the United States is 100,000,000 bushels short this year. This is where the protective tariff of 25 cents a bushel on potatoes comes in as a sort of a boom-crang, so to speak.

Some of the weather prophets say the indications are that next winter will be a cold one. It has begun to get cold already for the Republican machine runners. A blizzard struck 'em last Tuesday.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

Three cheers for the gallant Democracy of New Hanover. There is great rejoicing over the Democratic victory in New Hanover. Matt. Quay passed through Wilmington last night on his way to Florida. There seems to be a very general demand that a crimson hue shall be placed upon the town. In the U. S. Circuit Court yesterday, H. B. Harrell was appointed U. S. Commissioner, at Weldon, N. C. Fair weather continues in the cotton belt. The maximum temperature yesterday ranged from 70° to 82° and the minimum 40° to 60°. The Democratic officers of New Hanover county are all good men and will fill their respective positions with credit to themselves and the party that elected them. The scores of Democrats who did such faithful and effective work on the day of election will long be remembered with affectionate regard by the white people of New Hanover. Bryant Gaston, colored, who was acquitted in the U. S. Court of attempting to rob mail carrier Capps, was returned to the county jail. He is wanted in Brunswick and Pender counties for housebreaking and robbery. Some of the young Democrats of the Fourth Ward had an impromptu celebration last night of the Democratic victory. They built a big bonfire at the corner of Third and Nun streets and made the welkin ring with hearty cheers.

NEW HANOVER.

A SMALL MAJORITY, BUT A BIG VICTORY.

The Board of County Commissioners met at 12 o'clock in the Court House to canvass the vote of the different precincts of the county. The meeting was called to order, and E. G. Parme elected Chairman, Walker Taylor was elected Assistant Secretary. The members of the Board were then sworn by the Chairman.

On motion, the vote of Federal Point township was first canvassed, after which Cape Fear township was called. James Cowan, the registrar of the township thereupon made the following report: To the County Canvassing Board: GENTLEMEN—I hereby report to you that there was no election held on the 4th of November by the regularly appointed registrar and poll-holder of Cape Fear township in said township, that the registration books were taken from me as registrar, to be returned to me.

That one C. H. Thomas, styling himself registrar, who was my clerk, refused to return me the registration books; that I went to the polling place on the day of election and demanded of said Thomas the said books, and he refused to turn them over to me, and the regularly chosen poll-holders, who were present, and consequently no election was held by us, and we have no returns to make. This the 6th day of November, 1890. (Signed) JAMES COWAN, Registrar, Cape Fear Township.

J. J. JACKSON, A. W. McADYEN, Poll-Holders and Judges of Election.

On motion, the report of the registrar and poll-holders was adopted.

Thereupon, one C. H. Thomas, without stating who he was, arose, and said that he had a paper he wanted to present. The Board refused to receive the paper on the ground that Thomas was not a member of the Board.

Judge D. L. Russell, who said that he was counsel for Thomas, then said, "You won't receive the paper, then?"

The Board then proceeded to announce the vote of the remaining townships.

U. S. District Court.

Only one case was tried yesterday—that of John Kennedy, charged with embezzling postoffice funds and stamps. The prisoner, through his counsel, M. Bellamy and A. J. Marshall, Esqs, plead guilty to the charge, and the Court sentenced Kennedy to be imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, for thirteen months.

The grand and petit jurors were discharged for the term, and the Court took a recess in the afternoon until to-day at 8 a. m.

NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

A Determined Fight and a Glorious Result—The Fruits of Victory.

The splendid work done by the Democracy of New Hanover in the recent election must long be remembered with pride and satisfaction. A full county ticket having been placed in the field, a few determined spirits went earnestly to work, believing that with proper effort the county could be redeemed from the Republican ringsters who have been entrenched in the Court House for twenty-five years. Day and night they worked with unceasing energy. It was hard to convince the party at large that the undertaking was otherwise than hopeless in the face of an adverse majority two years ago, of nine hundred and eighty-one votes. Still they worked on, gradually gaining recruits until a day or two before the election, by which time there were hundreds, where only ten days before there were only tens, who became fully impressed with the belief that the victory would be ours.

On the morning of November 4th the sun rose on a hopeful and united Democracy. The plan of battle had been well arranged, every detail having been carefully looked after. Early in the day, however, it became evident that some of the expectations of the leaders would not be realized. Then it was seen that there was no time to be lost. There was a mighty hurrying to and fro. The bugle call was sounded, and members of the Old Guard were rallied from every nook and corner of the city. It had become a fight between the straight Democrats and the crooked Radicals; and the managers of the Democratic canvass, knowing how much there was at stake, worked with a courage and determination that could not be overcome. Victory!

The Board of Canvassers met yesterday and their conclusions show that we have elected every county officer except the Treasurer, one State Senator (with the help of Pender), and two members of the House of Representatives.

What a glorious victory! Has it ever been surpassed in North Carolina? Let us give thanks; and if "the boys" insist on it, let us have a grand jollification, full of good feeling, good speeches and burning torches.

ST. JAMES' HOME.

Editor of the Star: Please remind your readers and the people of Wilmington, that the "Annual Pledge Party" for the benefit of St. James' Home is appointed for Tuesday next, 11th instant, and that donations of money, supplies and materials of all kinds for domestic use, are respectfully solicited in aid of the institution.

These annual donations have heretofore greatly aided in carrying on the work of the Home, and it will be most grateful to the Sisters in charge, who devote her life and energies to conducting the various operations of the institution, if a liberal response is made to this appeal.

Although the Home is the property and under the management of St. James' parish, its schools and charities and moral influence are for the good of the entire community, and not of any one church or denomination. Contributions may be sent to the Home, Orange street, between Eighth and Ninth, at any time up to the date above mentioned, and all who feel an interest in the work are cordially invited to call in the afternoon and evening of Tuesday next.

CLEVELAND.

SHELBY, November 6.—The official vote of Cleveland: Merrimon, 1,875; Price, 384; Clarke, 1,894; Faircloth, 382; Democratic Superior Court Judges, 1,872 to 1,779; Republican, 383; Cowles, for Congress, 1,896; Faucett, 1,090; L. J. Hoyte, 1; Durham, for the Senate, 1,895; Dickson, for the House, 7,100; county officers average 2,100. No opposition to Legislative and county ticket.

Bellamy's majority in Pender (official) is 179.

The Raleigh Observer says: Henderson's majority is 4,000. Williams beat Brower by 2,500. Alexander and Grady have, say, 5,000 each. Bunn boasts an equal number over the Professor. Branch, we think, will have 2,000.

Crawford's majority is put at 1,400. Newborne, at this writing, is hung up in uncertainty.

ROBESON COUNTY.

Robeson county (official) Alexander's majority 540. Average majority for the County and Legislative ticket about 725. McDiarmid, for Treasurer, leads the ticket with a majority of 786.

CALDWELL.

Democratic majority for Cowles, 655; Senator, 628; legislative, 643; Solicitor, 769. Nearly official. The Judges will have 1,000 majority. Full county ticket elected.

A telegram from Burgaw, last night, says John B. Moore is re-elected Clerk of the Superior Court of Pender County. Bladen gives about 170 majority for the Democratic ticket.

OPERA HOUSE.

"A Legal Wrong" Monday Evening. The next attraction at the Opera House will be "A Legal Wrong," which will be presented on Monday evening next, and of which the Kansas City Times said recently:

Dominick Murray's emotional drama in five acts, "A Legal Wrong," is the attraction this week at the Midland. The play is one that deals with situations and characters treated in a way to show the errors that may be and often are made in a technical course of law, and the consequent suffering of innocent parties therefrom. A young man, a scion of an old and honored family, is convicted of a brutal murder and robbery of which he is innocent. He escapes from custody, goes to sea, is wrecked and with others is cast upon a lone island in the tropics. A passing vessel saves his companions, but refuses to rescue a convicted murderer. The story of his adventures and final triumph form an interesting drama.

The play is elaborately mounted, among the most notable scenes being the deck of the "Morning Star," a cyclone at sea and the island in the tropics. The Ohio Falls Quartette were excellent, their singing and imitations calling forth encore after encore.
