THE PRODIGAL DAUGHTER.

To the home of his father returning. The prodigal, weary and worn, Is greeted with joy and thanksgiving, As when on his first natal morn; A "robe" and a "ring" is his portion, The servants as suppliants bow;

He is clad in fine linen and purple In return for his penitent vow. But ah! for the prodigal daughter, Who has wandered away from her home-Her feet must still press the dark valley And through the wild wilderness roam;

Alone on the bleak, barren mountains-The mountains so dreary and cold-No hand is outstretched in fond pity To welcome her back to the fold.

But thanks to the Shepherd, whose mercy Still follows his sheep, though they stray, The weakest, and e'en the forsaken,

He bears in his bosom alway; And in the bright mansions of glory, Which the blood of his sacrifice won, There is room for the prodigal daughter As well as the prodigal son. -New York Graphic.

SUNDAY SELECTIONS.

-The assignment of false motives to others is the most seductive sin of the disputations. - No reward can be greater than consciousness of performing a duty entirely free of expectation. - Let friendship creep gently to the height; if it rush to it, it may soon run itself out of breath.-Fuller. -I do not call one greater and one smaller; that which fills its period and place is equal to any. - Watt Whit-

-Blessed is the man who at forty has the fire of twenty and the peace of seventy together in his soul,-Philip Brooks.

-There is no house so small that it has not room for love; there is no castle so large that it cannot be filled with it.

-I know no blessing so small which can be reasonably expected without prayer, nor any so great but may be obtained by it. - South.

- They who apply themselves to Jesus Christ shall be dealt with according to their faith; not according to their professions, but according to their faith. -The ever adorable marvel of Providence is that in the spiritual creation God does not accomplish his will by power, but through the wills of his children.— Thom. The golden moments in the stream of life rush past us, and we see nothing but sand; the angels come to visit us, and we only know them when they are gone, - George Eliot. - Free will is not the liberty to do whatever one likes; but the power of doing whatever one sees ought to be done, even in the very face of otherwise overwhelming impulse. There lies freedom indeed .- George Macdonald. - Our Lord has a keen eye for all that is good. When he searches our hearts he never passes by the faintest longing, or desire; or faith, or love of any of his people. He says to each and all, "I know thy works." - Do not trust to your industry for success, but lean wholly on God's help; rest in Him, believe that He will do whatever is best for you so long as you on your part are quietly in earnest and gently diligent: I say this because impetuous activity hurts both our business and our sonls, and is really a hin-

- If all affectation should be banished from the world, or even from the Cliurch there would be much less "grumbling" in a variety of directions. Plain dealing is a great preserver of the peace. A good sister said to her pastor: "You went right by my house the other day, and didn't stop in." "My sister," said the plain-spoken preacher, "how would I ever get anywhere if I never went by anywhere?" There was no answering

- Never give way to melancholy. Nothing encroaches more. I fight against it vigorously. One great remedy is to take short views of life. Are you happy? Are you likely to remain so till this evening, or next month, or next year? Then why destroy present happiness by distant misery, which may never come at all, or you may never live to see it? For every substantial grief has twenty shadows, and most of them shadows of our own making.- Sydney

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

-Clinton Caucasian: The cotton crop of this county is the largest that has been made in many years. -Asheville Citizen: The First Baptist Church of Asheville was organized December 6, 1829, nearly sixty-one years ago. - Salem Press: The 600 acres recently purchased by the Winston-Salem Land and Improvement Company, south of Salem, is being laid off in streets, manufacturing sites, lots for residences, &c.

- Carthage Blade: Dr. Woodbury, a northern man, living near Jackson Springs lost his dwelling house, val-ued at $9,000, and 23,000 feet of lumber by fire about two weeks ago. He had

$4,000 insurance, - Durham Globe: From a letter | dealer, "that is the largest knife in received to-day from Wake Forest, we learn that young Luttle, the student who attempted suicide Friday night by shooting himself through the head, has been taken home and is thought to be improving, -Louisburg Timee: A few days ago Mr. Wm. Medlin brought us a potato weighing four pounds nine ounces. Now here comes Mr. Howell Griffin with one weighing eight pounds and ten ounces. The potato crop, like all other crops in this section, is very good.

- Lenoir Topic: The Linville Improvement Company have just finished the focation of a road between Linville and blowing rock, along the face of the Grandfather mountain. It is thought that this road upon completion, which is expected by June, 1891, will be the finest mountain drive in the Eastern States, the length being 16 miles through most beautiful scenery. . car loads of machinery have been re- | cutlers. He then worked for Joseph | ceived and placed in the Albion Cotton Mills. --- A determined effort is now being made, and with a very gratifying show for success, to build a Presbyterian Church at Mt. Holly. A subscription list was started last Monday at noon and in a few hours about $400 had been subscribed.

- Raleigh News and Observer: The reward of $200 offered by the Governor for Henry Barnes has been paid over to W. W. Smith and J. C. Benton, of Johnston county, they having captured Barnes. — The Governor has authorized an exchange of courts between Judges Merrimon and Brown, by which Judge Merrimon will hold the fall term of Polk Court instead of Judge Brown.

-Oxford Day: Moore, the colored candidate for Congress, got only twenty-four votes in this county. -William Chavis, a young colored man living near Berea, having declared it his purpose to vote the Democratic ticket, was threatened with lynching by the negroes of his neighborhood. This did not deter him, and while at the polls Tuesday he was told that his house was on fire. Hurrying back he found the building in ashes. He had locked the door when he left home, his family being ab-

- Charlotte Chronicle: Capt. Jas. Dowd had some sweet potatoes in town yesterday, which were last year's growth. They had been kept in sand and were perfectly preserved. - Dr. Abernathy has succeeded in raising $3,000 in two months for the new college, and he intends commencing the work as soon as he returns home. The Doctor is very sanguine in raising the necessary sum to rebuild the college. - A Presbyterian Church is to be organized at Newell's station next week. Revs. R. C. Reed, J. L. Williamson, of Sugar Creek, Brice Cochrane, of Mallard Creek, and Elder S. C. Durry form the commission to effect the organization.

- Statesville Landmark: Lee Carson, colored, of Eagle Mills township. was committed to jail Monday evening on two mittimusses, in one case for a peace warrant in which the bond was fixed at $1,000, and in the other as a lunatic. - Since last Friday night a dozen sheep have been killed and others wounded in a half dozen or more flocks near Trinity Church in the northeast corner of Concord township by one or more dogs which cut the sheep's throat, cut a hole in the flank and eat out the kidney fat and then leave the rest for the owner. - Referring to a recent item about the many bad habits of an Alexander county child, Mr. M. L. Sigmanl of this township, tells of a girl in his heighborhood, between three and four years old, who chews tobacco, dips | Teeth? If so send at once and get a snuff, smokes, plays cards, picks the banjo, swears, and has had to be weaned by main strength.

- Wadesboro Messenger-Intelligencer: Died in Lanesboro township on the 3d inst., Mr. G. T. Wilkins, aged about 75 years. - Wadesboro cotton receipts for the month of October were 3,150 bales, and for September 2,952 bales, making 6,102 bales for the two months-just what our receipts were for the whole of last season. - There is considerable mad dog excitement in the Cairo neighborhood, this county. Alice Fairley, a colored woman of that section, was bitten by one last Saturday. The dog also bit a number of other dogs in the neigborhood before it was killed. — Early last Sunday night the cotton house on Mr. J. L. Pratt's plantation, near Morven, was burned down, together with about two bales of seed cotton and a lot of cotton seed. It is thought that the fire was of incendiary origin, but as yet the guilty party has not been arrested. - Sometime ago Milton Treadaway went 'possum hunting, and his dog treed a possum in a hole in the ground, and while scratching for it was severely bitten on the nose. The dog showed evidence of severe suffering on account of the bite. and after about ten days was attacked by what was supposed to be a genuine case of the rabbies. The dog had every symptom usual present in a case rabbies, but was killed before doing any damage.

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

If the Democrats of the next Congress and of the country act wisely another glorious victory will greet their efforts in 1892 .- Asheville Journal.

The manner in which many of the colored voters deserted the rad politicians and voted the straight Democratic ticket is quite commendable.- Tarboro Southerner.

The increase in the number of North Carolina cotton and other factories in the past decade is 50 per cent., and shows clearly the progress the State is making.-Charlotte Democrat. Blaine, we suppose, is not so much mortified, chagrined and disspirited as he might be. The bill that "opens no market for an additional bushel of wheat nor barrel of pork," was not his infant, and he is shedding no crocodile tears over the way the people received it.— Raleigh News and Observer.

Tuesday's election eliminates from the race for Republican nomination for the Presidency, Reed, McKinley, Harrison, Sherman, Alger, and Lodge. At this writing Mr. Blaine looms up large on the map of availability. It was he who helped to defeat the passage of the force bill that was the same sense a precursor of Mr. Lodge's suicidal attempt in the same direction .- Charlotte Chron-
