OUTLINES.

The Iowa Democrats are closely watching the official count of votes in the different counties by the board of supervisors; a contest will be made in connection with the votes of two counties in the third Congressional district.

The Pittsburg Press, a Quay organ, as soon as it could catch its breath after the election, began to cry for the repeal of the tin-plate tax as the first and most essential in response to the verdict of the people.

Among a party of immigrants who arrived at New York last week was a family of Russian Jews, consisting of man and wife, seven children and grandchildren, so miserably clad that they looked like beggars.

Don Cameron spent $100,000 in Pennsylvania, of which he gave $25,000 to the Republican committee and $75,000 he spent through his man Cooper to fix the legislature all right.

Giovanni Succi, the Italian, is now performing his forty-five days fasting feat in New York. He expects to sustain life for that period on water and will-power.

The Democrats have not only a popular majority in this country but a majority of States, 28 to 16, and two of these 16 are a tie in the House of Representatives.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard will attend the Baptist State Convention which meets at Shelby on Wednesday.

The German barque Friederich and the Norwegian barque Rosenberg arrived at Southport Sunday last.

Messrs. J. W. and H. L. Fry and R. Percy Gray, of the C. F. & Y. V., came in on the evening train yesterday.

Workmen are making an excavation on the lot in rear of the government building on Front street for a cistern.

The weather was fair throughout the cotton region yesterday, with the exception of slight rainfall in the Mississippi Valley.

Bids for the erection of the proposed Y. M. C. A. building, on the corner of Front and Mulberry streets, will be opened at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. at noon to-day.

Services are to be held at Fifth Street M. E. Church every night this week and a revival is expected.

The British schooner Mabel Darling arrived yesterday from the Bahama islands with the first cargo of West India fruit this season, consisting of oranges, bananas, pineapples, coconuts and tomatoes.

The persons claiming to be registrar and poll holders for Cape Fear township made application for pay for services yesterday to the Board of County Commissioners; but acting under legal advice the Chairman of the Board refused to pay them.

The German barque Eduard Pons cleared yesterday for Wolgast, Germany, with cargo of 133 pieces pine and pine timber and 90,347 feet pine lumber, valued at $3,802.06.

BIG TRAVEL COMING SOUTH. The Railroads Looking for a Great Rush This Winter.

Railroad men North and South are expecting a heavy tourist travel South this winter. The Atlantic Coast Line, as usual, will offer every accommodation to the travelling public, and very low excursion rates will be given from New York and other points to Florida.

Recent developments point to a new class of winter travel for the South this year. The reports of cholera in the East will turn aside from that direction the large numbers of European travelers who yearly visit India and the warmer climes of that portion of the globe.

Florida has attracted considerable attention in England and Europe as a winter resort, and the indications are that there will be a movement of the European travel toward that portion of the country. This will bring a profitable and very desirable class of travel.

To Celebrate. The Democratic Executive Committee met last night and after discussion of the matter decided upon having a grand jollification over the Democratic victories. The committee will meet again in a few days to appoint the date upon which the celebration shall be held.

An invitation has been sent to Senator Vance to be present and deliver an address on the occasion and the committee is awaiting a reply from him before appointing a date for the celebration.

Chrysanthemum Show. The profusion of beautiful Chrysanthemums to be seen in the gardens of our city has suggested the idea of an exhibition of these magnificent autumn flowers, and we learn that some of the ladies of St. James' Church contemplate having such a show during the latter part of this week.

St. James' Home. All the friends of St. James' Home will remember to-day is the annual day for contributions to be sent for the support of the Home. Sister Cecilia will be at home during the evening to receive visitors.

An excellent assortment of Royster's Candy just received by Bridgers & Rankin.

OPERA HOUSE.

Death of Major William Stedman at Marshall, Texas - "The Peer of Any Man Who Ever Practiced at the Bar in Texas."

There was a good attendance at the Opera House last night to witness the rendition of Morris' drama of the above name. The scenic effects were good; and the climaxes were well worked up.

Major William Stedman, whose death at Marshall, Texas, is announced, was a cousin of Messrs. Charles M. and Frank H. Stedman, and an uncle, by marriage, of Mr. Wm. H. Bernard, of this city.

Major William Stedman died at his home in this city at 5:00 p. m., Thursday, November 6th.

The hand holding this pen trembles in its effort to portray, in terms brief and terse, the character of so noble and good a man, and so warm a friend of the writer, as was the subject of this notice.

William Stedman was born in Pittsboro, Chatham county, North Carolina, March 13, 1822, and was, consequently, 68 years of age at the time of his decease.

With his wife he moved to Texas in 1851, locating at Henderson, where he resided until about 1867, when he moved with his family to Marshall, where he resided up to the time of his death.

He was a logical reasoner, and sought to fathom the philosophy of law. As a speaker, he commanded attention by his candor, sincerity and real ability.

The name of William Stedman stands pre-eminent among the lawyers of his day. He stood in the front rank of his profession. Educated in a school where patient investigation and careful analysis were required, where he must measure strength with men who had acquired national reputation, he attained a high degree of intellectual excellence.
