Ex-Congressman Don Morrison, of Illinois, has been interviewed on the late elections, and the next Presidency. He says the McKinley bill did it, and that the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency will come from outside of New York. He is not friendly to Cleveland, and holds that no man can be nominated who cannot bring into the convention a solid delegation from his own State. Mr. Morrison is evidently not keeping up with the drift of public sentiment.

The Oxford Orphan's Friend recently appeared in a bright new dress, and, of course, it fits nicely and, like its editor, Miss Mattie Rountree, is very handsome. The Friend is an excellent paper, and apart from the fact that the subscription price is only $1.00 per year, it is published for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum and should be liberally encouraged.

The Australian ballot system which went into effect in Indiana at the last election for the first time seem to have gotten the sovereign Hoosiers somewhat mixed up, and the result was that 20,000 ballots were thrown out for mutilation and informalities, and 6,000 were protested at the polls, causing a loss of 26,000 votes. They will understand it better next time.

A Republican contemporary speak-Orphan Asylum, died yesterday at ing of the Thurman banquet, says Dallan N. C. -- N. The dearly beloved Republicans have played the American flag extensively to cover up their devilment, but they didn't succeed in wrapping up the McKinley monstrosity in it.

> Col. Polk does not even dream that he can succeed Gov. Vance in the U. S. Senate; nor does he believe that any other man can defeat him. Farmer Polk is training for a place on the Alliance Presidential ticket in 1892. This is the size of it, as carefully measured with a horse-sense tape-line.

Some time ago the Republican papers were joking the Democrats about "getting together." The way they got together at the last election took the breath out of the organs and they haven't shown the slightest propensity for that kind of joking since.

The Drawback in Jute Bagging. The Treasury Department, in its last circular to the Collectors of Customs, decides that inasmuch as jute butts imported on or after October 6, 1890, are exempt from duty no drawback can be allowed on bagging exported after that date and claimed to have been manufactured from jute butts imported under the old tariff, unless such claim is fully supported by the proofs of importation prescribed in the regulations of June 3, 1885. The provisions of paragraph 2 of the circular of June 22, 1889, dispensing with the production of such proofs, are revoked.

Musical Entertainment. The social and musical entertainment last evening at Luther Memorial Build ing by the Mingert Mission Circle, to say the least, was a great success in every way. The music, vocal and instrumental, was very fine, and the floral decorations superb, showing the hand of an adept. To ename the public to get a proper conception of this fine entertainment it will be repeated to-morrow night. You cannot spend a more pleasant evening.

LOCAL DOTS.

Items of Interest Gathered Here and There and Briefly Noted.

- Henderson Hayes, colored, was fined $10 and costs in the City Court yesterday for disorderly conduct.

- The Ladies' Benevolent Society will meet in the Hook and Ladder Hall, Orange street, at 11 o'clock this morn-

- The market for cotton and naval stores continues dull and inactive, owing to the financial troubles at the North and abroad.

- Schooner Mary A. Truudy, cleared yesterday for Greytown, Nic.. with 245,426 feet of creosoted lumber and timber, valued at $7,793.35, and shipped by the Carolina Oil and Creosote Co.

- Mr. G. B. Newcomer and Mr. Michael Jenkins, of Baltimore, and Mr, E. B. Borden and Mr. W. H. Willard, from Goldsboro and Raleigh respectively, were in attendance at the stockholders' meeting of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad yesterday.

- Peter Johnson, charged with assault and battery on Charles Stunden, (both seamen) was arraigned before Mayor Fowler yesterday. The investigation showed that the men were engaged in an affray, and that Stunden got the worst of it. In consideration of this, judgment as to him was suspended. and Johnson was fined the costs, amounting to about five dollars.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

An Old Colored Man Loses His Right Arm, An old colored man named John Moore, an occasional employe at Messrs. Morton & Hall's distillery, met with an accident yesterday which resulted in his losing his right arm. Moore had been in the habit of getting under the cars near the Champion Compress to pick up waste cotton and had been repeatedly warned of the danger he iucurred. Yesterday about noon, shifting engine backed down to pull out some empty cars, and after pulling them out the engineer was told that a man was hurt. He went back and found Moore coming towards Nutt street, holding his right arm which was badly crushed. When asked how it happened, Moore said it was not the fault of the railroad. It is supposed he was under the cars gathering cotton and was knocked down and his arm mashed under the wheels. His arm was amputated at the City Hospital, by Dr. Jewett and at last accounts he was getting on very well,

Found Drowned. Mr. E. Herring, a fisherman, yesterday found the dead body of a child floating in the Cape Fear a few miles below the city near the mouth of Brunswick river. He fastened the body to the river bank and came to town and informed Coroner Jacobs of the matter. The body is supposed to be one of the two colored children drowned about ten days ago near Meares' Bluff by the accidental upsetting of a row-boat, and acting upon this supposition the coroner telegraphed to the Bluff, asking that the father of the drowned children might be informed of the finding of the body of one of them. As it is in the waters of Brunswick county, Coroner Jacobs has no jurisdiction over the matter.

Ex-Priest Boyle.

The Goldsboro Headlight says: "Expriest J. J. Boyle has been heard from again. Not from a monastery in Scotland as generally supposed but from a Catholic tribunal in Rome, Italy, whither he has been summoned to disprove the charges made against him by the Catholic clergy of the West. Boyle with his usual brazeness had the audacity to write to Bishop Haydn in this State, to send him a letter of recommendation in order to prove his good character while in North Carolina. This information we received from Justice Barbee, of Raleigh, a prominent member of the Catholic church there.

was held in the office of the President

On motion, Mr. Don McRae and Mr. E. B. Borden and the Secretary were appointed a committee to examine credentials and report the number of shares represented in person and by proxy.

The committee subsequently reported that there were represented in person 11,627 shares, and by proxy 9,979, out of a total of 25,000 shares.

On motion, duly made and seconded, the report of the committee was received and adopted, and the chairman announced that a quorum was present, and the meeting was duly organized and ready for business.

The reports of the President and General Manager were read, showing the business as done by the road for the last year, and were accepted and approved.

An election for officers was then held, and Mr. Warren G. Elliott was unanimously chosen President for the ensuing year, and the following gentlemen Directors: W. T. Walters, Michael Jenkins, H. B. Plant, B. F. Newcomer, J. P. Mc-Cav, A. J. DeRosset, D. MacRae, E. B. Borden, George Howard and W. H. Wil-

It was resolved that the next annual meeting of stockholders be held in Wilmington on Wednesday next after the third Monday in November 1891.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors Mr. H. H. Walters was elected Vice President and Mr. James F. Post Secretary and Treasurer.

The following officers were continued in their respective positions: J. R. Kenly, Assistant General Manager; John F. Divine, General Superintendent; W. H. Riach, General Auditor; T. M. Emerson, General Freight and Passenger Agent; and B. R. Dunn, Engineer of

THE RICE CROP.

Short Receipts in the Savannah District. The Georgia rice crop, is reported to be considerably shorter and poorer in quality this season, as compared with

The first rice threshed after September, the Savannah News says, proved to be of better quality than was expected by the planters, and this gave rise to a hope that the damage by the rainy spell had not been as great as was anticipated. But as the threshing continued the rice became poorer, and soon proved that the early predictions were correct.

"What the total damage will be cannot be known, however, for several weeks until all the rice is gathered and threshed. Usually at this time of the year the most of the rice has been harvested and placed in the market, but the continued bad weather delayed work to such an extent that some of the planters have fully one-fourth of their crops still in the field, and the heavy fogs and dews of the last few days have tended to further delay

"The longer the gathering of the crop is delayed now the greater will be the loss, as the birds are flocking to the fields and destroying the rice. One planter said yesterday that he was satisfied that at the end of the season the receipts at the mills would be far below what they were last year.'

Death of Mr. R. H. Orrell.

Mr. Robt, H. Orrell, a well known printer of this city, died vesterday at his residence on South Second street, after a lingering illness of consumption, in the 39th year of his age, leaving a wife and several young children to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father.
