Many Republicans still assert that the late Republican defeat was largely due to the influence of the women. If this be so it is another reason why we should love the women all the harder.

Mr. Frank Carpenter, a Washington newspaper correspondent, says when President Harrison writes his messages "he does his own thinking." No one who has ever read his mesages would doubt this for a minute.

Ex-State Senator Murphy, of San ancisco, Democrat, who was defeated at the last election, has had an order issued citing Senator Stanford to appear before the Court Commissioner to answer charges of bribery. Murphy says he was beaten by Stantord's money. A Republican contemporary remarks that in Arkansas, "since the theft of the ballot-boxes," there is talk of abolishing the eighth commandment because they don't like to have the preachers referring to it. It was abolished long ago wherever the Republicans had full sway.

OPERA HOUSE.

"Bootles' Baby" Presented to a Fair House -A Matinee Performance.

By special arrangement "Bootles Baby" will be presented this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The old folks should go, and be sure and send the children. For this charming play with its delicious Irish humor, and its pathos, all can find enjoyment. The situation where Capt. Ferrers, Bootles, finds three-year old Mignon in his apartments is a very clever piece of acting, and the little boy who sustains the character of the waif contributes greatly to the effectiveness of the scene. Little Miss Josie Arthur as Mignon is one of the few children who can claim to be actresses. She has a fine conception of the character she personates and is the sweet, winsome little girl of Winter's creation, naturally, without any affectation, which would detract from the merit of her impersonation by suggesting the actress instead of the char-

A DEER HUNT.

A Successful Deer Drive-A Buck and a Doe the Trophies of the Chase.

Our field editor was in big luck Thursday. Accompanied by Messrs. J. Dickson MacRae, Alex. Liles and the junior field editor, he went deer driving in Brunswick county. Before 12 o'clock Mr. Liles had killed a fine doe, and our field editor had killed a veritable "antlered monarch," kommonly kalled a three-year-old buck. The party had but one dog, owned by Mr. Liles, and although "King' has but a trace of hound blood in his veins, he's a dandy, and no mistake. When "King" strikes a deer trail he keeps his mouth shut until he jumps his game, and then he "opens," for a fact. But two deer were started and both were killed. Mr. McRae and Mr. Liles, both veteran sportsmen, were kind and accommodating to the visiting Nimrods. And old "Uncle Jim," a venerable colored hunter, must not be overlooked. He was kind enough to give our field editor what he considered the best "stand." "Uncle Jim" said: "You see you shoots patridges, and you ought to be werry good on de fly. Dere's a big buck in dat bay and he'll be mouty apt to come out close to your stand. And when he comes he'll be a travellin' sure's you born." "Uncle Jim" was mighty near right. The buck "came," "he saw," but was conquered, All enjoyed the day's sport greatly, and "When shall we three meet again?" was answered promptly with "Very soon."

Visitors at the Hammocks.

There were many visitors at the Hammocks Thanksgiving Day. The train which left the city at 3.30 p. m., alone carried about three hundred and fifty persons, including the party of ladies and gentlemen who went down to participate in the german at Island Beach hotel. The visitors found enjoyment in oyster roasts and in shooting and fishing. The day was pleasant although the wind was rather sharp and cold.

Thanksgiving Services.

There was a very large attendance at the First Presbyterian Church on Thanksgiving day. An able discourse, suitable to the day, founded on the first five verses of the 103d Psalm, was delivered by Rev. Dr. Creasy, and prayer was offered by Revs. P. H. Hoge, D. D., and F. D. Swindell.

THE BAPTISTS.

Union Meeting of the Eastern Baptist Association.

The union meeting of the Eastern Baptist Association was convened yesterday forenoon at Brooklyn Baptist Church, eleven of the nineteen churches in the Association being represented.

The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Wooten, after which an organization was effected by the election of Mr. John T. Bland as President and Mr. J. D. Corbett as Secretary.

Rey. R. E. Peele, pastor of Brooklyn Church, made an address of welcome, which was responded to by the President, Mr. Bland.

The necessary committees were appointed, and it was decided that the meetings should begin at 10 a.m. and continue until noon, and then begin at The association met again last night

Mr. Jno. T. Bland, the President, called the meeting to order, with D. J. Corbett secretary. The subject discussed was "Are Churches Doing their Duty to the Young." It was ably argued by Messrs. D. J. Corbett, D. P. Bland, Rev. F. T. Wooten, of Caintuck; and Dr. T. H.

FREE CONCERT

For the Sailors at Luther Memorial Hall,

A very pleasant entertainment was given Thanksgiving Eve at Luther 'Memorial Hall, complimentary to seafaring men in port, and under the management of Rev. F. W. E. Peschau. It consisted of vocal and instrumental music, and was highly enjoyed by those present, many seamen being among the audience. Major and Mrs. H. H. Foster sang a duet in dialogue, which was very funny and elicited much applause. Misses Peschau, Schulken and Zeigler sang some pretty solos, and Master Charlie Schulken and Miss Schulken a duet entitled "The Shoemaker's Song, very pleasingly. Mr. Bornemann rendered a few familiar airs on the accordeon which were very much enjoyed.

CAPE FEAR: RIVER STEAMERS.

A Meeting of Stockholders and Directors at Fayetteville.

The Fayetteville Observer says that a meeting of stockholders and directors of the Steamboat Company operating the three lines of steamers on the Cape Fear river between that place and Wilmington was held in Fayetteville last Tuesday. The principal stockholders in the company at present are: R. M. Nimocks, W. S. Cook, R. H. Tomlinson, A. H. Slocumb, Sandy Robinson, A. L. Shaw and Woody & Currie, of Wilmington. The report of the business of the company for the past year was shown up and proved to be highly satisfactory to the directors. It was understood that in the future, as in the past, the D. Murchison, Cape Fear, and A, P. Hurt would continue to ply the waters of the Cape Fear between Fayetteville and Wilmington.
