The Chicago Inter-Ocean, as intensely partisan as it is, gets level-headed sometimes, which is shown by the following tribute to Senator Vance: "There is an effort in North Carolina to use the Farmers' Alliance to defeat the re-election of Senator Vance. North Carolina has no Democrat so experienced as in national legislation as Senator Vance. Besides that, he is among the most popular of the Southern Senators."

Hon. Jerry Simpson, Alliance candidate for Congress in Kansas, and elected, was in the habit when addressing meetings, of pulling off his shoes and showing his sockless feet, as an evidence that he was too poor to buy socks. He thought this was the way to "sock it to the high tariff fellows, and expose the naked truth. As his salary will now be $5,000 a year, and an allowance for stationery, he can afford to wear socks.

Corporal Tanner says the people at the last election sat down upon the administration because it failed to do its duty to the soldiers and undertook to limit the outflow of pensions, and hence the inflow of Democratic votes. The Corporal however has no just cause of complaint. As limited as the outflow was he has raked in about $197,000 in fees so far, and has not worked his mouth unusually hard, either.

A strange thing happened in New York a few days ago. A man was found lying dead in the street. There would be nothing so very strange in this if the man didn't have $3,500 in his pockets. Men with that much pocket change don't usually shoot themselves in the neck in the street, and when friends do the shooting they generally remove the money to prevent it from falling into other hands.

Life is not all misery even for the wretched. The New Orleans States which made such a gallant fight for the Louisiana Lottery, takes solid comfort in the report that Jay Gould caught Wanamaker where the hair was short and shook several millions out of him in Reading Railroad stock.

Some of the laid-out Republican conspirators now want Congress to take the districting of Congressional districts into its own hands. Why don't they go the whole pig while they are about it and urge Congress to pass a law that none but Republicans be eligible to seats in Congress?

Notwithstanding the report that the Jews are treated kindly in Russia, the Czar has just issued an edict directing that no government work be given to them outside of the territorial limit assigned to them. And Russia claims to be a civilized country.

While the average Democratic plurality on the State ticket in the late election in Michigan was between 3,000 and 4,000, the pluralities for the Democratic candidates for Congress aggregated 10,000, which shows that tariff reform is none of your side issues.

Henry A. Aldrich, of Meriden, Mass., had a genuine case of grip. He was postmaster of that town for fifty years right straight along and resigned the other day because licking Wanamaker's red stamps didn't agree with his health.

The question is now in society in some sections in the North, "shall our girls whistle?" This is not near as important a question as "shall our girls chew gum?" on which society does not seem to have become agitated yet.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Services in St. John's Church to-day—Advent Sunday—by the Rector, Rev. J. Carmichael, D. D. Morning prayer, sermon and Holy Communion, at 11 o'clock. Evening prayer at 5 o'clock. Sunday school at 4 p. m.

In the Lutheran Church, corner Sixth and Market streets, there will be Scandinavian services at 3:30 p. m. to-day, instead of 4 p. m. as heretofore, on account of the coming of dark so early. These services have been well attended. All Scandinavians are invited to be present.

Special Sermons, Superior Singing, Etc. In the two English services to-day in the Lutheran Church, the pastor, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, will preach on the following subjects: At 11 a. m., "Respectable Sinners and their Destiny," and at 7:30 p. m., "Unnoticed Christians and their Reward."

The choir, with some of the very best singers of our city in it, will sing some of the best church music, and a cornet duet will be given as a voluntary by Messrs. J. G. Miller and J. H. Rehder. By request, some of the exquisitely fine music rendered on Thanksgiving day before the full church, will be given again, and among others the touchingly sweet cornet and clarinet duet by Messrs. J. G. and A. C. Miller.

Thanksgiving and Reception. Rev. Dr. Carmichael received a telegram yesterday from Bishop Watson, who is now in New York, in response to one from himself, in which the Bishop agrees upon the date set for a thanksgiving service to be held Thursday next, December 4th. Services will be held on that day in St. John's Church and will be participated in by all of the Episcopal churches in the city, and to which also the public will be invited. Immediately after the service Bishop and Mrs. Watson will hold a reception in the rectory, Dr. Carmichael's residence, where they will be pleased to see and shake hands with all of their friends.

Thanksgiving for the Poor. Capt. F. M. James, who distributed supplies of provisions among the poor of the city on Thanksgiving Day, desires to thank those who aided with contributions, especially Mr. John F. Garrett who contributed 59 lbs of mutton, 100 lbs of beef, 50 lbs of pork and 15 lbs of sausage, in all 224 lbs of meats, to the supply, and Messrs. Thos. H. Johnson and T. A. Watson who also contributed liberally in meats. In all, 77 families were visited and supplied.

The Seamen's Bethel. The usual Sunday services at the Seamen's Bethel will be held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon conducted by Rev. R. E. Peele, pastor of the Brooklyn Baptist Church. All are cordially invited to attend, especially seamen. Masters of vessels will please have this notice read to their crews and urge their attendance on these meetings.

JUDGE FARRAR'S LECTURE.

The Programme for Monday at the Opera House.

The lecture to-morrow night by this distinguished humorist, of which we have made previous mention, will be at the Opera House at 8 p. m. The following is the programme: PART I.—Lecture, "Rip Van Winkle, or the Virginian Who Slept Ten Years." PART II.—"Rome and the Romans: a burlesque."

PART III.—"Miss Birdie's Wedding Day: a Story of Southern Life." The afternoon entertainment for the children—a department in which Judge Farrar excels—will be at 3:30 p. m., and will consist of stories, character selections, etc., in which Judge Farrar's unusual powers of mimicry will delight the young people.

Admission to the lecture for adults, 50 cents; half ticket admits any one in the afternoon, or a child at night. Tickets for sale at Yates' book store.

THE BAPTISTS.

Union Meeting of the Eastern Association. The second day's proceedings of the union meeting of the Eastern Association, opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in Brooklyn Baptist Church with devotional exercises conducted by the President, Mr. Jno. T. Bland. In the absence of Mr. D. J. Corbett, Mr. H. H. Foster was called to act as secretary.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, and after further routine business, the subject for discussion, "Do the Scriptures teach that the world is to be converted before the second coming of Christ?" was taken up, and argued in the affirmative by Rev. Dr. Pritchard and by Rev. R. E. Peele in the negative.

At the night session the committee on time and place to hold the next meeting, reported Caintuck as the place and Friday before the fifth Sabbath in March as the date. Mr. J. H. Hildreth was appointed to deliver the introductory sermon. The following subject was then discussed: "What is most needed in Baptist churches just now?" The discussion was opened by Rev. Mr. Peele and closed by Rev. Dr. Pritchard.

Mr. D. J. Corbett was appointed to conduct a missionary mass meeting to-day at 10:30 a. m.

A PARTY OF FAKIRS.

Three Alleged Gamblers Captured by the Police. Police officers Piver, Chadwick and Bray crossed the river at the foot of Market street yesterday afternoon about six o'clock, and arrested four white men who are charged with gambling. One of the men made his escape from the officers while on the way to the City Hall; the others were locked up in the city prison in default of security in the sum of fifty dollars each for their appearance before the Mayor Monday morning.

The three men were well dressed, of good appearance and about middle age. They gave their names and occupations as follows: James Snow, cigar maker, California; James Wilson, cook, Virginia, and James Conkling, drummer, Atlanta, Ga. It is said that they registered other names than the above at hotels here, where they have been stopping for several days. When searched at Police headquarters very little money was found on their persons. Wilson had $24 and a watch, Snow $1.80 and a watch, and Conkling 40 cents and some papers. It is alleged that the men were gambling with dice and tricking sailors, negroes and others out of their money by means of the "thimble-riggers" game played with shells of English walnuts. The police secured a few of the shells and one of the dice, the rest of the paraphernalia the fakirs managed to throw into the water while the party were recrossing the river in the ferry boat.

Explanatory. An accident to our newspaper press Friday night so delayed the printing of yesterday's issue of the STAR that we missed all the mails and our city subscribers were not supplied until late in the forenoon. Besides the delay, the result of the accident was a badly printed paper, all of which is greatly to be regretted. But we suppose we ought to be thankful that the net results were not worse.
