OUTLINES.

There was quite a lively running debate in the Senate vesterday relative to the domiciliary visit clause in the Election bill, and Mr. Gray, in continuing his speech of Friday, made several good points as to what law he would have relative to securring fair, honest elections; the House proceedings were of no general interest. -A Catholic priest, sent out by General

Brooke, has had a conference with the hig Indian chiefs relative to their hostile attitude; the principal cause of complaint is a fear of being starved, through the failure of the census man to report their full number; they occupy a very strong position, and to attack them would result in much bloodshed; the result of the conference was a promise on the part of the big chiefs to come in snd have a talk with Gen. Brooke. --- At vesterday's session of the National Alliance at Ocala much opposition was manifested to some of the features of the platform adopted on Friday; there is some dissatisfaction also relative to the officers elected; and it is said some Alliance political complications are not unlikely. -- The cotton firm of V. & C. Meyer, of New Orleans, suspended vesterday, with liabilities aggregating 32,500,000, and assets $3,000,000; it is the third largest cotton house in the country, and is supposed to be one of the wealthiest; they will ask for an extension, and promises to pay dollar for dollar, -A meeting of the Irish members of the House of Commons was held vesterday, when it was moved that Parnell vacate the chairmanship of the party: Parnell refused to allow the quesnon to be put, when McCarthy and forhave a meeting of their order and depose him from office. --- Clerk Mc-Pherson's list of members elect to the next Il use of Representatives shows 201 Democrats, 88 Republicans, and 8 Farmers' Alliance, with two disthets yet to be determined. --- New York markets: Money easy at 4 cli per cent; last loan at 5 per centil cotton easy; iniddling uplands v 7-16c, add ling Orleans 9%c; southern flour weak and dull; wheat unsettheir closing weak and dull; No. 2 red $1 024 at elevator; corn higher, irregular and dull, closing weak; No. 2,

The Duke of Marlborough is so unassuming in manner and dress that he is frequently; taken for an American gentleman. It is not often that an English nabob is complimented in that way.

There are said to be over a million men under arms in the British Empire, and the British subjects, thousands of whom are but a few removes from starvation, are taxed to feed and clothe them.

A critic objects to Stanley because he talks with his hands in his pockets. He manages at the same time to get his hands pretty deeply into the pockets of the American public, to the tune of about $500 a night.

The weather prophets who have been consulting the goose bone and crab shell say we are going to have a swinging cold winter. McKinley and his gang should have consulted the goose bone and crab shell before they put up the duty on wool.

Senator Quay says he is not going to resign from the National Republican committee to please a lot of Pennsylvania mugwumps. The Republicans are like the fellow with the bear. They have got him and they would like to turn him loose, but they are afraid.

The congregation of a colored church in Savannah is much excited over the appearance in the pulpit of the ghost of a former pastor who was hanged last year for murdering a white man. Like all ghosts who who are dressed in orthodox fashion he comes clad in flowing white

A New York Republican organ wants a conference of the leaders to devise some means to "cheer up and strengthen the disheartened Republicans who have been cast down by the recent elections." Why not inject some of Dr. Sequard's elixir or something strong.

LOCAL DOTS.

There is a moustache war in progress in Vienna. The waiters in the restaurants got to wearing and curling their moustaches like the young aristocratic bloods who patronized them, against which the y. b's protested, and the question now is shall the waiters lose the curled moustache or the restaurants lose the custom of the y. b's. At latest returns the waiters held the ground and their moustaches.

It is said that there are 30,000 Indians affected by the racket which is now going on, and that they can muster 6,000 fighting bucks. Gen. Miles is quoted as authority for the statement that they were driven into revolt by starvation, but as they have gobbled up lots of Government cattle they don't seem to be starving very bad at the present writing.

The English papers are now warmly applauding Parnell's pluck in holding on. That's doughnuts for them. The harder Parnell holds on and the harder he kicks the greater the dissension among his former followers. And that's what these English journals are working for, and hence their new-born admiration for Parnell's pluck.

A New York medical man says it is good to keep the mouth shut and thus escape disease which is sometimes contracted by people going around with their mouths open, inviting it to enter. It is good to keep the mouth shut for other than ty-fear members left the room; and it is sanitary reasons. Lots of people said that a majority of the party will | have got into trouble by not knowing how nor when to keep their mouths

> Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, seems to be anxious to find out who those twelve Senators and fifteen Representatives are who it is alleged were taken into the various silver pools when the silver bill was under discussion and scooped in a cool million by it, and has introduced a resolution of inquiry.

The Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Convention, at Ocala, Fla, is still working on the third party movement, and the indications are that a third party will be the outcome.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Entertainment to be Given by the Wilmington Amateur Vaudeville Co.

The Wilmington Amateur Vaudeville Company will present an entertainment at the Opera House, on Friday evening, December 19, and Monday evening, December-22.

The proceeds of the first performance will be devoted to the "King's Daughters," to aid them in maintaining their Shelter for the Poor, at the Sound. This is a deserving charity, and is well worth all the efforts in its behalf.

The second performance will be for the benefit of the Seamen's Free Library and Reading Room, which needs money to enlarge its stock of newspapers and periodicals.-

The personnel of the company is composed entirely of young men residing in this city. They have been rehearsing for the past four weeks and will no doubt give a very fine performance. The entertainment will consist of a minstrel performance first, and variety sketches will follow. This has never yet been done by amateurs here and the performance will have a spice of novelty about it. Tickets for the first performance will be on sale ar Yates' book store next Wednesday. Reserved seats, 75 cents.

CAN SUCH THINGS BE?

Stephen in Washington-A Candidate for Collector of Customs.

The last paragraph of the following extract from the Washington Post will be read with absorbing interest and unbounded delight by those colored people who have been "soft" enough to suppose that everything was lovely for one of their race in the fight for the Collectorship: "Sheriff S. H. Manning of Wilmington; N. C., is registered at the Ebbitt. He is a stalwart Republican, and describes himself as 'one of the carpet-baggers who emigrated to the South after the war.' Speaking of the temper of Republican leaders of his section he said yesterday: 'The present administration has been quite satisfactory to the Republicans of North Carolina, except to a few disgruntled office seekers who didn't get what they wanted.'.

"Mr. Manning, whose term of sheriff of his county expires in a few days, is a candidate for Collector of Customs of the port of Wilmington, a position now vacant, and will interview President Harrison on the subject this morning."

A SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE.

Thirty-Pound Gobblers as Common as Pig

Wilmington sportmen will read with interest, even if they cannot "go to Halifax," this from a Weldon correspondent of a Virginia paper

"Game of all kinds is quite abundant n the woods around town. Mr. W. H. Brown, who is a celebrated sportsman here, killed four large turkeys Saturday, and Mr. Slater, of Halifax, killed two tremendous gobblers, weighing over thirty pounds each. There was never the like of opossums seen here before. and some of them are very large. Coons, mink, and beaver are also taken in every night by the trapper.'

OPERA HOUSE.

George Wilson's Minstrels Give a Fine

Performance. After an absence of four years that king of minstrels, George Wilson, held the boards at the Opera House last night, and delighted a good house with the finest performance of its character ever seen in this city. The entire company are artists

The performance was of the most refined character, the staging unique and decidedly tasty, and the costuming in the harmonious blending of colors very

Of the special features the Kirmesse Gypsy dance deserves especial mention. Duval, the contortionist, is unquestionably the best ever seen in this city, and performed many apparent impossibilities. Messrs. Howard, Talbert, Russell and. McLeod, in their performance on various musical instruments, were greeted with rapturous applause. With two flutes, an accordeon and a violincello, they gave a wonderful correct imitation of a church organ, which was very fine. Come again, George, and you may be assured of a royal welcome. EVANGELIST PEARSON.

Pleasant Words About His Recent Series of Meetings in Natchez.

The thousands of admirers of Rev. R. G. Pearson in Wilmington will be glad to know that his recent series of meetings in Natchez, Miss., were very successful. The Democrat, of that city, says: "Natchez has never undergone such a stirring evangelical movement as has been witnessed since Mr. Pearson's arrival, increasing in interest from day to day, until the hours of service were looked for with eagerness by all classes who were wont to attend them. There can be no question that he has done great good; he has interested the public by his own high standard of thought, he has instructed from his inexhaustible store of knowledge from the one book; he has comforted the sorrowing; he has given decision to the doubting; he has made crooked ways straight; cheered the despondent and sent happiness into many homes. A standing request was made by the immense congregation for the divine to return again in December of next year."

THE SMITH SUIT. Conclusion of the Trial in the U.S. Court

at Raleigh. The News and Observer of yesterday gives the following account of the conclusion of the trial on Friday: The day was consumed in argument by counsel on both sides, which was not concluded till late in the evening. Mr. Ricaud and Judge Russell spoke for the plaintiff and both made powerful and telling speeches which carried conviction with them.

Messrs. John D. Bellamy and F. H. Busbee spoke for the defendants, and both were powerful and eloquent in their argument, presenting their case in a strong and forcible light. Judge Seymour's charge to the jury was clear, comprehensive and impartial. Two issues were presented to the jury, as follows: First, as to whether Geo. H. Smith was entitled to recover the estate of Thomas H. Smith.

Second, as to whether Ellen Smith and Bridget Massa were one and the The jury after being out an hour, found in the affirmative in both issues;

both findings being in favor of the plain-The matter of rents was compromised beforehand and was not submitted to the jury. The estate which Geo. Smith recovers consists almost entirely of real estate valued at $35,000.
