OPERA HOUSE. Mountain Pink-A Most Enjoyable Performance.

Decidedly the most enjoyable performance that the New York Theatre Company has given in this city was the "Mountain Pink." the representation of which charmed and delighted the audience that filled the Opera House last night. This beautiful drama has many dramatic scenes, that were greeted with generous and deserved applause. Miss Minkley, as Sincerity (the Pink), has a fine conception of the character she portrays. The audience, quick to recognize merit, paid only a well deserved tribute in calling her before the curtain at the end of the third act. The entire company showed marked improvement in their delineations of the accessory characters over what they have hereto-

To-night the "Galley Slave" will be presented. This is a strong piece, and should be greeted by a crowded house.

At a way station on the Carolina Central road yesterday, says the Charlotte News of Wednesday, a lady passenger from the country raised a window and stuck her head out to see what the engine was blowing for. Just as she did so the train sped by the station and the mail-catcher took off her bonnet and carried a lot of pins and hair along with it. She raised a big row and couldn't be made to understand why she shouldn't be thankful that her her head didn't go along with the bonnet.

STATE GUARD ENCAMPMENT.

Probability that the First Virginia Regiment Will Join the North Carolina Boys in Camp.

Many of the readers of the STAR will be delighted to hear that there is a strong probability that the First Regiment of Virginia Volunteers will go into camp this summer at Wrightsville with the troops of the North Carolina State Guard.

Col. W. C. Jones vesterday received a letter from the Colonel of the First Virginia, of which the following is a

HEADQUARTERS FIRST REGIMENT VIRGINIA VOLUNTEERS, INFANTRY,

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 9th, 1890. Col. W. C. Jones, commanding Second Regiment, N. C. S. G.:

Sin:-I am in receipt of yours of the 8th inst., referring to your meeting with Col. Cowardin and extending to us your gratification at the knowledge that your Governor has extended to the First Regiment, Virginia Volunteers, an invitation to camp at Wilmington next summer with your troops. Colonel, these two kind letters were most unexpected; yet for this the more highly appreciated. A compliment has been paid us, than which none higher could have been extended. Words fail me to express fully our feelings. I can only say I thank you most heartily and that we will accept if we can so arrange. It is as you know necessary, first, for me to consult superior officers as to leaving State, and then to refer these matters to a conference of my officers. From such expressions as I have heard to-day, I am of opinion that within a few days I shall be able to write you that we are coming, and when. I will be obliged if you will send the plot with a description of your camp grounds and surroundings, as suggested

Again thanking you for your kind-

I am yours respectfully, HENRY C. JONES, Colonel. ST. AGNES' GUILD.

A Successful and Enjoyable Entertain-

A novel entertainment was given last night by the ladies of St. Agnes' Guild at their hall in the rear of St. James' Church. The most attractive part of the entertainment was the "living statuary," under the management of Mrs. Albert Gore, assisted by Mrs. Fred Owen and Mrs. T. C. DeRosset. The following is a list of the characters and and the impersonators, viz: "Jeptha's daughter and companions," Misses Eliza Potter, Katie Walker, Louminor Mebane, Augusta McPherson, Callie Reid French, Haunah Bolles.

"Pygmalion and Galatea," Miss Eliza Potter and Mr. H. H. McIlhenny.

"Nidia," Miss Eliza Potter. "Checkers Up at the Farm," Messrs. Frank Meares, H. H. McIlhenny, Miss Augusta McPherson, Miss Kate Walker. "Exiles of Babylon," Mr. Frank Meares and Misses Louminor Mebane, Katie

Walker, Callie Reid French, Augusta McFherson. "Three Gracee," Misses Hannah Bolles. Augusta McPherson, Callie Reid

French. "Romeo and Juliet," Mr. H. H. Mcliterary, Miss Louminor Mebane.

"Joan D'Arc," Miss Callie Reid "Neighboring Pews," Mr. Frank

Meares, Miss Katie Walker. "John Alden and Priscilla," Miss Hannah Bolles, Mr. H. H. McIlhenny "After the Ball," (tableau), Misses Eliza Potter, Callie Reid French, Katie Walker, Louminor Mebane.

It was a very pretty sight, and a great Christmas cakes, dolls, etc., were displayed by the ladies for sale, and a good sum was realized from their disposal, BY RIVER AND RAIL.

The old boys at the Western Union Telegraph Office are tickled to death with the recent improvements made there by Chief Operator Fred Cudlipp and Manager C. C. Brown. Every wire was laid anew to the various instruments and five sets of repeaters and a switch-board of 22 wires was put up. The latter is a neat piece of mechanism. Carpenters have also been at work and the office now presents a neat and handsome appearance.
