OUTLINES.

Numerous remonstrances from the State of New Jersey against the passage of the Election bill were presented in the Senate yesterday; the resolution relative to meeting at 10 a. m. and evening sessions was amended by striking out the clause for evening sessions, which was agreed to, and thus amended it was passed; a long debate then followed on Mr. Dolph's resolution for an inquiry whether the right to vote at Federal and State elections was denied to any male citizen of any State except for crime and rebellion; the private calendar only was considered at the House. — The reappointment bill, based on a representation of 1,179 members of the House, has been reported by the House Committee on the Census, and will be reported to-day. — Proceedings have been instituted against the Attorney General of South Carolina for discharging a clerk in his office for political reasons. — Gen. Brooke telegraphs that he has received reports that nearly all the Indian chiefs are coming in from the West, a small party broke away and have gone north, a fight had occurred in which some Indians were hurt. — A porcelain factory, near Warsaw, owned by a Russian Prince, was destroyed by fire yesterday, and eight of the employees lost their lives. — Baltimore, commended for his relief of the Irish. — Dun & Co. report the business outlook as more hopeful. — The Droid Mills Manufacturing Company of Baltimore made a statement yesterday; the concern is the largest cotton-duck manufacturing company in the country. — New York markets: Money easy at 4 1/2 per cent; last low at 3 per cent; cotton quoted quiet; middling upland 13 1/2-14; southern 14 1/2-15; more active; wheat dull and steady; higher No. 2 red at 94 1/2; elevator corn dull and steady; No. 2 at 44; spirits moderate and weak at 38 1/2-39; sugar and steady; strained, common at 22 1/2-23 1/2.

King Kalakaua, the dusky individual who plays monarch of Hawaii, has arrived in San Francisco. His visit to this country is attributed to three objects; one a proposition for annexation to the United States, which is favored by the sugar planters who would make $5,000,000 by the bounty on sugar, and could afford to buy King Bill off with this; the next to make a reciprocity treaty, and the third to arrange for the publishing of a book which he has written on "Mankind." Bill swings a pretty heavy hand at "draw," but his accomplishments as a quill driver are yet an unknown quantity.

A lady of Chattanooga says Red Cloud, the Sioux Chief, is her brother. He was stolen from his home in Wisconsin when a little boy. Some years ago he revisited his home, but soon tired of the dull plodding ways of Wisconsin civilization, and lit out for Sioux land. He is probably one of Peck's "Bad Boys."

A fellow who took a fancy to a fine overcoat hanging in a clothing house show window in Chicago, a few days ago, hurled a cobble stone through the window and yanked the coat out. The police got along in time to secure the cobble stone, the fragments of glass and the hole, but the man and the coat went off together.

Some of the Republican bosses who are disgusted with the Farmers' Alliance because of the passage in the meeting at Ocala of the protest against the Force bill, say it is nothing more than an attachment to the Democratic party. If this be so the bosses might as well pull down their signs and close up shop.

Senator Pettigrew congratulates the country on the prospect of the extermination of the seals in the Behring Sea, and when that happens he says it will be the daisiest codfish pasture in the world. As Codfish Hoar is fond of codfish balls this is a matter in which he is interested.

Rev. T. B. Newberry announces that he will begin the publication of The North Carolina Baptist, a weekly religious journal, at Fayetteville, on or about the 15th of January.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

A Pleasant Entertainment at the City Hall Last Night. A pleasant entertainment was given last night at the City Hall by the "Ministering Circle" of the "King's Daughters," for the benefit of the institution established last summer on Wrightsville beach for poor children of the community, and known as "The Shelter of the Silver Cross." An abundance of tempting edibles was served by the young ladies. Mrs. J. W. Murchison presided at the Cake Table; Mrs. P. L. Bridges at the Book Booth; Miss Eva Whitehead and Miss Lizzie Myers at the Fancy Booth; Misses Nellie Draper, Lizzie Peck and Katie De Rosset at the Doll Booth, and Mrs. Chas. King at the Candy Table.

NAVAL STORES.

Receipts of naval stores at this port for the crop year—from April 1st to December 13th—as compared with receipts for the same term last year are as follows: Spirits turpentine, 54,964 casks; last year, 55,809. Rosin, 241,295 bbls.; last year, 164,748. Tar, 85,853 bbls.; last year, 48,114. Crude turpentine, 14,858 bbls.; last year, 14,931.

Bishop Haid's Lecture.

Bishop Haid's third lecture was delivered last night in St. Thomas' Church, to a large and appreciative audience. His subject was: "Duties of Christians to the Civil Government." The Bishop lectures again to-night, the services beginning at 8 o'clock.

The Y. M. C. A.—Ladies' Evening.

Visitors at the Y. M. C. A. rooms last night had a very pleasant time. Besides the music—vocal and instrumental—they were entertained by Mr. C. I. Comfort with a phonograph, with amplifier, which was a source of great pleasure to all present.

Weather Forecasts.

The following are the weather forecasts for to-day: For Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina and Georgia and Florida, colder, fair weather, northerly winds.

OPER A HOUSE.

The Galley Slave Last Night by the New York Theatre Company. A large audience witnessed the production of "The Galley Slave" by the New York Theatre Co., at the Opera House last night. The performance was a decided success.

This excellent company will give a matinee at 2 p. m. to-day, when "Uncle Joshua Whitcomb" will be presented. The success of this piece has been something phenomenal. It has been one of the standard favorites for twenty-five years. The little folks and all big ones who enjoy a hearty laugh should be sure and be present.

To-night, "The Vagabond Comrade" will be the attraction. This performance will close the company's engagement, and as it is an excellent one, all should turn out and give them a hearty good-bye.

Cotton for Europe.

Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son cleared the German barque Rucker yesterday, for Queenstown, Falmouth or Plymouth for orders, with 1,298 bales cotton, weighing 363,144 pounds and valued at $60,435. HIS THROAT CUT.

A Mysterious Affair at Norfolk, Va.—Mr. Robert R. Taylor, formerly of Wilmington, Assaulted and Seriously Injured.

The brief telegram in the STAR yesterday, from Norfolk, Va., stating that Mr. Robt. R. Taylor, lumber inspector of that place, had been assaulted and his throat cut, and would probably die, excited considerable interest here. Mr. Taylor being a son of Mr. Jos. W. Taylor, and up to a few years ago a citizen of Wilmington. Yesterday afternoon Mr. J. D. McEachern, brother-in-law of Mr. Robt. Taylor telegraphed to Norfolk for particulars, and was informed by wire that Taylor's condition was not so serious as reported, and that he was not expected to die from the wound.

The Norfolk Landmark of yesterday contains the following particulars of the affair:

At seven o'clock last evening there was great excitement on the south side of Main street, near Church, by the report that a man had his throat cut, and for some time great mystery seemed to envelop the affair. Mr. Robert R. Taylor, a well known young man, walked into Mr. William Hoffman's barber shop, No. 203 Main street, under the Washington House, bleeding at the neck, but not unconcerned about it, except that he wanted to wash the blood off. He didn't know what his condition really was. When his coat and vest were unbuttoned it was very apparent that he had been bleeding profusely. He sat down in a chair and refused to tell who did it, or where the cutting was done. As he leaned over the blood gushed from his throat in a stream, and the sight was a ghastly one. Mr. Hoffman rushed out after a doctor, and other gentlemen also went after one. The news soon spread, and a large crowd gathered about the front of the shop. Dr. Charters responded and had the wounded man carried to the St. Vincent's hospital, he going there with him, where he was sewed and dressed the wound, and then turned the case over to Dr. N. H. Riddick.

When the report that a man had been cut was sent out, police officers Brooks and Bamburger responded promptly, and police detective Prince was soon on the spot and dispersed the crowd. Officers Brooks and a man named Ephraim H. Beazley, the latter appearing to be a friend of Taylor, accompanied him to the hospital, together with the doctor. Beazley had tried to get a doctor for Taylor, and appeared in every way interested in him. The cutting was done on the front of the Washington House, and the man named Ephraim H. Beazley, who appeared to be a friend of Taylor, accompanied him to the hospital, together with the doctor. Beazley had tried to get a doctor for Taylor, and appeared in every way interested in him.

They went to Portsmouth in the search, and in the meantime Police Detective Heppel arrested Capps in front of the Monogram saloon, Main street, this city, and locked him up upon the report of Officers Brooks and Beazley. They, with Detective Heppel and Police Justice East, took the two prisoners to the hospital for identification by the wounded man. He did not appear very much prostrated, but talked with ease. He said that Beazley was a friend of his, and didn't do the cutting; that he had no reason for the deed, and he recognized Capps as having cut him or as having had any fuss with him. In fact, he didn't seem to know how the affair occurred. Soon after he was carried to the hospital he told Officer Brooks that a negro cut him. Reports differ as to whether Taylor had been drinking.

The prisoners were carried back to the police station. An effort was made to get bail for them, but both Justice East and Justice Dalton refused it. The wound in Taylor's neck, on the right side, is an ugly one, but no vital part was cut and it is not necessarily dangerous. He is a large and fleshy man, said to weigh near 200 pounds. He is a timber inspector by profession and has been employed considerably by Messrs. Tunis, Eccles & Co., in Berkeley. He lives at No. 31 Noe's Court. He and his wife had arranged to leave Norfolk this morning via the Seacoast & Roanoke Railroad, and the Atlantic Coast Line for Valdosta, Ga., to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents. He had secured transportation through the Union ticket agency, and every preparation for the trip was completed.

THE PRISONERS' STATEMENTS.

The prisoners were interviewed by the Landmark in their cells last night at 12 o'clock. Beazley occupied a chair in his cell. He is a married man and lives in the next street. He said he met Taylor in front of the Washington House, where Taylor was waiting to be shaved in Hoffman's shop; that while they were talking Simon Capps and Jack Howard came up; that Taylor ask him (Beazley) if he knew Howard and he said yes; that Taylor said the fact he believed; that just then Taylor and Capps became involved in a fuss about what he (Beazley) couldn't say, but he heard Taylor call Capps a d—n liar, and saw Capps strike at Taylor lightly, and then saw blood on Taylor's face. Taylor has a slight cut on the face. That is (Beazley) went with Taylor into the barber shop to wash his face and also went after a doctor for him.

Capps was situated much more comfortably in his cell, having been provided with nice bedding by friends, and had retired for the night, but was not asleep last night. He didn't want to say anything about the affair, and said the reporter could come over to the Police Court this morning and hear it all; that he would then prove that he was not the man wanted. He became more talkative after awhile, and said that he was sitting in a window of the Washington House when the fuss was going on, but didn't know Taylor when he saw him. His denial of the charge that he did the cutting was very emphatic; said he had had no fuss at all with Taylor. He seemed to have no fear of the trial of the case.

SOUTHERN METHODISTS.

The N. C. Conference at Wilson—Yesterday's Proceedings.

The Conference opened at 9:30 a. m., with Bishop J. C. Keener in the chair. The opening religious services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Wheeler. The minutes were read and approved. The Bishop announced that Alpheus McCullen, of the Missouri Conference, had been transferred to this Conference.

Rev. J. C. Morris addressed the Conference in the interest of Church Extension.

The secretary read a report from the trustees of Davenport Female College of Lenoir, which was referred to the Board of Education.

The Bishop took up Question 2: Who remain on trial? Answer: A. G. Stacey. Question 3: What travelling preachers are elected elders? Answer: Chas. W. Robinson.

The report of Littleton Female College was handed in and referred to the Board of Education.

The Conference granted the Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District the privilege to employ Rev. W. A. Jenkins on that work next year.

Dr. B. F. Dixon, of the W. N. C. Conference, and W. P. Harrison, Book Editor, were introduced to the Conference. The latter addressed the Conference in reference to the second Ecumenical Conference, to be held in Washington, D. C., in 1891. The Doctor thinks that at that Conference there will be a gain since 1881, of at least 1,600,000 members.

Dr. B. F. Dixon, President of the Greensboro Female College, was then introduced and handed in his report, which was referred to the Board of Education.

Dr. W. H. Potter, of Georgia, one of the Missionary Secretaries, being introduced, addressed the Conference on the subject of missions. His address was a masterpiece. He is a strong man, and will vindicate the wisdom of the General Conference in electing him one of the secretaries.

After the address a collection was taken up, and about $700 were raised to support a missionary in the foreign field. This amount is over and above the regular assessment.

Resolutions thanking Dr. Potter for his fine address were passed. The Presiding Elders were appointed to nominate the various examining committees.

The investigating committee in the case of Dr. R. Bruton reported a trial necessary. The Bishop then appointed the following committee of trial: W. H. Jenkins, W. S. Davis, B. R. Hall, J. W. Moore, J. N. Cole, R. J. Moorhead, R. Raven, J. Sanford and V. A. Sharpe. Rev. M. L. Wood is to preside and J. T. Abernathy is secretary. J. H. Holden is prosecutor, and J. R. Brooks, F. A. Woodard and J. F. Bruton appear for the defendant.

Rev. John N. Cole offered resolutions asking the preachers to take up collections every Thanksgiving day for the Oxford Orphan Asylum, and asking the Bishop to appoint Rev. W. S. Black, D. D., to the superintendency of the Orphan Asylum.

Question, "Who are admitted on trial?" was taken up. Answer: W. B. Moore, John A. Rouse, J. F. Usrey and N. E. Seabolt.

After announcements the Conference adjourned with the benediction by the Bishop.
