OUTLINES.

Yesterday was an exceedingly interesting day in the Senate; Mr. Stanford made a speech in advocacy of the bill introduced by him to provide the government with means to supply the national want of a sound circulating medium, and the printing deficiency bill was taken up and passed; the Election bill then came up, when Mr. Call concluded his speech against it, and Mr. Gibson followed in a speech also in opposition; the feature of the day came next, being a strong and argumentative speech against the passage of the bill by Mr. Stewart, Republican, of Nevada; his speech attracted universal attention from both sides of the chamber, about thirty members on each side being present, and the galleries received it with great applause; the proceedings in the House were of no special interest. A West Virginia dispatch reports terrible effects from the late snow storm: the railroads are blocked up and telegraphic work is suspended; the roofs of several houses were crushed in and four people badly hurt; five or six children perished in the storm; and the families of one hundred miners are in a dangerous situation. -A man who murdered his brother-in-law was hung at Sherbrook, Ont., yesterday, and the sher if from excitement attending the arrangements, died a short while before the execution from heart disease. ---It is now said that it was mud that was thrown into Parnell's face and eyes, and not lime; twenty-three women of Kilkenny have published an address denouncing Parnell in the severest terms, and they say that his very presence polities the soil. - Senator Sherman tion to so construe the tariff law as to maintain the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty in operation, fearing that it might reopen the entire tariff question. .--- Dun & Co. report that trade continues large for the season, but that there is a perceptible loss of confidence; money is close at all points; business failures for the week number 363. ---A small dwelling in Newark, N. J., was burned last night, and a lady and her grand-daughter perished in the flames. -The Inter-State Immigration Convention, which has been holding its sessions in Asheville, adjourned vesterday, -- New York markets: Money easy at 365 per cent., closing offered at 3 per cent.; cotton quoted dull; middling Fact low middling 813-16c; southern floor firm and quiet; wheat dull and 4 614 c up and firm; No. 2 red $1 05 3 05 ac at elevator; corn irregular; No. 2, 64@6334c at elevator; spirits turpentine quiet and steadier at 371/2@381/4 cents; rosin easy; common to good, $1 4212 61 4714.

The Republicans of Ohio must be getting on to the ragged edge pretty bad, when they talk of running John Sherman or Rutherford B. Hayes for Governor.

The Pottstown, Pa., Iron Company has reduced the wages of puddlers twenty per cent. Who said the McKinley tariff wouldn't insure good wages to the workingmen?

Insanity seems to be on the increase in France. It is said the government is considering a tariff law which is worse and more idiotic than the McKinley monstrosity.

It is said that over 4,000 people have left Rooks county, Kansas, and that on all sides may be seen tenantless houses and abandoned farm machinery on the prairies. The drought

Gen. Terry, who died a few days ago at New Haven, distinguished himself by capturing Fort Fisher, which Ben Butler said could not be captured, but would have to be starved out. He was a lawyer by profession, and entered the army at the outbreak of the war. He was sixty-five years old at the time of his death.

Dr. Koch's lymph is a very preclous liquid. It is said that every drop of it is worth $1,300, about $39,000 a teaspoonful. A drop diluded furnishes enough to make 130 injections, every injection being worth $10 to the doctor. At this rate, if Dr. Koch is on the make it will not take him long to become a bloated millionaire.

OPERA HOUSE.

To-Night McLean and Prescott in Cleo-blate's clothing store on North Front Mr. McLean and Miss Prescott are street broke and fell to the floor somewell and most favorably known in Wiltime during Thursday night after the mington. We copy from the Evansville Ind.) Courier a notice of the play as follows: "The play is a dramatization age to stock estimated at $86.00. Forof Rider Haggard's fanciful story of tunately no other damage resulted. The 'Cleopatra," in which there is abundant accident was not discovered until the material for tragic interest. A highly emotional drama has been the result of the playwright's efforts. The scenes are somewhat different in the play from the book, and Miss Prescott is gaged with others is storing cargo on now distinguishing herself as actress the Clyde steamer Pawnee yesterday and author. She is not obliged to anmorning, fell through a hatchway from nounce to the public that the value of the deck to the hold of the vessel-a her play consists in the enormous royaldistance of about twelve feet. She has written a great play and acts it grandly herself. She is a genius of whom America may be proud.

The sale of reserved seats began yesterday at Yates' book store for the performance to-night.

STORE-BREAKING.

Two Stores Robbed Thursday Night. The wholesale grocery of Messrs. Adrian & Vollers, corner of Front and Dock streets, was broken open some time during Thursday night, and it is supposed that the thieves helped themselves from the large stock of goods within their reach. Entrance was made from the lot in rear of the store by cutting through a window-blind and breaking a glass, and then removing the window-lastening. The thieves made their exit through a door opening on Dock street, which they left unfastened.

The same night Messrs. Holmes & Waters' warehouse under Mr. S. H. Fishblate's clothing store on Front street, was entered and robbed through a door in the rear of the building.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Wilmington Amatuer Vaudeville Co. The performance given by the Wilmington Amateur Vaudeville Company

last night at the Opera House, for the benefit of the "Shelter of the Silver Cross," was decidedly the grandest success of the season. The company was greeted by one of the largest and most appreciative audiences ever seen in the Opera Hosse, who showed their appreciation by roars of laughter and continuous applause.

No professionat troupe ever conducted a performance smoother and with more exactness than did our amateurs, which reflects great credit upon the stage manager, Mr. K. M. Murchison. The company spared no pains or money to have the performane a capital one. The orchestra was one of the best ever in our Opera House, and was led by Professor Miller, who displayed great musical skill and added greatly to the entertain-

The programmes were very neatly gotten up, and much credit is due Mr. Murchison, who with his skillful pen furnished an original design for a title. Below we give the programme for the performance.

VII .- The Arion Quartette of Wilmington, N.C.-Mr. French, Mr. Toomer, Mr. Welsh, Mr. Manning.

Medley-Arr. by Welsh. At the sound of the bugle call the curtain rose, and the performance began with a full chorus by the entire company, all attired in full dress suits with the exception of the end men, who were dressed in their original fancy costumes. The solos of Mr. French and Mr. Welsh with the quartette choruses, were well rendered and greatly appreciated by the audience. Mr. Holden's fine bass solo entitled "Six Feet of Earth," was one of the enjoyable features, his rich bass notes captivating the entire audience. Mr. Shrier's comical song, "The Wilmington Police," received showers of applause. Messrs. Robinson and Murchison, in their song and dance, "The Whistling Coons," created universal favorable comment, and it was the leading feature of the evening. Mr. Newman, in his original local hits, "When Johnnie Gets his Gun," brought rounds of applause. Mr. C. B. Southerland filled nis position as interlocutor with grace and dignity, and with his aid the show was made a success. After numerous jokes by the end men the first act was concluded by a very amusing scene entitled "Brown's Razorback Mule." During the intermission the orchestra played Mr. Murchison's charming gavotte, which was very pretty and reflects great credit upon the com-

The acrobats, Messrs. Chadbourn, Grainger and Woodward displayed great strength and activity on the bar and in turning, and were most generously ap plauded.

Mr. Henry Newman in his negro specialty was one of the most amusing features of the evening; his costume being of an unusually comical nature. He is a comedian of the true type,

Messrs. Murchison and Miller in their musical act equal any who have as yet appeared on the Wilmington stage. Mr. Miller played the cornet, violin, guitar, viola, ocarına and mandolin, while Mr. Murchison performed in the most artistic manner on the cello, mandolin, guitar, mandola ocarina, banjo and flute. Mr. Murchison took the character of an Irishman and his Irish song "Since Kate Learned How to Play" brought roars of applause.

Mr. Will Miller, in his Dutchman act was great his song "Dot Duch Gals Name," was one of the best things on the programme and won for Mr. Miller a deserved reputation.

The greatest hit of the evening was the skirt dance by Messrs. Robinson, Shier, Morrison and Moore; their appearance as girls was one of the finest | The Churches. personations ever witnessed, and to these young gentlemen belong a deserved compliment, both from the press and The Orion Quartette. Messrs. French, Toomer, Welsh and Manning, rendered some of their excellent music; their medley arranged by Mr. Welch, which concluded the programme, gave all present such a pleasing farewell that many expressed their intention to see the Monday night performance, which will be given for the benefit of the Seamen's Free Library and Reading Room, for which tickets will be on sale this morning at Yates'. No doubt a large amount was raised last night, and will very materially aid the ladies in their good work.

Every one should try to go and encourage the actors, and contribute to the worthy cause for which the entertainment is given.

The entertainment was in every way a most decided success, and nothing but words of praise were heard from all who were present.
