FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS

SECOND SESSION.

Election Bill Further Discussed in the Senate-Four and a Half Hours' Speech by Mr. George-Able Defense of Mississippi-Reply by Mr. Hawley-House not in Session,

> By Telegraph to the Morning Star. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 .- After some preliminary business the Election bill was taken up, and Mr. George addressed the Senate in opposition to the bill.

Mr, George alluded to the statement made vesterday by Mr. Hoar, that there was not a line or sentence in the bill that would correct the alleged evils and wrongs growing out of the new constitution of Mississippi, and said that nevertheless the time of the Senate had wheen largely occupied by Republican Senators in the discussion of that concededly irrelevant question.

Mr. George proceeded to review and to defend the course of the people of Mississippi in the adoption of their new constitution, and to discuss in that connection the constitutions and statutes of other States on the subject of suffrage and of negroes. In winding up this part of his argument Mr. George said that he had thus gone through the history of the legislation and constitutional provisions of Northern and Western States, not with a view of charging people with inconsistency, with a view of showing judgment of the American people that the negro race was incapable of self government. This was before the adoption of the fifteenth constitutional amendment had prohibited distinction on account of race. Mississippi having a larger proportion of negro population than any other State, having one hundred thousand voters who are unable to read, and who are uninformed as to civil and free institutions, had seen proper to call a convention to correct the evi-not the negro suffrage per se, but of ignorant and debased suffrage.

After speaking for four hours and a half Mr. George said that he was weary and to have the privilege of finishing his speech when the Senate meets again. No objection to his request came from the Republican side of the chamber.

Mr. Hawley made an explanation of some points made by Mr. George in conection with the laws and political practices of Connecticut, and followed with another criticism of the new constitution of Mississippi, which, he said, contained a patent, open, acknowledged, detiant device for disfranchising colored citizens of Mississippi. Senator George could not justify it, or could not answer the papers of his own State that condemned it. The pending bill was intended to remedy such a case as that. Perhaps it could not do so, but that clause of the Mississippi constitution was one of the most tremendous arguments in favor of the bill. It seemed to have been brought in by Providence, right in the very crisis of the contro-

Call for a Convention of Railroad Commissioners.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31 .- At a convention of railroad commissioners, held at Washington on the 6th of March, 1889, a resolution was adopted providing for an annual convention of said commissioners, and a committee was formed, of which Judge Cooley is chairman, to designate the time and place for the next convention. This committee to-day issued a call, designating March 3d next as the time, and the office of the Inter-State Commerce Commissioner, Washington, as the place for the next convention. Railroad commissioners of all the States, and any State officers charged with any duty in the supervision of railroads or railroad interests, are requested to

BANKERS FAIL.

The Firm of Bateman & Co., of New York and Washington, D. C., Suspend with Large Liabilities.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, December 31.-Arthur E. Bateman and Charles E. Coon, composing the firm of Bateman & Company, bankers, 57 Broadway, New York, and 1,411 F street, Washington, D. C., made an assignment this morning to John A. Garver, without preference. Arthur E. Bateman also filed an individual assignment to John A. Garver without preferences.

NEW YORK, December 31.-The statement that there are no preferences was a mistake. There is a preference of $45,000 to the Fourth National Bank for money loaned and advances, and another of $25,000 to Baldwin, Farnum & Co., of Chicago, as margins. Lawyer Coxe, counsel for the suspended firm, said this forenoon that the assignee would have a statement of the firm's condition ready by Friday next. He also stated that the amount of the firm's liability has been greatly over-estimated, and that they would not reach one million dollars. WASHINGTON, December 31.—The Washington office of Bateman & Co. is closed to day, and no one can be found at present who can give any information as to the condition of affairs here.

The Catholic Mission at Clay Creek, Filled with Inmates, Fired by Runaway Hostiles-A Sharp Fight and Six Men Killed and Many Wounded of the Seventh Cavalry.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star. OMAHA, December 31.—The Bee's correspondent at Pine Ridge telegraphs that Gen. Brooke has just received news from the scene of the fight at the Catholic Mission on Clay creek, that six men of the Seventh cavalry were killed and many wounded. Further particulars are not yet received. The first intimation of trouble at the mission was brought late yesterday afternoon by a courier who spurred in with the startling news that the mission building, where there are a number of Catholic priests and Sisters and hundreds of children, was surrounded by the hostiles, and had been set on fire. The cavalrymen, who had scarcely any rest for four days, were instantly in the saddle, and with a couple of Hotchkiss guns, started on a gallop for the mission. As the dispatch was being written the roar of guns could be heard, indicating that a hot fight was in progress.

Two Strike, Little Wound, Short Bull and other chiefs ran away from the Agency Monday night, after hearing of the Wounded Knee fight, taking with them a hundred warriors. They also compelled the old chief Red Cloud to accompany them under a threat of death. It is these Indians who attacked the supply train and raided the Catholic PINE RIDGE AGENCY, Dec. 31.—The Seventh Cavalry had just reached camp yesterday morning, after repulsing the attack made on their supply train by Two Strike's band, when a courier arrived with the word that the Catholic Mission was on fire and the teachers and pupils were being mass cred. In twenty minutes the weary, hungry and almost exhausted cavalry were once more in motion. They found that the fire was at the day school, one mile this side of the Mission. The NInth Cavalry was an hour behind the Seventh in reaching the spot, and there found the Seventh in a tight place, surrounded by Indians. The latter disappeared, however, when they saw reinforcements arrive for the cavalry. Infantry were also ordered out, but were not needed. The damage done the troops is small. Lieut. Mann, of Company E, Seventh Cavalry, was wounded through the side; the First Sergeant of Company K was also wounded.

OMAHA, NEB., Dec. 30.- A special and tired and would like to stop now, to the Bee from Rushville says: A blinding snow storm which is fast assuming the proportion; of a blizzard. began falling here and at the Agency at 9 o'clock this morning. Advices are that a desultory fight was kept up nearly all night at the late battle ground, within a few miles of the Agency, until by reason of suspicious actions of alleged friendly Indians in camp near the Agency the troops were called in from

> It transpired late yesterday evening that the large camp of friendlies located south of the Agency is made up almost entirely of old men, squaws and children. The question is, what has become of the supposed large number of friendly bucks located there until yesterday. A halfbreed courier, who was through that camp last night, reports that nearly every able-bodied Indian in this friendly outfit had quietly slipped away after dusk and joined the hostile forces. The friendly Indians at Pine Ridge now, he says, are principally squaws and those not able to fight. Up to 11 o'clock this morning, however, everything is reported to be quiet, both sides resting on their arms and each waiting some move | for May delivery was 973sc, with a few from the opposing forces. That further | sales at 9714c, and one or two transacfighting will occur there seems to be little or no doubt. If the Indians should make an onslaught during the storm, they would undoubtedly have great advantage. The danger is that they will now break away to the strongholds in the Bad Lands and will be reinforced by the Rosebud, Standing Rock and other Indians.

Eight more dead soldiers were brought into the Agency after dark last night, being part of vesterday's fatalities. Losses to the Indians are known to have been great, but the definite numbers have not yet been ascertained. The two strangers who were murdered within two miles of the Agency yesterday are now believed to be teamsters from Indian signal lights were again plainly visible last night in the rough country twenty miles north.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

Intensely Cold Weather in Hungary and Great Britain-Industries Suffering-End of the Railway Strike in Scotland-Manchester Markets.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

VIENNA, December 31.-Intensely cold weather prevails in Hungary. The Danube is frozen over at Budapest, and ice-blocks extend from Presburg nearly to Vienna. In addition to this there is a dangerous formation of ground ice. Vienna is menaced with a water famine, all of the springs which furnish the supply being frozen. LONDON, Dec. 31.—Owing to the cold weather prevailing throughout Great Britain a number of leading industries are suffering. The Staffordshire potteries, for instance, have been forced to stop work, it being found impossible to obtain workable clay, thus throwing out of work a large number of people at a period of the year when want of money is most severely felt.

HULL, Dec. 31.-The dock laborers' strike at this place is rapidly extending. Conference between the strikers and chairman of the shipping federation took place this afternoon, and both sides hope that some settlement may be arrived at before the old year ends. GLASGOW, December 30 .- The general managers of the Scotch railways have announced that the strikers have been to all intents and purposes defeated. The Caledonia railway has already reinstated a large number of strikers, who have gone back to work on the company's terms. Trains are now running regularly. MANCHESTER, Dec. 31 .- The Guardian s economical article says: The inquiries are mostly for small quantities. The market is steady and strong. Reports from Liverpool that prices of cotton are hardening determine spinners to hold for full rates. There are few important inquiries for India. SOUTHERN COTTON OIL CO.

Question as to Its Liability to Taxation in New York. By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ALBANY, N. Y., December 31.-Miles Beach, Judge of the Supreme Court of New York, has granted a writ of certiorari on the application of the Southern Cotton Oil Co., directed to State Comptroller Wemple, returnable within twenty days. The Comptroller claims that this company is liable to payment of the New York State tax, and has levied $2,492 as the amount of such claiming that the company is a State organization. The company has a capital of $5,000,000, and has factories at Columbia, S. C., Memphis, Savannah, Atlanta, Montgomery, Ala., Little Rock, New Orleans, and Houston, Texas. The company says it has no factories in this State, and only maintains an agent at New York city. The principal office of the company is at Camden, N. J., financial operations being carried on in Philadelphia. For these reasons the company claims that it is not liable to New York State for the tax. The case will be reviewed in this city.

Pluctuations in Prices of Grain and Provisions.

I'v Telegraph to the Morning Star. CHICAGO, Dec. 30 .- The wheat market opened weak and lower, under the influence of rain and the failure reported from New York of the Wall street firm of Bateman Bros. The opening price tions at 971/2c. There was a good demand at the decline, and an immediate advance, which at the end of the first ten minutes caused some of the sellers at the start to buy back at 98c what they had sold at the opening for 973 c. The advance at this point bumped against the call price and a moderate reaction occurred. Cables were even stronger in tone than they were yester-

The old year went out with a field day on the Cotton Exchange. Transactions were large and fluctuations wide. Liverpool came 2 points dearer and gave our bears a bad scare. They rushed to cover and quickly carried prices up 8 or 10 points. Some of the bulls loaded up for a further rise. The rise culminated soon after the noon call. Then came selling to realize, and some of the more courageous bears jumped on the market with both feet. Down went prices, distant months losing more than the early advance. Relatively large receipts at the ports were an element of weakness in futures. The Southern markets were more active and in some cases dearer. Spot cotton was

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C. PROPRIETORS.

United States Senate, Washington, D. C., February 7th, 1885. I take great pleasure in saying that I am well acquainted with the waters of the Sparkling Catawba Springs. I consider them of the greatest value, having witnessed their effects upon many of my acquaint-ances for the last fifteen years. Situated as they are in the midst of a beautiful rolling country, entirely above the malarial belt, I know of no place in our State more desirable for the health-seeker.

Yours very truly.

DR. E. O. ELLIOTT.

The subscriber has been for many years acquainted with the beneficial effects resulting from the use of the Sparkling Catawba Spring water. It restores the lost appetite regulates the action of the bowels and kidneys, clearing the skin, and removing eruptions (usually benefited by sulphur or arsenic). By its use the patient gains weight, strength and sprits. I have not seen more general beneficial results from the use of any other mineral water with which I am acquainted.
